Second Sunday of Advent

Bulletin for December 9, 2018

*John went throughout the whole region of the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance
for the forgiveness of sins.*

Luke 3:3

From Father Rich

Many thanks to all the coordinators and volunteers for last weekend's Christmas Bazaar! It was great fun and a great fund-raiser for St. Gertrude. The treasures for sale in the Gym, the pancake breakfast on Sunday morning in the Social Hall, the special sections for the teens and for young children, the wreath & garland sale—all worked together for a great weekend! Thanks to all who participated!

It's that time when Giving Tree gifts need to be returned so they can be delivered in time for Christmas. If you took an ornament from the basket, identified the gift to be purchased and helped decorate the Giving Trees, now is the time to get the gift dropped off in Church or to the Rectory so they can all be sorted and delivered to their distribution points. Thanks for helping make Christmas a little brighter to someone in need.

Next Sunday at 2:00pm in Church, we will celebrate our parish's Advent Reconciliation Service. Please join us as we spend about 45 minutes in reflective prayer, examination of conscience, and the forgiveness of our sins. What a great way to get ready for the celebration of Christmas!

In October, we presented the Faith in Action Sunday Offertory increase program. Most of the solicitation part of the program was completed at the end of November. While we still expect to be receiving some commitment forms, our parish Business Manager, Art Blumberg, reports that based upon the returned commitment forms, parishioners have indicated they plan on giving a total of $99,507.00 within the next year, above and beyond what they had been giving before we launched the program! That is great news and goes a huge way to helping us toward a balanced budget. Thank you to all those who have already returned their commitment form. And if you haven't yet done so, please consider returning your form by the end of this year.

Last weekend, some parishioners asked about the Feast of the Immaculate Conception of Mary being a Holy Day of Obligation since it was on a Saturday this year. I realize how confusing the rules of Holy Days get! On all the rest of the Holy Days -- except Christmas -- if the Feast falls on a Saturday or Monday, the Obligation to attend Mass is lifted. But because the Feast of the Immaculate Conception of Mary is our nation's patronal feast, it is always a Holy Day, no matter what day of the week it falls on. Hope that clarification helps.

An update on the position of Director for the Heart-to-Heart Ministry here at St. Gertrude. We have begun sharing the job description with some people who expressed interest even before the job had been posted. And interviews will begin soon. But whomever the new Director might be, that person will not actually start until Mary Ann Collins has finished her "separation," e.g. using up her vacation and other days. This will be in January. I'll keep you posted when there is more information available.

Growing in Faith

The prophet Baruch envisions a great gathering of peoples, rejoicing that they are remembered by God. I picture people from all over the world streaming toward a single center. They come in overalls or hijabs, cheongsams or jeans, saris or dashikis. They are eaters of hamburgers, samosas, injera, curries or tofu. They've heard the word of the Holy One, and this gives them strength for the journey, but how will they get along?

It's hard to rejoice when differences, in Syria and Yemen and right here in Chicago, compel human beings to fight to the death. How can I rejoice when differences in my own family lead to struggle and disconnection? St. Paul in Philippians prays for an increase in our understanding and experience. We need to grow up, become wiser, more just.

"In the fifteenth year of the rule of Tiberius Caesar," begins Luke 3, "the word of God was spoken to John son of Zachariah." Now we're in a specific time and place, where God intervenes and gives a son, Jesus. Through details we learn how God remembers particular people, including each one of us. Knowing this I can sow in tears but reap rejoicing for not just I, but "all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

So we should stand on the heights envisioned by Baruch, look to the east and join the gathering. We should remember the God who remembers, our mouths filled with laughter, our lips singing songs and our bodies inspired by dancing.

Advent 2018, Week 2: My Soul is Thirsting for You, O Lord

In today's Gospel reading, we meet one of the greatest characters in the New Testament when we follow John the Baptist to the desert where he is, "proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins." John both reminds us of our hope in God's promise, and instructs us to straighten out our lives so we will be ready for what God is doing.

His instructions reflect the refrain from our psalm, "My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord." The parts of us that are not yet complete, the emptiness we feel in our souls, all of these are the urgings of God to make ready the way of the Lord in our minds and in our hearts and in our souls and in our lives. On this second Sunday of Advent, what one thing might I do this week to prepare the way of the Lord?

John the Baptist's location gives us a clue to one of the considerations for our preparations: he went out to the desert. We need to find some time and some place for quiet, alone time with God. In one of the busiest, most frantic times of the year, we need to go against the grain. As we heard earlier this year, God is not found in the fierce storm or driving wind or earthquake, but in the tiny, whispering sound. We can only hear that sound when we have quieted ourselves enough to listen carefully. As an example for all of us, each Friday at the school mass, once everyone has settled into their pews after Communion, we sit in complete quiet for just a few minutes, eyes closed, to speak with God. Because we do this every week, the children are ready for this moment each week and are quickly quieted. A wonderful calm is present in church. Each of us adults could learn from them to develop this simple discipline. It only need be a few minutes, but it can completely change our day and make it much more positive -- because we are inviting God into our lives.

Sometimes we don't even know how "thirsty" we are until someone points it out to us. That's what happened to the people who listened to John the Baptist. Maybe that is also what could happen to us this Advent. And once we are aware of that thirst, we will also know it is God who satisfies us.

