29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Fr. Mike Gabriel

Please welcome Jonathan Hannau, our new Music Director! Jonathan will introduce himself at all the masses this weekend.

Congratulations to Father Michael Bradley, who successfully completed another marathon in 6 hours and 8 minutes. Also, thank you to all of you who sponsored Father Mike. All the money raised goes to the Heart to Heart ministry.

A special welcome to our First Communion candidates this Sunday at the 10:30 am mass in church. We recognize as a community that these candidates are spending more time in prayer and preparation for the Sacrament of Holy Communion. They ask everyone to pray for them during this time.

This weekend is Mission Sunday. There will be a second collection. We join this Sunday with churches all over the world to donate some of our treasure to support missions across the globe.

During the month of November, we remember in a special way all those who have died in our parish, as well as our other family and friends. Our annual Mass of Remembrance is coming up on Saturday, November 2, All Souls Day, at 5:00 pm. During the mass, we will have the Rite of Remembrance. In this simple ritual, the names of each of those who have died in each month is called out and a candle with their name is lit. After the mass, families and loved ones are encouraged to come forward and take the candle with their loved one's name on it.

If you have a family member or friend who died in the past year, but was not buried from St. Gertrude, email Sheryl at spatterson@stgertrudechicago.org or call 773-764-3621. Please give us their name and their date of death so they can be added to the list.

We will also have the Altar of Remembrance, which will be in front of the Blessed Mother's Shrine. You are invited to bring a photo of your loved one as we pray especially for them during the month of November. Please put your phone number on the back, and we ask that you pick them up over Thanksgiving weekend.

Congrats to Fr. Mike Bradley on Completing the Chicago Marathon for Heart to Heart!

Many thanks to everyone for your wonderful support as I took part in the "Bank of America Chicago Marathon." It was a pleasant day for a run, with comfortable temperatures and so many supportive spectators. Thank you to all those parishioners who cheered me on.

I finished the marathon in 6 hours, 8 minutes, and 27 seconds. Six minutes faster than last year.

During the marathon, I prayed four rosaries for all the intentions that were asked of me. Your intentions were written down on a piece of cardboard I carried.

I'm grateful for your contributions to St. Gertrude's Heart to Heart ministry. I am proud to run for such a great cause and great people (Sister Susan Quaintance, OSB, Laurie Hasbrook, and the generous volunteers.) I'm very grateful also to Father Mike Gabriel for his support for my running.

From the bottom of my heart, many thanks to all of you!

~ Father Mike Bradley

World Mission Sunday is This Weekend!

Today is World Mission Sunday. We join Catholics around the globe in supporting the mission of the Church in places where the faith is young, growing, or facing particular challenges. Your generous contributions today will make a significant impact on the lives of many and help spread the Gospel message to all corners of the world.

It's important to remember the legacy of missionary work. The Church in the United States was once mission territory, supported by the generosity of Catholics worldwide. Today, we continue this legacy by supporting the Pontifical Mission Societies, ensuring that the Gospel reaches the ends of the earth.

Our contributions help build and sustain communities of faith in places where the Church is still growing or facing persecution. This mission is a testament to our faith in action, reflecting the universal call to share Christ's love. As we reflect on this year's theme, "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," let us recommit to supporting our global Church family.

Fr. Mike Bradley and Laurie Hasbrook to be Recognized as 2024 Edgewater Treasures

On Saturday, November 2, Fr. Mike Bradley and Laurie Hasbrook, along Dr. Jamal Husain, will be recognized as 2024 Living Treasures of Edgewater! The event will be at 1:00 pm at the Edgewater Public Library, 6000 N. Broadway.

Edgewater Living Treasures are residents of Edgewater who have made a difference, some in a profound, fundamental way, and others in a small but significant action that has affected the well being of the Edgewater community. Their deeds were not driven by personal gain, but to help the people of the community – whether generating beauty, fostering harmony, helping the less fortunate or encouraging grass roots activity.

In addition to his work at the Archdiocese and St. Gertrude parish, especially the Heart to Heart ministry, Fr. Mike has raised funds for an AIDs clinic in Uganda, Catholic Charities in Chicago, Leukemia Society, and Northside Catholic Academy.

