COLLEGE & CAREER PLANNING

est 1997 by Janet Lavender

About Us

Well-Suited is a 501 (c) 3 educational non-profit organization founded in 1997. We provide an array of college and career planning assistance for middle and high school students within the Los Angeles Unified School District through partnerships with community organizations, schools, colleges and universities. Our goal is to increase student enrollment in post-secondary educational institutions and to provide the academic and personal support for individual success.

Our Mission

Our mission is to provide middle and high school students who attend public schools in the Greater Los Angeles area with a comprehensive college and career planning curriculum that gives them the tools needed to personalize a career pathway that will lead them to further their education and pursue the careers they are passionate about.

Youth with a Passion

Established in 2013, Youth with a Passion is a remote 20-week intensive workshop that assists students with identifying compatible careers and the educational, scholarships, internships and extra-curricular requirements needed to pursue them.

Students gain access to their curriculum through Canvas, a digital LMS platform.

Youth Pursuing the American Dream

A three-day intensive college and career readiness seminar for LAUSD high school and college students. The program features guest speakers from the UC and CSU university systems, who will impart their knowledge on attaining a higher education degree. Career professionals, from a host of industries, will also be present to confer guidance. The goal is to provide students with the resources and skills that they need to embark upon the next chapter of their lives as they strive to pursue the American Dream.

Students Feedback

Sunci B
STUDENT

"I am glad that my dad and stepmom signed me up for the program Youth with a Passion. It is one of the best decisions they've made for my future. This program and my mentor helped me make better college choices and helped me realize what I really want to do with my future."

Laylah G
STUDENT

"The program has helped me learn about expenses for college, my final career choice, and what it takes to achieve my goal. I would definitely recommend this program to students who want to go to college or want to know more about it."

Thank You for your Support!
