28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Fr. Rich

Annual Report

As you may remember, every year each pastor in the Catholic Church is required to make an annual report to his parishioners about the stewardship of the parish finances. This weekend, I am presenting our Annual Report for the Fiscal Year of July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2022.

Most of all, thank you! We were still going through the effects of Covid throughout most of that year. Attendance in church had slipped, but many were using the opportunity of our live-streamed Masses at 10:30 am on Sunday. (Which we will continue indefinitely, as long as parishioners are using the service.)

Throughout the pandemic, most parishioners continued their weekly contributions, making it possible to pay our bills. Thank you!

The Annual Report has three columns to give everyone a means of comparison. The first column is the previous (2020-2021) year's report of Actual dollars, which was also during the pandemic. The middle column is the most recent year's (2021-2022) Actual dollars. And the third column is the Budget numbers for the year we are currently in.

Mostly we are okay. That is because of some budget tightening I have already reported on in previous bulletins: when Kevin Cheers retired, we did not fill her position; when Jane Callahan-More retired, we filled her position with a half-time person; and some cutbacks in other areas.

What is most striking about this year's report can be found on lines 14 (Utilities), 16 (Archdiocesan Assessments), and 17 (Insurance). These three categories on the report show a substantial increase in the previously completed Fiscal Year (2021). The increase in these numbers is because the campus of the now-closed St. Ignatius Parish is now in our parish boundaries and we are responsible for its upkeep, etc. Until some or all of the St. Ignatius property is sold, the expenses are in our budget.

So, for right now, we are in a deficit position because of those extra expenses. However, as soon as any part of the campus is sold, the proceeds first go to pay off any bills that have accumulated since the closing. So, we would be paid back in that first step. Then, after the bills have been paid, the remainder of the proceeds will be divided between St. Jerome and St. Gertrude. (As I have mentioned earlier, as far as I know, there is a potential buyer for the school portion of the campus, but so far, no serious inquiries for the church part of the campus.)

Aside from that temporary unique situation, everything else is pretty normal. But we now have to consider raising funds so additional cuts will not be necessary. That will likely lead us to an Offertory Increase program. This is not a surprise, and it is something we have considered for the past few years. It just didn't seem prudent in the midst of the pandemic to be launching a financial campaign. But it can't be put off much longer.

Part of what the report isn't able to relay is the generosity of so many parishioners to those "on the peripheries." Your contributions to Heart to Heart, the Refugee Ministry, to the many special collections which benefit those in need in the broader church and world, the Giving Tree and many other worthy activities is most appreciated.

A copy of the Annual Report is available on the next page.

New Shrine

El Señor de Los Milagros (Our Lord of the Miracles) Feast Day to be Celebrated Next Sunday, October 16

There is a new shrine which is temporarily being housed in the back of church. A little back story. When we were preparing for the closing of St. Ignatius Parish, one of the chief concerns was what would happen to the three shrines in the church. Each of the shrines was from a specific country: Our Lady of the Clouds from Ecuador & Peru, Our Lord of the Miracle from Peru, and Our Lady of Guadalupe from Mexico. El Señor de Los Milagros (Our Lord of the Miracles) now has a new home here at St. Gertrude.

Temporarily the image is in the back of church. But before the end of the year, its permanent home will be on the south wall just outside the shrine of the Little Flower (St. Therese of Lisieux).

The Feast Day is celebrated in October over a number of days and weeks. This year, there will be a special Feast Day Mass on Sunday, October 16th at 12:00 pm with Bishop Bartosic and members of the Peruvian Community in Chicagoland.

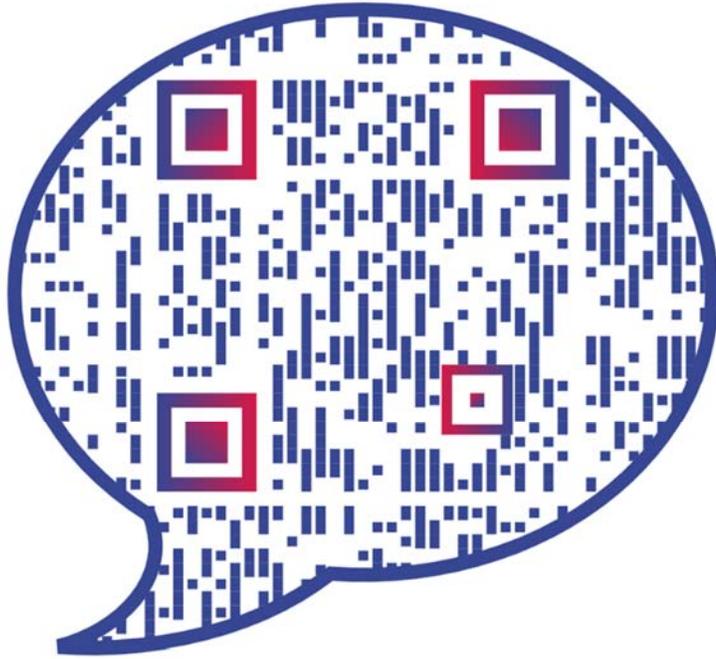

Part of the tradition in this, and many other devotional shrines, is to place some kind of emblem on or near the shrine if your particular prayers have been answered. These are often in the shape of a heart, or, if there was a healing of some part of the body, it might be a small, metallic emblem of an arm, a leg, or whatever was healed. Those emblems are called "milagros" (miracles).

