25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

No man can serve two masters.

-Luke 16:13

From Fr. Rich

Sometimes out of the worst possible situations there comes uplifting and positive news.

Because of covid-19 and the various measures the federal government took to safeguard the economy and making sure everyone had enough funds to stay afloat, that same program made sure that children who were used to getting most of their main meals in schools found new opportunities for having healthy and sufficient meals. This was such a success that the level of hunger in the United States among children is the lowest it has been since they started keeping statistics.

Poverty and hunger are two of the worst crises that plague all parts of the world -- even here in the wealthiest country in the history of the world. But through enormous efforts and programs to address those two destructive dynamics in our society, there is good news not only here in the United States, but throughout the world. Across the board, the percentage of hungry and poor has continued to decline. To be sure, it doesn't mean these human issues have been alleviated! But never in the history of the world have so many been lifted from poverty and out of hunger than in the world we live in today.

Today's Gospel reading reminds us that we cannot serve two masters -- in this case, we "cannot serve both God and mammon." Which reminds us of the temptation to let down our guard and turn to self-satisfaction in light of the good news about poverty and hunger. But that would be foolish for everyone, and it would be selfish for those of us who head down that path. Instead, we should rejoice in the good news and then redouble efforts to make poverty and hunger an even smaller problem for the human community.

This is not only good Christian "activity", but also the only reasonable and logical course for intelligent and humane people. Serving God means we cannot take a break from reaching out to the poor and the homeless and the unemployed and under-employed. Loving God always means caring for our sisters and brothers.

This week, what new activity (or activities) might we participate in to lessen hunger and poverty in the world?

It Wasn't the Rain, It was the Water!

Last Sunday, we had to cancel the Parish Potluck Picnic after the deluge during and after the 8:00 am Mass. The rain knocked out the parking lot as a venue. But it was really because all our buildings were flooded from the deluge, and we had no place to move to that we ended up cancelling.

Fr. Rich (continued)

We had over two feet of water in the church and rectory basement, and lesser amounts in the Lower Hall, Ministry Center, and school cafeteria. Although the force of that huge amount of water blew out the manhole covers on the street and created a temporary fountain, after about an hour, the water receded. As so many of you already know, and once the water is gone, the cleanup begins!

I want to thank all the Parish Pastoral Council members who were ready for the picnic and did all the organizing. A mini picnic with dishes people had brought with them and shared took place immediately after the 10:30 am Mass in the church vestibule. Thanks!

Transitions (This article appeared in last week's bulletin and is being rerun for those who were unable to get to church last weekend.)

Some months ago, preparing for the retirements of Kevin Cheers and Jane Callahan-Moore, I realized that in a period of a little over two years, everyone on the parish staff would have changed positions, except Fr. Mike Gabriel. This wasn't by design, but simply due to planned retirements and some job opportunities that opened up for some people. As that reality dawned, I also realized we had a responsibility of preparing the parish for this extended time of transition.

A quick recap of the changes: the Director of Religious Education and Youth Ministry, Jim Potthast decided to be a stay-at-home dad when the pandemic hit so he could home-school his children; Art Blumberg, Business Manager, decided to take a position as Director of Evangelization at his home parish; the front office receptionist, Marge, decided the long commute was more than she wanted to continue; Fr. Mike Bradley retired and moved; Kevin Cheers, Pastoral Associate, retired; Jane Callahan-Moore, Heart to Heart Director retired; and Mary Clare Barker, Music Director, will be retiring within the next year.

In the same order as above: after a year of Kevin Cheers "filling in" for the Director of Religious Education and Youth Ministry, Eloy Escamilla came on board as the new Director and has also taken on responsibility for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults; Eduardo Soto has come on a parish Operations Director (a new title and job description from the Archdiocese which includes the Business Manager position); Maria Garcia came on as front office receptionist; Fr. Bradley, who had been a resident-priest helping out with sacraments and other duties, was not replaced; nor did we replace the Pastoral Associate position because of finances; Pat Sullivan came on as the new Director of Heart to Heart as a half-time position.

