Meet Franco...

I'm from Argentina and I have worked for more than seven years as a primary school teacher there. I enjoy listening to and learning about different styles of music. I also love cooking — my grandparents are Italian, so traditional Italian food has always been an important part of my life. My favourite sport is soccer, and I enjoy watching and playing it whenever I can.

I have over seven years of experience supporting autistic people through my work as a primary school teacher and literacy instructor for young adults. I also worked as a coordinator connecting a mainstream primary school with the local special education school, collaborating with interdisciplinary teams to support students on the autism spectrum. This experience helped me develop practical strategies, patience and a person-centred approach to understanding individual needs and supporting meaningful communication.