Thank You for Making Our Bazaar a Success

What a great time we had last weekend at St. Gertrude! So many people stopped by to purchase gifts from our wonderful vendors, enjoy delicious food at our concession stand and pancake breakfast, visit with Santa, make crafts at the Kids' Corner, check out our White Elephant areas, and decorate their homes with greenery purchased from the Bazaar. This annual event is our parish's biggest fundraiser of the year, and we are so thankful for everyone who came out to make it a success and support our church.

It truly takes a village to pull off a Christmas Bazaar as vibrant as the one we just had. We are so very grateful to the those who volunteered their time and services for the first time, the many parishioners that help every year, some even working both Saturday and Sunday, those who combed through their closets to donate buried treasures, the men's basketball players who put the tables away, the brave few who scaled ladders to decorate the Gym, the folks who showed up on Friday to organize and price items, the concessions stand crew, the pancake breakfast team, the wonderful musicians who played on Sunday morning, the gift wrappers, the workers who handled the greenery, the patient people who coordinated and staffed the Kids Area, the volunteers who helped out in our White Elephant areas, sold books, ran the Christmas table, sold raffle tickets, worked the treasures table, the many who worked to help clean up, and the elves and Santa who made so many children happy. It was a terrific time, and couldn't have happened without the involvement of many! Thank you again for your service! Merry Christmas!

A Letter from Cardinal Cupich

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

During the weekend of December 8-9, our parishes will be conducting the Retirement Fund for Religious collection. This annual appeal benefits 31,000 elderly Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests—women and men who have consecrated their lives to serving God and the Church.

During the 2018 World Day for Consecrated Life, Pope Francis remarked, “There is no growth without roots and no flowering without new buds.” This analogy has certainly been born out within the life of the Church in the United States. Senior religious were the roots that established Catholic schools, hospitals, and social services agencies—allowing generations of Catholics to flourish. Today, the example of older religious inspires younger members to persevere in mission and ministry.

Yet many religious communities struggle to provide for aging members. Most elder religious served for small stipends, leaving a large gap in retirement savings. Rising health care costs and decreased income compound the struggle to provide adequate care. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious provides vital funding for medications, nursing care, and more. It also helps religious congregations implement long-range retirement strategies, even as they continue to serve the People of God.

Since the inception of this annual event nearly 30 years ago, the Archdiocese of Chicago has been one of the most generous donors to this collection for those who have labored long and hard in the vineyards of the Lord. I recognize this is but one of numerous worthy causes in need of assistance; I ask simply that you give what you can. In thanksgiving for their faithful service, please join with me in supporting the Retirement Fund for Religious and in praying for God’s blessing on our nation’s elderly religious.

Sincerely in Christ,

Cardinal Blase Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago

The sisters, brothers, and religious order priests ministered for little pay, resulting in today's shortage of retirement savings. Your gift helps provide prescription medications, nursing care, and more. Please be generous.

Christmas Pageant Rehearsal Info: There will be two 35 minute rehearsals. One today, Sunday, December 9 and another next Sunday, December 16 after the 10:00 am Mass in the Ministry Center for the upcoming Christmas Pageant. At the first rehearsal, children will receive the script, be assigned roles and go over Christmas music for the pageant. The second rehearsal on December 16 will focus on the staging of the drama. Parents are expected to be present with their children and will be assigned small roles/tasks to make the pageant run smoothly.

There will be a dress rehearsal on Sunday, December 23 after the 11:30 am Mass in the Church. Kids and parents should come to the Rectory at noon to dress in their appropriate costumes. The dress rehearsal might last one hour. If your child/children would like to participate in this event, please contact me at mcbarker@stgertrudechicago.org.

Christopher has worked as a hospital and prison chaplain, homeless shelter manager, campus minister, and spiritual director. He currently lives in the Loyola University Jesuit Community and is pursuing a Master of Social Work at Loyola University. He will be joining us as a homilist this month.

Remembrance Altar: If you had a picture or a memento on our remembrance altar in November, please pick them up in the Rectory office.

Thank You! The Christmas Bazaar Greenery Committee would like to extend their thanks to the St. Matthias Men's Group for their help in unloading the delivery truck at St. Matthias and prepping the greenery for transportation. We especially thank Minas U-Haul Rental Center who graciously let us use their truck for free to transport the greenery from St. Matthias to St. Gertrude. We appreciate all the help from our volunteers.

Commonweal Conversation

The Commonweal Discussion Group will host a Three Kings Day Social on Sunday, January 6 in the Ministry Center from 3:00-6:00 pm. We will meet in the dining room for appetizers and dessert; we encourage each person to bring a favorite appetizer.

This gathering will be a capstone to the holiday season and an opportunity to meet other parishioners from various ministries of St. Gertrude who are also invited. And we will also continue our on-going Commonweal discussions at the intersection of our Christian faith and political and social concerns. Come to enjoy, but hope to leave with fruitful reflections for the New Year!

Care for our Common Home

On the second Sunday of Advent, the Gospel recalls how John the Baptist preached that “all flesh shall see the salvation of God.” Pope Francis reminds us in Laudato Si that flesh has a more expansive meaning than first meets the eye: "We have forgotten that we ourselves are dust of the earth (cf. Gen 2:7); our very bodies are made up of her elements, we breathe her air and we receive life and refreshment from her waters." Caring for our earth, caring for our neighbor and caring for ourselves are not separate endeavors. As we consider our shared imperative to care for our common home, let's celebrate the earth that connects us.
