'Feel No Guilt in Laughter' - Author Unknown

Feel no guilt in laughter, she'd know how much you care.

Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.

You cannot grieve forever; she would not want you to.

She'd hope that you could live your life the way you always do.

So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
the days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you, a word someone may say will suddenly recapture a time, an hour or a day, that brings her back as clearly as though she were still here,
and fills you with the feeling that she is always near.

For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart and she will live forever locked safely within your heart.

Farewell and Giving Thanks

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done; On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, The power and the glory,
For ever and ever. Amen.

'My Grandad Kept a Garden' - Author Unknown

My Grandad kept a garden.
A garden of the heart;
He planted all the good things,
That gave my life it's start.
He turned me to the sunshine,
And encouraged me to dream:
Fostering and nurturing
The seeds of self-esteem.
And when the winds and rain came,
He protected me enough;
But not too much because he knew
I would stand up strong and tough.
His constant good example,
Always taught me right from wrong;
Markers for my pathway that will last a lifetime long.
I am my Grandad's garden,
I am his legacy.
Thank you Grandad I love you.
