Easter Blessings to you and your loved ones!

From Father Rich

Happy Easter!

In the tradition of some of the Eastern churches, believers greet each other with a special Easter greeting, “Christ is Risen!” And the other person responds, “He is truly Risen!” In that simple exchange is contained the joy, the wonder, and the surprise of our salvation. It is almost more than we can bear, more than we dared to believe.

In such human moments of inexpressible joy, we often turn to two very different strategies. Sometimes the enormity of what we are experiencing leaves us dumbstruck—incapable of speaking because what we are processing goes beyond any words we know. And the other option is that we find others sharing the same experience and with whom we sing and cry out and shout in gladness about our good fortune. Easter summons both reactions from us. In quiet moments, we contemplate what it means that our sins are forgiven, our lives are already caught up in God through Christ Jesus, and we will spend eternity with the God who loves us beyond words or even imagination. Which is also what we do in voice as we sing joyous Alleluias and make wonderful noise unto the Lord in Glorias and other songs of rejoicing.

One of the great truths of Easter is that this gift is for everyone—regardless of how well their Lenten observance was carried out—if at all! It is for those who believe deeply as well as those who struggle with their faith. It is for the wealthy as well as for the poor - and everyone in between. It is for family and friends and neighbors, as well as sworn enemies and those we fear and mistrust. It is for children and for senior citizens and for every age. It is for those that are LGBTQ and every other parsing of the human experience. It is for those successfully married, for those who are divorced, for those living together without marriage, and for those trying to figure out just what their relationship is. It is for the employed, unemployed, underemployed, and retired. It is for students in pre-school, post-graduate school, and all levels of education. It is for the healthy and the sick, for able-bodied and disabled, for the athletes and the nerds, the short and the tall, the fat and the fit. It is for the weak and the strong, the articulate and inarticulate, the hard of hearing and deaf, and those who can hear a pin drop. It is for those with 20/20 vision and those with glasses or contacts and the blind. It is for those with children, those without children, and those who are children.

God’s love knows no bounds. So the Resurrection of God’s Son, Jesus, cannot be limited to those who think they can draw those limitations. It doesn’t depend upon those who agree with me or you or the Church or anyone. God’s love is here for everyone.

Always, in the end and in the middle and in the beginning, it is all about God’s love for us. As we sometimes say in our prayers, “As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. World without end. Amen!”

May you feel God’s love in your life and in your heart. May you share that love with all those you encounter. For today we celebrate the greatest truth of our faith: Christ is Risen! Christ is truly Risen! Alleluia!

~ Father Rich

Growing in Faith

“Practice resurrection.” It is with this simple, yet powerful phrase, that Wendell Berry concludes his poem, Manifesto: The Mad Farmer’s Liberation Front. When I first read these words, I reacted physically. They touched something deep inside me, and I instinctively felt that this is what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ—to “practice resurrection” over and over again throughout the course of our life journey. This is what it means to experience conversion, not just once in a lifetime, but continually, as we embrace the mystery of a God who becomes known in the moments of our own “unknowing”, when we are invited, called, or compelled to allow ourselves to fall into the deep mystery of resurrected life.

As sisters and brothers of Jesus Christ, the Risen One, washed in the waters of Baptism and anointed in power of the Spirit, we, in faith, proclaim that, ultimately, there is no form of death that can lay hold to us. We are mandated to be witnesses of this in our lives as individuals and as a community of disciples - to be about the work of proclaiming the Reign of God where the blind see with fresh eyes, those crippled by injustice and the burdens of life can walk, those who are excluded and marginalized are welcomed, and those whose lives have been deadened are raised to new life.

We live our lives now immersed in the resurrected life of Jesus. We “practice resurrection” as we proclaim with our own lives that the power of death in all its forms has been shattered. On this Easter Day we shout “Alleluia!” in praise of the God who, in the resurrected Christ, proclaims the Good News of ever-lasting life.

Together We are St. Gertrude

St. Gertrude is a parish that is truly dedicated to helping others. Whether it be through providing comfort to sick or bereaved parishioners with visits and hand-knit lap blankets, reaching out to teens through W.O.W., making sandwiches for the neighborhood shelters, finding coats for new members of our community, collecting food for Care for Real, providing help with our Heart to Heart ministry to older adults, or the Refugee Ministry, our community of faith shows love to others every single day.