Which leaves me and Fr. Mike Gabriel. A not-well-kept secret is that I am retiring on January 1, 2023, after 44 years of ministry here in the Archdiocese of Chicago. I will be moving to a home I have in St. Joseph, Michigan on that date, and then do some road-tripping for about four months. And then I will figure out the rest!

But because of the number of position changes, we also wanted to do whatever we could to guarantee a sense of continuity here at St. Gertrude Parish.

Fr. Rich (continued)

But because of the number of position changes, we also wanted to do whatever we could to guarantee a sense of continuity here at St. Gertrude Parish. To that end, Fr. Mike and I spoke with Bishop Bartosic and the Priest Placement Board representative about Fr. Mike becoming pastor. They all thought that was a good idea, presented it to Cardinal Cupich and he agreed. On January 1, 2023, Fr. Mike will become the Administrator of St. Gertrude Parish. In our newly updated system, the Archdiocese only makes pastors on July 1st each year. So, Fr. Mike will be Administrator from January 1-June 30, and then become pastor on July 1, 2023. It is both of our hopes that this will go a long way towards achieving continuity.

I will celebrate a "Retirement Mass" on Sunday, December 18 at 10:30 am with some kind of reception afterwards, then be here for Christmas, and then move to Michigan.

The parish staff has been working on this time of transition for some months now. We are well aware that the size of the staff has declined some and there will be some things that need to change. Some of the things staff members used to do will need either new volunteers, or some things may no longer be able to be done.

Please feel free to ask me or any of the parish staff any question you have or share and concerns. We are committed to continuing the excellence of St. Gertrude Parish for many more years. Your observations and suggestions are always welcome.

Season of Creation—September 1-October 4

We know how to celebrate Advent and observe Lent, rejoice at Easter. But how might we observe the non-liturgical Season of Creation from September 1 through October 4? As individuals and families, we can create our own traditions. Plant a tree. Help preserve a forest. Take walks in nature. Support national parks. Shrink your carbon footprint.

Prayer for use during the Season of Creation

Creator of All, from your communion of love, your Word went forth singing a symphony of life that sings your praise! By your Holy Wisdom you made Earth to bring forth a diversity of creatures who praise you in their being! You call us to keep your garden. You create us in relationship with creation so that we can listen and learn from their voices how to safeguard the conditions for life.

So often, we turn in on ourselves. We close our ears to your Word calling to us through creation and the Scriptures. We lament and grieve the loss of species, their habitats and human cultures that have perished because of our unwillingness to listen.

In this Season of Creation, call to us, as from the burning bush, with the sustaining fire of your Spirit. Teach us to contemplate your creation, and listen for the voice of each creature declaring your glory. Fill us with hope to quench the fires of injustice with your healing love. Enlighten us to follow Christ in walking lightly on this holy ground.

This we ask in the name of the One who comes proclaiming good news to all creation, Jesus Christ. Amen.

RCIA: A Journey of Faith—Classes Open to All!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process by which adults learn more about the Catholic Church. This free program begins September 18 and meets until Pentecost.

Interested participants are still welcome to sign up!

Many people who begin RCIA are non-Catholics seeking to become Catholic or at least to explore whether Catholicism might be a good home. Those who complete the process and decide to become Catholic are initiated into the Church at the Easter Vigil Mass on Holy Saturday. Others who take RCIA are already Catholic but want a deeper understanding of their faith foundation.

The RCIA process does not ask those who have been baptized in another faith to give up their denominational experiences. Rather, the RCIA process seeks to add new colors and designs to their existing faith life tapestry. In addition to attending Mass, the RCIA process includes weekly gatherings of breaking open the Word of God, sharing our stories, and learning about our faith traditions.

If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the RCIA process at St. Gertrude, contact Eloy Escamilla at eescamilla@stgertrudechicago.org or call the Rectory at 773.764.3621. The RCIA meeting schedule is available here: <https://bit.ly/RCIACalendarUpdated>.

The Gym Mass is Back!

