Bulletin for Sunday, January 4, 2026 The Epiphany of the Lord

Thank You From St. Gert's Staff

As the Christmas season continues and a new year unfolds, we hope you have found moments of grace, rest, and renewal in the days just passed. May the mystery of the Incarnation—God choosing to dwell among us—continue to shape our lives with compassion, hope, and trust in the days ahead.

This weekend we mark the Feast of the Epiphany, a celebration of Christ made known to the world. In the visit of the Magi, we are reminded that God's saving love is not limited or exclusive, but offered freely to all. Epiphany calls us to be attentive to those around us who may feel overlooked or disconnected, and to extend an invitation—through a word, a gesture, or a welcome—back into community and relationship.

We are deeply grateful to the many volunteers and ministers whose time, talent, and quiet dedication made Advent and Christmas so prayerful and beautiful. From those who worked on our Advent events and greenery sale, to those who sang in the choir, played instruments, starred in our Christmas Eve Family Mass, and decorated the church, as well as our Eucharistic Ministers, Ministers of the Word, and altar servers who served so faithfully at the liturgy, your generosity made a meaningful difference. Because of you, our parish celebrations were welcoming, reverent, and filled with joy.

As we continue to celebrate Christmas through next Sunday's Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, may we remain attentive to God's presence among us and committed to living the Gospel in concrete ways. We pray that the year ahead brings growth in faith, generosity of spirit, and a renewed desire to serve others in love.

Midwest Workers Association Super Bowl Tamale Benefit - Order Tamales Next Weekend!

On Saturday, January 10, and Sunday, January 11, volunteers from the Midwest Workers Association (MWA) will be taking tamale orders after Mass for their annual Super Bowl Tamale Benefit.

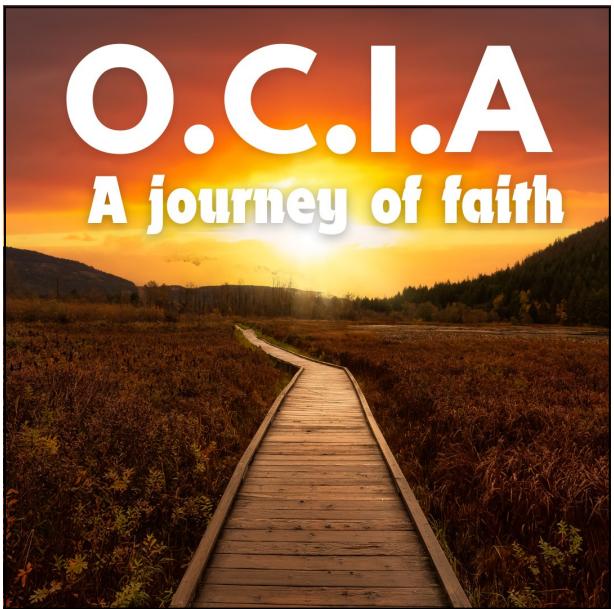

Tamales will be delivered on Sunday, February 8, after the 8:00 am and 10:30 am Masses. Those who attend Saturday Mass are asked to come on Sunday to pick up their tamales.

This tamale benefit supports MWA's Winter Survival Campaign, which provides critical assistance to families during the cold months. The campaign includes door-to-door membership canvassing, utility-bill advocacy to prevent shutoffs and restore service, winter-watch phone calls, warm-clothing distribution, emergency food support so families don't have to choose between heating and eating, and use of MWA's office as a warming station throughout the season.

To place an order, visit the MWA table at the main church entrance or call their office at 773.285.0485. Tamales are available by the half dozen in chicken in green sauce, cheese and jalapeño (vegetarian), or black bean and cactus (vegan).

There is a suggested donation of $10 per half dozen or $20 per dozen.

MWA also urgently needs volunteers to help make tamales from February 2-7, as well as to assist with membership canvassing and utility-benefit advocacy. Speak with an MWA volunteer to learn how you can be part of the Winter Survival Campaign.

OCIA Rite of Welcoming and Acceptance is Sunday, January 11

Growing in Faith

Matthew's account of the three wise men arriving at the stable to worship the baby Jesus is one of the most touching scenes in the Bible and one of the most important.

That's because these travelers — these migrants, if you will — are stand-ins for all of us. Jesus was a Jewish boy born of Jewish parents, but he was born for everyone. As Paul notes in his letter to the Ephesians, the Gentiles are "coheirs" in faith of Jesus.

The wise men, also called kings, are searchers, as we are all called to be — searchers for what is right and true and beautiful in life. As James Taylor advises in "Home by Another Way," his song about the magi, "Keep a weather eye to the chart on high," a reference to the star the wise men followed, just as we follow the star of Jesus's own life and teachings.

The title echoes Matthew: "Then warned in a dream of King Herod's scheme, they went home by another way." There is a beautiful depiction of this in the Cathedral of Saint Lazare at Autun, France, sculpted by the 12th-century artist Gislebertus.

It shows the three men, each wearing a crown, in bed together under a richly evoked bedspread. An angel has appeared and, reaching out a right index finger, has gently touched the hand of one king, whose eyes are now wide open, alerted to wake the other two.

Think of this angel as the Holy Spirit who not only warns the magi but also alerts each of us with the gentlest of touches to signal the right road to follow. As Taylor sings: "Maybe me and you can be wise guys too."

~ Patrick T. Reardon
