May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.

~ 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17
Next weekend, we will celebrate our parish Feast Day honoring St. Gertrude the Great. As we have done for the past few years, we will use this celebration as an opportunity to have the Anointing of the Sick at all the Masses that weekend. Please extend an invitation to anyone ailing in your family or down the street to join us. The Anointing of the Sick is for anyone suffering from any serious illness or any chronic condition which limits their ability to live a full and vital life. This can be a physical, spiritual, mental, or emotional condition. This sacrament reminds us that we are embodied spirits and the fullness of who we are can be compromised for so many reasons. In this sacrament, we are promised the healing grace of God’s love—that includes the forgiveness of our sins. Each time we are anointed, all our sins are forgiven. As we prepare for this celebration next week, please keep in your prayers in a special way all those who are ailing for any reason and ask for God’s mercy to be present to them directly and through all those they encounter.

Don’t forget to mark your calendars for the other events on our Feast Day weekend: the International Dinner on Friday, November 15 at 6:30 pm in the Social Hall, and the All Are Welcome Concert on Saturday, November 16 at 7:30 pm in Church. Our episcopal vicar, Bishop Mark Bartosic, will be here to celebrate the 5:00 pm Mass on Saturday, November 16. It’s going to be a great Feast Day weekend!

It is not too late to nominate fellow parishioners for the Parish Service Awards which will be presented at our Thanksgiving Day Mass. The form for nominations is below. Please complete it and drop it in the collection basket or return it to the Rectory.

Two updates on the weekend Mass schedule. As a fuller article in the Parish News section explains, the Parish Pastoral Council is going to be in the back of church after Masses next weekend to gather input from parishioners about your experience with the weekend schedule—its convenience, different styles of music, etc. Please take a moment to speak to one of the Council members and fill out one of the short questionnaires. This is part of our year-long exploration of the schedule.

Last week, I met with some members of the 9:30 am Sheridan Rd/Sacred Heart Sunday Mass congregation to inform them that, with the October Count now completed, it seems clear their efforts to substantially increase the number of people attending that Mass have not been able to achieve the desired goal. My thanks to all those who were engaged in those outreach efforts and the generous hospitality of Sacred Heart throughout all those years.

Monday is Veteran’s Day. Remember to say a prayer of thanksgiving for all the men and women who have served in the Armed Forces!

Next Sunday is not only our Parish Feast Day, it is also the World Day of the Poor. This is a great opportunity to search out some ways to help people on their path out of poverty—perhaps by a donation to a scholarship fund designed to help poor students, or doing some “homework” to investigate which items in your regular grocery cart can benefit people as they rise from poverty and which ones may be contributing to holding people in poverty and adjusting shopping habits accordingly. And all of us can say some prayers for God’s help, for changing hearts, for concern for our sisters and brothers throughout the world who survive every day on so much less than we can possibly imagine.
Growing in Faith: Reflecting on Maccabees

In the last couple of weeks, from Habakkuk to Sirach to the Psalmist to Paul there has been a crying out to the Lord. The bad guys are winning. Hear the cries of the sick, oppressed, poor, dying. Today we confront the story of the sons of the Maccabees—a luridly gruesome account of torture, humiliation and viciousness. They remain faithful and resolute to the point of accepting pain and death. They are heroes. How many of us could follow their example? Could any of us?

We consider them heroes because they could have finessed their predicament but didn’t. Most of us are not heroes. We bear the suffering that cannot be finessed—the cruel logic of biology, the humiliation of abilities degraded, the inevitable course of corruption and injustice, the grief for those taken from us. There is nothing to finesse.

Where is our God? Surely, He filled the hearts of the Maccabees with hope and resolve. They claimed their own resurrection and celebrated the course they chose.

Where is our God? We who are not heroes also claim the resurrection. Martha, the sister of Lazarus says, ”I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.” And Jesus responds, “I am the resurrection and the life.” Acceptance that we are a resurrection people, then, must be critical—not as comfort or a palliative. To claim our own resurrection is to claim our birthright and our death right.

How is the New Mass Schedule Working for You? The Parish Pastoral Council would like to hear about your experience with the new weekend Mass schedule. After the Masses on our Parish Feast Day weekend (November 15-17), there will be members of the Parish Council in the back of church to listen to parishioner’s thoughts on the new schedule. There will also be a simple questionnaire available to fill out. We would like to hear about the qualities, charisms, and features you especially appreciate about the weekend Mass you typically attend. We would also like to discern if the changes that have been made continue to meet the scheduling needs of St. Gertrude parishioners. We look forward to hearing from you after the 5:00 pm Mass on Saturday, November 16 and after the 8:00 am and 10:30 am Masses on Sunday, November 17.

No Gym Mass on Sunday, November 17: On Sunday, November 17, the Mass schedule is 8:00 am and 10:30 am Mass in Church and 9:30 am at St. Gertrude East. There is no 10:30 am Gym Mass.

More than 46 million people in the United States live in poverty today. CCHD identifies and addresses the unique obstacles people face as they work to lift themselves out of poverty. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. By supporting this collection, you are giving those on the margins a hand up, not a hand out. Please be as generous as you can.

St. Gertrude’s Annual Feast Day Celebration!

Feast Day Celebrations

Friday, November 15, Saturday, November 16 & Sunday, November 17

During the month of October, our parish partnered with the Archdiocese of Chicago Domestic Violence Outreach and collected diapers and pull-ups, new children’s pajamas and socks, and full-sized toiletries needed by victims of domestic violence and their children living in local shelters.

The staff of A Safe Haven, one of the eight shelters that benefitted from the collection drive, recently wrote to us and the other parishes that participated, thanking parishioners for their generosity:

“WOW!! On behalf of The Safe Haven Network and our donation recipients, I cannot thank you enough for your unprecedented response to our annual Supply Drive! You helped us collect more donations than we have ever collected, and those donations will directly support domestic violence shelters and animal shelters in and around Chicago that serve YOUR friends, family, and neighbors. You are amazing!!”

Thank You from A Safe Haven

Parish Stewardship

“But the Lord is faithful, he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one...May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and the endurance of Christ.” ~ 2 Thessalonians 3:3, 5

To practice faith is not like waving a magic wand, erasing all of our troubles. We understand that our world is full of torment and strife. But we also have faith that the power of love will ultimately be triumphant.

All are welcome to attend the event. Everyone is encouraged to bring canned goods to the service which go to the food pantry at Care for Real.
