Meet Soeb...

My name is Soeb, and I am a male support worker with 2.5+ years of experience in disability support. I have experience supporting clients with a range of needs, including paralysis, seizures, behavioural challenges, ADHD, schizophrenia, and cerebral palsy.

I have completed Certificate III in Aged Care and Disability Support and hold all required checks up to date. I can assist with personal care, companionship, meal preparation, domestic duties, and community access. I also hold a full driving licence with car insurance and am happy to support clients across all Western suburbs, around the CBD, and other areas.

I've hands-on experience supporting people on the autism spectrum, and I understand that everyone is different. I take the time to get to know each person, what they're comfortable with and how they like to communicate. I've supported clients with daily routines, building life skills, getting into the community, and managing emotions or sensory challenges.

I'm patient, calm, and flexible in my approach, and I always adjust my support to suit the individual rather than forcing a one-size-fits-all method. My goal is to create a safe, respectful space where clients feel comfortable, supported, and confident to be themselves, while gently encouraging independence at their own pace.

Outside of work I love photography and videography, as I'm a professional photographer too. I love to capture drone shots of the ocean/nature/any good location. I used to work as an IT professional for 7 years, which gave me a good knowledge of computer-related stuff. I love to travel, talk, watch movies, and play tennis and badminton or any outdoor/indoor games. I also love to go on road trips, long rides, or just sit at the beach and watch ocean waves.