This Sunday morning, September 18, the Gym Mass returns to its regular 10:30 am time! This more casual Mass is held at 1401 West Granville Avenue.

The Gym Mass is held weekly until Father's Day, with a few exceptions for Combined 10:30 am Mass celebrations in Church.

For the 2022-2023 Gym Mass schedule, visit <https://bit.ly/GymMass2022-2023>.

SEMINARIAN EDUCATION FUND

The archdiocesan collection for the education and formation of our future priests.

Sept. 17-18: Second Collection for Seminarian Education

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The seminarians preparing to be the future priests who will serve our parishes are a great blessing to us. They have stepped forward to give their lives to minister to the children and grandchildren of this present era. Today, more than ever, we need compassionate and knowledgeable priests who will walk with us through life, sharing in our joys and sorrows and guiding us through life's challenges.

This is why we need to invest in their training at both the University of Saint Mary of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary and at Saint John Vianney College Seminary in Saint Paul, Minnesota. At Masses throughout the archdiocese this weekend, as we ask for your encouragement and prayers for our seminarians, we also ask you to invest in their formation. Your financial support will help to cover the educational and formational costs of their preparation, including tuition and fees, room and board, and health insurance.

These young men are giving their lives for us, and I ask you to match their generosity by making a sacrificial gift as we take up this collection. You will be investing in them, but also in the future of our Church.

A remittance envelope will be placed in your pew or at the back of the church for your gift. You may also send your donation to your parish, noting that it is for "Seminarian Education," or make a gift online at archchicago.org/seminarianfund.

An additional way to support vocations in the archdiocese is by encouraging young men to consider discerning the priesthood. Many current priests credit their vocation to personal invitations and conversations with loved ones and friends who recognized the potential in them.

On behalf of current and future archdiocesan seminarians, thank you. May God continue to bless you abundantly. Please know that I keep you in my daily prayers and intentions, and I ask for yours in return.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago

Pastoral Parish Council Meeting This Thursday, September 22

The next PPC meeting will be held on Thursday, September 22.

Meetings are held in the Ministry Center from 7:00 pm-8:30 pm and are open to parishioners.

If you would like to discuss anything with the PPC, please email stgertrudeparishcouncil@gmail.com.

Discussion on the Seamless Garment This Monday!

The Peace and Justice Ministry will host the final Fireside Chat this Monday, September 19 from 7:00-8:30 pm on the Rectory lawn.

The theme for this one is the Seamless Garment. When the Supreme Court reversed Roe v Wade, a lot of discussion arose on what the term pro-life meant. One side being, the protection of the unborn, the other that you have to have an ethic of life, all life. The other issue how political this issue is.

We suggest participants review the following readings and questions prior to our gathering:

- <https://catholicoutlook.org/the-seamless-garment-is-the-catholic-position/>
- <https://www.newswise.com/politics/with-no-political-home-seamless-garment-catholics-still-hold-paramount-importance>
- What part of the Seamless Garment Consistent Ethic do you find most challenging?
- The Consistent Ethic of Life identifies both protecting and promoting life as important, but the implication is that they're not equal. Do you agree? Disagree?

Fireside Covenant

As we engage in conversation, please observe the following:

- Confidentiality - What's said here, stays here.
- No preaching - We speak from our personal experiences, we are not here to judge, we avoid saying "we should" or "you should".
- No cross talk - We listen in silence while others are speaking. We do not comment or ask questions about what others say.
- Respect time - Our gathering is 90 minutes. Please respect time so we can all share.
- All are asked to share - By coming to this gathering, you agree to participate in some way. Even if it's just your name, we ask you to share something.

Questions? Email Fr. Mike Gabriel at mgabriel@stgertrudechicago.org.

We hope to see you there!

Join our 10:30 am Sunday Choir!

New members are still welcome to join our 10:30 am Sunday choir, as well as cantors interested in singing at the 10:30 am and other weekend Masses.

The group practices on Sunday mornings at 9:40 am and on Thursday nights at 7:00 pm when we have special music.