Time this year does not allow for the usual procession as part of the Feast Day celebration. But once the shrine is installed on the south wall and various concerns about the stand ("anda") have been resolved, in future years the Feast Day celebration will include the procession with the image.

We want to extend a special welcome to all those who will be visiting St. Gertrude as part of their regular devotion for El Señor de Los Milagros.

October Listening 2022

From Fr. Mike: Upcoming Parish Listening Sessions & Survey

We are all very aware that we are in transition here at St. Gertrude's. The Parish Council and the Pastoral Staff are looking at ways we can move forward as a parish and continue to grow and meet the challenges before us.

Of course, we cannot do this alone. To start with, we need to hear from you in ways that can help us move forward and grow as a parish community. The Parish Council will be putting out a parish survey, and I would like to offer some time each week for the rest of this month as listening sessions. These times will vary so that we can accommodate most of you. They can be individually or small group. This coming week's times are Tuesday, October 11, following the 7:30 am Mass until 10:00 am and Wednesday, October 12 from 1:00 pm- 2:30 pm. You do not need to make an appointment, just come to the Parish office.

Please remember the focus of these listening sessions is not about the past, but how we move forward into the future and grow. How do we overcome some of the obstacles that we face as a faith community, poverty, racism, and apathy. Hope to see you.

Online Retreat for LGBTQ+ Catholics to Help Heal and Reconcile - First Gathering is Wednesday, October 19

Calling all persons of Catholic faith who identify as LGBTQ+! This retreat serves to examine what it means to be both Catholic and LGBTQ+ in an increasingly diverse socioreligious context. Steeped in biblical tradition, the retreat offers safe and sacred space for authentic sharing and personal vulnerability.

If your experience has been that the Church does not welcome persons of LGBTQ+ identity, then this retreat is for you. In this five-week series, we will:

- Encounter our true humanity through Jesus' true divinity, and vice versa.
- Examine specific texts from Sacred Scripture, both Old and New Testaments, that help us understand God's salvific act in the Incarnation of His Son.
- Cultivate and nurture personal relationship with Jesus by engaging in rich, meaningful discussion.
- Develop an informed conscience and realize our authentic identity through Sacred Scripture and Catholic Church teaching

The retreat will be held over Zoom on five Wednesdays, October 19, October 26, November 2, November 9, and November 16. There are two time slots each session - in the morning from 10:00 am-12:00 pm, and in the evening from 6:30-8:30 pm.

There is a $75 fee for all five sessions, scholarships are available. Visit <https://www.aglochicago.org/retreat> for more information and to register.

Growing in Faith

When it was over, Naaman wanted to take home two mule-loads of sacred soil. That seems like an odd thing, but maybe not, given what he went through.

After all, Elisha had cured the Syrian general of leprosy. He'd sent the commander to dip himself seven times in the Jordan, and, after the seventh time, his flesh was "again like the flesh of a little child." A man of the world, Naaman wanted to do the right thing and give Elisha a big gift, but the prophet refused. So, the general asked for those two mule-loads of soil.

Faith is a funny thing. Naaman, it seems, wanted to sort of bottle up the grace that he had received through the Lord's power and take it with him. Bringing the soil home was a way to bring this mighty Hebrew God along with him.

It's hard to believe that faith works without some magical something, like a lot of dirt, however holy it may be. But, in Luke's Gospel, Jesus says to the leper he has cured, "Your faith has saved you."

It's not the faith will cure every illness. But believing in God and in a deeper meaning to life and believing in the need to live a life that is fully alive to goodness — this is faith that transforms a life, a faith that gives hope and leads to love. It is faith that makes me or make you as beautiful as a little child.

Not faith in soil or any thing, but faith in the soul. And in action.

RCIA: A Journey of Faith—Classes Open to All!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process by which adults learn more about the Catholic Church. Interested participants are still welcome to sign up! Please note there is no class today, Sunday, October 9.

Many people who begin RCIA are non-Catholics seeking to become Catholic or at least to explore whether Catholicism might be a good home. Those who complete the process and decide to become Catholic are initiated into the Church at the Easter Vigil Mass on Holy Saturday. Others who take RCIA are already Catholic but want a deeper understanding of their faith foundation.

If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the RCIA process at St. Gertrude, contact Eloy Escamilla at eescamilla@stgertrudechicago.org or call the Rectory at 773.764.3621.

The RCIA meeting schedule is available here: <https://bit.ly/RCIACalendarUpdated>.

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month: Available Resources

For many, home is a place of love, warmth, and comfort. It's somewhere that you know you will be surrounded by care and support, and a nice little break from the busyness of the real world. But for millions of others, home is anything but a sanctuary. The U.S. Department of Justice estimates that 1.3 million women and 835,000 men are victims of physical violence by a partner every year. And during the pandemic, domestic abuse incidents have skyrocketed.

St. Gertrude's Domestic Violence Resource Page

The St. Gertrude website has a Domestic Violence information page at <https://stgertrudechicago.org/domestic-violence-help> and a click-away button in the event someone is monitoring computer use. It lists information on abusive relationships, including where to start, organizations that provide housing, legal help, Spanish-Speaking assistance, Asian, Arabic, & Korean assistance, LGBTQ help, help for teens & young adults, help securing the safety of pets, what does abuse look like, how to help a friend or family member, emotional abuse, why people stay in abusive relationships, and more.

Did You Know?

At least 1 in 4 women, and 1 in 7 men, are victims of severe violence from a partner at some point in their life.

Interpersonal violence can be physical, sexual, or psychological, and also includes stalking.
