Meet Favour...

I'm a calm, supportive, and reliable support worker who enjoys helping people build independence and confidence in their daily lives. I'm interested in personal development, community engagement, and staying active. In my spare time I enjoy reading, light fitness, and exploring new places. I bring patience, good communication, and a genuinely caring approach to every client I work with.

I have hands-on experience supporting autistic clients with daily living, emotional regulation, communication, and community access. I focus on patience, structure, and understanding sensory needs to create a calm, supportive environment where each person can thrive.
