INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE DAY IS OBSERVED IN THE MONTH OF JULY

International Justice Day is observed across the world on July 17th. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr once said, "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly." As he wrote a letter after being unjustly incarcerated in a Birmingham Jail, Dr. King firmly believed that justice belonged to everyone.

The World Day for International Justice is observed every year to recognize the strengthening system of international justice and promote the victims' rights. Also known as the Day of International Criminal Justice, it marks the importance of fighting against impunity and bringing justice for the victims of war crimes, crimes against humanity, and genocide.
