Bulletin for Sunday, January 25, 2026 The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Light of Christ

Times of turmoil have a way of testing not only our patience, but our faith. When uncertainty presses in—through personal struggles or wider unrest—we may feel tempted to withdraw, harden our hearts, or search for control. Yet the Gospel reminds us that Jesus meets us precisely in these moments, inviting us to respond not with fear, but with faith, guided by the light of Christ.

To lean on Jesus during difficult times is not to ignore pain or pretend everything is fine. Rather, it is to allow His example to shape how we respond. Throughout His ministry, Jesus meets suffering with mercy, division with love, and uncertainty with unwavering trust in God. His teachings call us to choose forgiveness over resentment, service over self-protection, and prayer over despair—choices that transform turmoil into moments of grace.

When we live this way, we begin to embody Christ's peace in a restless world. Even small acts of patience, kindness, and compassion become powerful witnesses to the Gospel. By grounding our words and actions in Jesus' teachings, we resist the pull of anger and hopelessness and instead become signs of God's presence for those around us.

As members of the Church, we do not walk this path alone. Through Scripture, the sacraments, and our shared life as a parish community, Christ continues to strengthen and guide us. When we lean on Jesus and shape our lives by His teachings, we discover that even in the midst of turmoil, our faith becomes an anchor—steady, sustaining, and filled with hope.

Parish Events & Activities

Support the Church in Latin America: Second Collection Scheduled for This Weekend

For over 50 years, Catholic dioceses in the United States have participated in the bishops' special annual collection for the Church in Latin America as a sign of solidarity and unity with Catholics in Central and South America and the islands of the Caribbean. For many living in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers make it difficult for people to practice the faith.

Parishioner donations to this collection have supported pastoral ministries like evangelization and catechesis, family ministries, lay ministry training, and the education and formation of priests, deacons, and religious brothers and sisters.

A second collection for the Church in Latin America will take place this weekend, Saturday, January 24 and Sunday, January 25. It is a chance to share the faith with our brothers and sisters in Latin America. You can give at Mass or online at igivecatholic.org/story/USCCB-CLA.

Collection Drive for Care for Real is This Weekend; Next Collection is February 7-8

Midwest Workers Association Super Bowl Tamale Benefit - Tamales Orders Still Being Accepted; Pick-Up Scheduled for February 8!

Volunteers from the Midwest Workers Association (MWA) are still taking tamale orders for their annual Super Bowl Tamale Benefit via phone!

Tamales will be delivered on Sunday, February 8, after the 8:00 am and 10:30 am Masses. Those who attend Saturday Mass are asked to come on Sunday to pick up their tamales.

This tamale benefit supports MWA's Winter Survival Campaign, which provides critical assistance to families during the cold months. The campaign includes door-to-door membership canvassing, utility-bill advocacy to prevent shutoffs and restore service, winter-watch phone calls, warm-clothing distribution, emergency food support so families don't have to choose between heating and eating, and use of MWA's office as a warming station throughout the season.

To place an order, call their office at (773) 285-0485. Tamales are available by the half dozen in chicken in green sauce, cheese and jalapeño (vegetarian), or black bean and cactus (vegan). There is a suggested donation of $10 per half dozen or $20 per dozen.

MWA also urgently needs volunteers to help make tamales from February 2-7, as well as to assist with membership canvassing and utility-benefit advocacy. Speak with an MWA volunteer to learn how you can be part of the Winter Survival Campaign.

Volunteers Needed to Help with Live-Streaming Sunday Masses

We are looking for assistance with live-streaming our 10:30 am Sunday masses. The process is simple, you do not have to have a technical background, a special camera or phone, just a willingness to help.

Email pastoral associate Eloy Escamilla at eescamilla@stgertrudechicago.org for more information.

Join Our Choir!

Do you enjoy singing? Are you still looking for a New Year's resolution? Do you see yourself leading the congregation in song—or perhaps joining a choir that is fun, engaging, and sings in four parts?

I warmly encourage you to consider joining the St. Gertrude Music Program! Our choir rehearses regularly on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 pm and sings weekly at the 10:30 am Mass. No prior choir experience is necessary; however, singers should be able to hold a melody. Whether you read music or learn by ear, you are welcome to join us.

If you are interested in serving as a Cantor and leading the congregation in song, an audition is required, and training will be provided.

If singing isn't your thing but you play an instrument, I invite you to consider joining our ensemble—we are always happy to welcome additional instrumentalists.

Music is essential to the life of the Church, and this parish's rich musical tradition is deeply near and dear to me. If you have questions or would like to learn more, please feel free to speak with me after Mass or email me at jhannau@stgertrudechicago.org.

Catechists Needed

We are looking for catechists to help with our parish's Religious Ed program and Kids Word!

Catechists don't have to be professional teachers. Most are parents and parishioners who enjoy kids and are willing to help them grow in a personal relationship with God, participate in the sacraments, and develop a mature conscience, and integrate faith in all areas of their lives.

Please consider offering your time and talents to help our young people learn about and grow in their faith.

