Meet Valentine...

During my time working in inclusive educational and support settings, I have gained valuable experience supporting individuals on the autism spectrum. In these roles, I provided tailored assistance to meet each person's unique social, emotional, and developmental needs, while fostering a respectful and supportive environment.

I am a compassionate person with a strong understanding of autism and neurodiversity. I offer non-judgemental, individualised support that builds on each person's strengths and goals. My focus is on empowering individuals to live life on their own terms and at their own pace.

Outside of work, I love singing, and enjoy cooking, hiking, watching movies, listening to music, and photography.