To join or for more information, contact Mary Clare Barker at mcbarker@stgertrudechicago.org or 773.764.3621.

Post-Covid Liturgy Changes

When we shut down completely for covid, we knew we would have to change some of the usual ways of operating. When we were able to reopen and resume our liturgical celebrations, we did so with fewer ministers assisting, Communion distributed only with hosts and only in the hand, no altar servers, both readings are now read by one person instead of two, and we pretty much look for volunteers to help in the ushering duties on an almost weekly basis.

But now we hope we are, if not exactly moving beyond covid, at least returning to some new version of normal. We would like to recruit and train a new group of altar servers, return to each of the two scripture readings at Mass proclaimed by a different lector/reader, recruit and train some new ministers of Communion to assist in distributing Communion, recruit and train some new ushers, and also seek out a captain for the ushers at each of the three Sunday Masses.

We are doing recruiting right now until the end of September. Training will take place for new Ministers in the beginning of October. New schedules will include all these ministers beginning the weekend of October 15-16.

Please consider how you might participate in our Sunday Masses as a minister in any of these capacities. Our Pastoral Associate, Eloy Escamilla, can be reached at 773.764.3621 or eescamilla@stgertrudechicago.org with any questions, or simply to volunteer.

If you have done any kind of liturgical ministry before and would like to try that again, or a different ministry, please come forward. If you have never been a liturgical minister but would now consider that level of participation, please come forward. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to speak with Eloy, Fr. Mike, or myself. Thank you for your consideration!

~ Fr. Rich

Relaunch of our Ministry of Altar Servers for 7th Graders and Up

This program seeks to encourage the youth of our parish to fully engage in our faith through their service to the Church as altar servers. The altar server ministry is very important, and the youth will be making a serious commitment to our parish family. This ministry is open to any boy or girl who has received his/her First Holy Communion.

Altar servers should plan on spending no more than 60 minutes each time they serve.

Training Sessions for New Ministers

- Training for altar servers will be in the church on Monday, October 3 at 6:30 pm.
- Training session for new Ministers of the Word will be in the church on Tuesday, October 4 at 6:30 pm.
- Training session for new Eucharistic Ministers will be in the church on Wednesday, October 5 at 6:30 pm.
- For people interested in serving as ushers, the training will be 30 minutes before the 5:00 pm and 10:30 am Masses; and 15 minutes before the 8:00 am Mass during the first weekend of October. We are looking to have 4-6 ushers per Mass.

We appreciate your kindness and generosity!

Parish Garden Goodness

Another harvest of our parish garden happened last week!

The vegetables and herbs grown from our garden will be shared with both Care for Real and the St. Thomas of Canterbury soup kitchen!

We truly appreciate all of our garden volunteers for their work watering, weeding, and harvesting!

Growing in Faith: The Shrewd Steward

Today's Gospel is disturbing, complex, and challenging. There appears to be four different lessons for us.

First, when the dishonest steward, about to lose his job for cheating his master, quickly reduces what the master's debtors owe him so they'll be beholden to him, Jesus surprisingly says, the master praises him. It isn't for his dishonesty--but for his ingenious and urgent efforts. Oh, if only we believers were as innovative, focused, and urgent about the things that really matter, love, holiness, and justice! Learn from this shrewd dude!

Secondly, after that mindbender, Jesus calls for our rightful use of our riches (time and money), something we really know if we ourselves have been helped financially or otherwise. We recall Jesus' teaching: "Whatever you do to the least, you do unto me." Do I see you hungry, Lord? Or naked, alone or in jail? What do I do?

Third, Jesus' next lesson really scares me: How you deal with little things proves whether you can be trusted with big things. Oops. You mean this life is not just a practice round? Oh dear. How much time do I have left?

Jesus' final lesson is famous: You can't serve both God and riches. Boom. Serving God cannot be a part time job, something to do in your spare time. Our whole life belongs to God, and He is a jealous Master. Jesus tells us we either belong to Him totally or not at all. Yikes.
