FINAL DEADLINE IS JULY 18, 2026

Welcome to the Nicholas County Potato Festival Pageant. We are excited that you have considered participating in our pageant. Our winners will receive a crown, sash, crown pin, cash prize, and a nice gift package, and more. The teen and queen will reign over the 2026 Nicholas County Potato Festival, which will be held in September in Summersville, WV. The queen will represent the Nicholas County Potato Festival at the 2027 WV Association of Fairs and Festivals pageant in January 2027 in Charleston.

Judging Criteria and Clothing Information:

Rehearsal: Clothing can be casual. Wear whatever makes you comfortable. You may wear comfortable shoes, but may bring the shoes you will be wearing on stage, if you wish during actual competition.

Personal Interview: Both teen and queen will appear before the judges in panel style. You will sit in front of the judges and be asked various questions from your personal information page. The interview will be 3 minutes long. This is your chance to impress the judges with your opinions, ability to communicate, and overall sense of self. Wear whatever you feel would be appropriate for an interview, have fun, but no jeans, pant suits are acceptable and please be age appropriate.

Cocktail/Fun Fashion: Both teens and queens will compete. Any color, any style, and pant suits are acceptable. Have fun.

Evening Gown: You will need one evening gown. Choose your best color and one that will look great on stage. No single detail of the gown, makeup, or hair should be left out.

On-Stage Question: Queen and teen will both have on-stage questions.

*NOTE: If you have any facial piercings or visible tattoos (such as neck or arm) we highly recommend that you remove the piercings or cover up the tattoos during the pageant.