Laurie has worked diligently to improve the lives of others in Edgewater for more than 20 years. She has served as a support person for Iraqi refugee families, assisted migrants, worked with various mutual aid networks and WhatsApp groups to distribute goods and services to help these new neighbors. And her work at St. Gertrude, especially with the Lending Closet, has been a blessing to so many!

We hope you can join us to celebrate these amazing people!

Parish Play Planned for Saturday, November 2 to Benefit Heart to Heart

The St. Gertrude Players are staging a new musical play on Saturday, November 2nd, at 7:00 pm in the Gym.

The play, "Two Trillion At Least," tells the exciting tale of the Pope's trip to outer space! (The title refers to how many galaxies there are in the Universe.)

Please plan to be there!

Mass of Remembrance Planned for Saturday, November 2

We will have our parish's Mass of Remembrance on November 2 at the 5:00 pm mass. We will light a candle especially for those who died this past year.

If your loved one passed and was not buried from St. Gertrude's, please call the rectory with the name of the person and the date of their death.

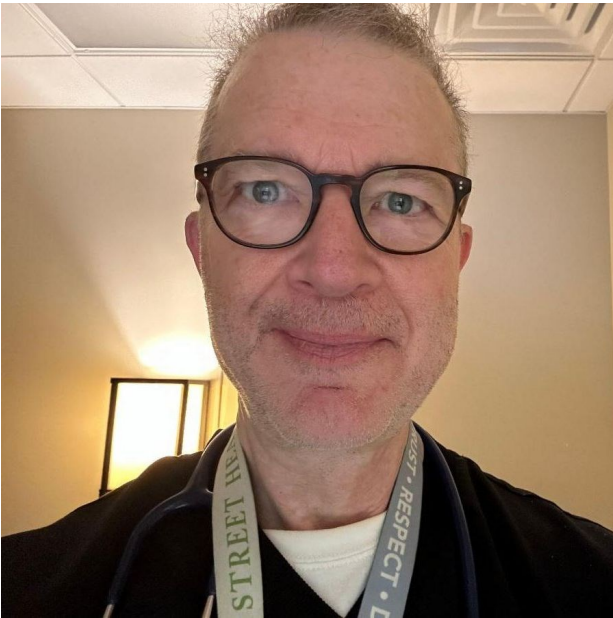

Thank you to our Parish Garden Volunteers

This week, I picked the last of our veggies and herbs. We finally got some carrots and the celery is as large as it is going to get this year. We were also able to harvest some herbs, basil, oregano, and rosemary, as well as several jalapeños, a few cucumbers, and tomatoes.

This season, we were able to share the bounty from our garden with St. Thomas of Canterbury's soup kitchen and the food pantry at Care for Real.

Our heartfelt thanks to our amazing volunteers who contributed to a very successful gardening season!

Growing in Faith

Today is World Mission Sunday, which brings to mind some medical missions that I have participated in: a violent hurricane in Texas; a catastrophic earthquake in Haiti; a chaotic border crossing in Venezuela; the jungles of Ecuador; a war zone in Syria. A tremendous amount of human suffering together with an equally tremendous amount of human courage, love, and sacrifice.

One may ask - why would anyone volunteer to go to these places and put themselves in uncomfortable and risky situations? In The Empire of the Sun, JC Ballard writes a fictionalized account of his experience of being a 12-year old boy captured and imprisoned by the Japanese forces in China during WW2. The book is unrelenting in its depiction of human cruelty and suffering. The characters, including Jim, the young boy, are engaged in a brutal fight for survival that leads to all manner of self-serving behavior.

It is difficult to read as it seems that Ballard's experience has left him without hope for humankind. There then comes a scene where the prisoners have stopped for the night as they are being marched to death across an apocalyptic landscape. Jim has, reluctantly, taken on responsibility for a sick elderly man. As Jim is swatting away flies that are gathering on the dying man's face, he has an epiphany: Taking care of another person is the very same as having some other person take care of you. That's it.

From there on the story continues to describe the unending inhumanity. I think that whenever people engage to help others this simple truth, whether conscious or unconscious, is the motivating force: our belief that we are separate from others is a stubborn illusion. The realized truth of our underlying and fundamental unity is our only hope.