If you have any questions, please reach out to Eloy Escamilla, Pastoral Associate, Religious Education and Youth Ministry, at eescamilla@stgertrudechicago.org or call 773.764.3621.

Growing in Faith

"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light." ~ Isaiah 9:2

"The Lord is my light and my salvation." ~ Psalm 27

Today's first reading from Isaiah and our beautiful Psalm response have taken me down a memory path I'd like to share with you.

I was driving my young children from Chicago to their summer camp at Circle Pines in Delton, Michigan—by way of Cleveland. My dad had recently died; my mother was not doing well, and there was a family wedding.

We had a happy family reunion in Ohio, but I left the wedding dinner later than planned. And it was starting to get dark. My children quickly fell asleep in the back seat. The five-hour drive ahead was on unfamiliar, unlit, winding country roads of central Michigan.

After a while, the light rain developed into a fierce and blinding storm. The dark road was now also slippery. I was pretty much freaking out. Prayer helped me download a simple, calming realization: the headlights cut through the darkness in a way that only allowed me to see the next few feet, but I could see enough. Focusing on a few feet at a time, we slowly found our way to Circle Pines safely.

In today's troubling times, we're driving down an unknown road, in a storm, in the dark, with headlights that only dimly show the way. Besides the political trauma, we also have the issues and struggles of our personal lives and those of our family and friends to deal with. We may not see the way forward clearly or wholly, but we see enough to move into the light of the next few feet.

Let us pray: Lord, bless us as we step into the small, lighted space in front of us.

Student Essay Contest Winner

Matteo Nafe

Recently, students preparing for Confirmation were asked to take part in an essay contest about the importance of forgiving others.

Forgiveness is accepting an apology from someone else for their past wrongdoings such as hurting someone you love or someone breaking your things. Forgiveness helps relieve guilt off your shoulders and helps your mood because you don't have to fight with that other person.

Forgiveness to me is accepting that we feel that something is wrong then we try to fix it or find the common ground between the two different perspectives. It is not always easy to forgive or be forgiven because some people hold grudges which can last a lifetime while others forgive more easily.

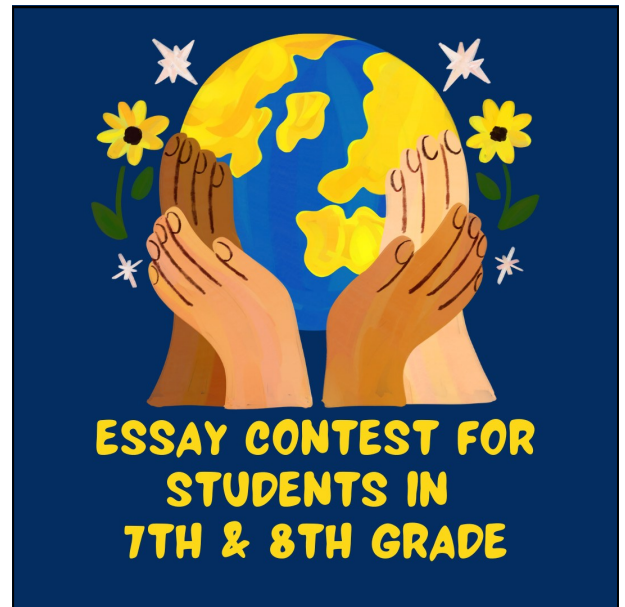

Forgiveness is important because if you hold a grudge with someone it could affect the relationship, and people are hesitant to continue to communicate feelings or thoughts with you. It is harder to be close to someone or build a relationship with them if they have hurt you and not apologized. By forgiving others it also helps you feel better and if the person is truly sorry you should forgive them.

You must really think why the hurt happened to begin with. Many different things like misunderstanding, accident, bad circumstances or disagreements can be the reason. We can begin to forgive by keeping ourselves calm and trying to see from the other person's perspective. Asking to meet and discuss the problems and being a good listener so you can understand the other person and what motivated them.

if you are truly sorry for something that you did wrong to someone such as harming them are stealing from them, then it will be forgiven by God but in the end it is up to the person to decide if they want to forgive you or not. Some people are more hesitant to forgive because they have been hurt by people. The bigger wrongdoing or misunderstanding the harder it is to forgive, because it affected you so much and some people think that if you forgive that it feels like it just didn't happen or that it is ok that they hurt you. It is also hard to ask for forgiveness because some believe it is showing weakness and is embarrassing so they just ignore it rather than deal with it.

When you forgive it strengthens bonds between the people you forgave and yourself as well as other people within the community that may have the same beliefs. When you forgive someone, it encourages others to forgive people as well and will lead to everyone being in an overall better mood. With forgiveness our community becomes more understanding and thoughtful.

Growing up with many friends who were into sports waste I preferred to read books always led to a lot of conflict. Occasionally they would get more aggressive and push or wrestle with me, which was not the nicest and made me feel not welcome and not safe. As we grew, they became more understanding of who I was, and I forgave them for not treating me well. The result is that our friendship is much better, and I no longer hold a grudge against him for doing that.