Great churches don't just happen, they are created and nurtured by active, engaged, and generous parishioners. We appreciate you sharing your time at Church, your talents and helping hands at our fundraising events, stewardship, and your prayers. We are grateful to have you as part of our St. Gertrude family! Happy Easter!

Welcome to our Faith Community!

At the Holy Saturday Evening Vigil, we welcomed the 2019 RCIA class into our faith community.

Congratulations to Vu Truong, Lauren Le, Brittany Clark, Feruz Urazaliev, Rebecca Hembel, and Justin Svoboda!

An Easter Message from Cardinal Blase J. Cupich

Easter 2019

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Risen Lord Jesus,

As we walk on our life journeys in this world, we may often feel overwhelmed. Struggle and suffering can mark our lives because of health issues, job insecurity, family concerns, or the painful loss of a loved one. The world itself, in Saint Paul's words, "has been groaning" (Roman 8:22), as it struggles with wars, violence, ecological degradation, economic injustice, and natural disasters. And as we are keenly aware this past year, the Church herself has struggled mightily with the shameful legacy of abuse and its mismanagement.

It seems that the landscape of our lives is entirely shaped by struggle and suffering. And that might seem to be the sum and substance of it all, but, in faith, we know that it is not. Our celebration of the Lord's Resurrection in this Easter season opens our eyes beyond this desperate landscape to a new and hope-filled horizon. There is more to the story than our struggle and suffering. In the Resurrection of Jesus, we can begin to see a new life ahead of us that God offers to us.

As we go forth in this Easter season, I am reminded of the great Psalm 118 that the Church so often prays: I was thrust down, thrust down and falling, but the Lord was my helper. The Lord is my strength and my song; and has been my savior. There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the just. (vv. 13-15)

May this Easter season renew within you and your loved ones the conviction that God is your helper and an abiding awareness of your victory in the Risen Lord Jesus.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich,
Archbishop of Chicago

Almoner's Program

There are so many stories that I have been told about the power of almsgiving via the Almoner's program. The combination of the human contact to feed the soul and the gift card to feed the body has deepened our relationship with our community and to our God.

I am grateful so many parishioners chose to participate in our program! Hundreds of McDonald's gift cards were distributed to those in need, and more importantly, those receiving the cards were seen as individuals and kind words were shared.

Thank you for your generosity of spirit!

~ Kevin Cheers, Pastoral Associate

Green Team/ECRA Event

The Edgewater Community Springtime Clean and Green Day will be held on Saturday, April 27. This year, members of the Edgewater community Religious Association (ECRA) have committed to participating, as will several students on the NCA Green Team.

ECRA participants will gather by 8:30 am at the Ismaili Center's parking lot just north of 6259 N. Broadway. The Center will then host a breakfast for all. Cleaning will then take place from 9:00 am-12:00 pm at selected sites throughout Edgewater. After noon, there will be a thank you lunch at the 48th Ward Streets and Sanitation yard. Pivot Arts, Red Moon, and ESSP are planning a special social event, also at the Streets and Sanitation yard.

Please contact Allen Stryczek at 773.973.3637 or astryczek@sbcglobal.net for more information, or to volunteer to help coordinate this endeavor.

Green Team members will meet in front of NCA, 6216 N. Glenwood, at 9:00 am. Afterward, Green Team members are invited to have lunch at Senn High School. If you have questions or plan to participate, please contact George Tully at georgetully82@gmail.com.

Heartbeats

The Lending Closet is now accepting unopened packages of medical supplies including gloves, gauze bandages, alcohol wipes, bed pads, adult briefs, Q-Tips, and disposable wash clothes. Items can be dropped off at the Heart to Heart office, 6214 N. Glenwood Ave., during normal business hours.

To access our Lending Closet for durable medical equipment or supplies, please be sure to schedule an appointment with the Heart to Heart office beforehand at 773.973.5464.

Please note, we have a new email address! We can be reached at heart2heart@stgertrudechicago.org.

Parish Stewardship

"Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."
~ 1 Corinthians 5:8

We have journeyed through Lent with fasting, abstinence, and prayer. During Holy Week, we welcomed Jesus into Jerusalem, shared in the Last Supper, and witnessed Jesus's death on a cross. And now it is Easter. The tomb is empty. The Resurrection is at hand.

Easter calls for new beginnings. Let us celebrate the new yeast within us rising to make new bread. Let us celebrate rising with Christ.
