21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Second Collection for Haiti This Weekend

The death toll is rising from the 7.2 magnitude earthquake that rocked Haiti on Saturday, August 14. Thousands are injured and many more have lost their homes and loved ones—while an unknown number are still missing.

Families in Haiti face tragedy from this devastating earthquake—while still recovering from the last one. Catholic Relief Services (CRS) are on the ground, in the places most heavily hit in Les Cayes and Jeremie, working with partners and affected communities to identify the most urgent needs. Meanwhile, tropical depression Grace is threatening further devastation, food is in short supply as stores and stocks have been destroyed and a landslide has blocked access. Timing is critical.

This weekend, a second collection will be taken for CRS and their work in Haiti. Donations can be made in church or directly to CRS at <https://support.crs.org/donate/haiti-earthquake>. Your gift will help provide essential relief, likely to include clean water, sanitation, shelter, and emergency supplies, giving immediate aid to families affected.

Live in love, as Christ loved us.

Meet our new Pastoral Associate, Eloy Escamilla!

Hello! My name is Eloy Escamilla, and I am the new Pastoral Associate for Religious Education and Youth Ministry here at St. Gertrude Church. I am from Pachuca, Hgo., Northeast of Mexico City. I obtained a Master of Arts in Theology, majoring in Scriptures (New Testament) and a Master of Divinity from Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. I am so excited and thankful to God to be a new member of the staff!

It is always exciting to come to a new place and learn new things, get to know new people, and share our talents so together we can all build up the Kingdom of God that Jesus would always talk about.

Teaching Religion is one of my passions, so I am looking forward to meeting with our students who attend Religious Education classes. I am also looking forward to meeting and working with catechists/teachers and parents who share their faith with our students. And of course, I am looking forward to meeting you all!

I am always going to try to do my best with a big smile!

Prayers!

~ Eloy Escamilla

Catechists Needed to Teach Religious Education This School Year

We are looking for catechists to teach in our parish's Religious Ed program! Catechists are usually not professional teachers, just willing parents and parishioners who enjoy kids and want to help them grow in a personal relationship with God, participate in the sacraments, and develop a mature conscience, and integrate faith in all areas of their lives.

Please consider offering your time and talents to help our young people learn about and grow in their faith. If you have any questions, please reach out to Eloy Escamilla, Pastoral Associate, Religious Education and Youth Ministry, at eescamilla@stgertrudechicago.org or call 773.764.3621. Thank you for your consideration!

Reminder: Masks Required in Church and at the Rectory: Per the recommendations of the CDC, please wear masks when at Mass, stopping by the Rectory office, or when visiting other indoor Archdiocese spaces. This is required of both vaccinated and unvaccinated visitors.

Growing in Faith

Last week's readings for the Assumption contained Mary's Magnificat which has always resonated very deeply in me: "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my savior." It also has the wonderful lines: "The hungry he has filled with good things, and the rich he has sent empty away."

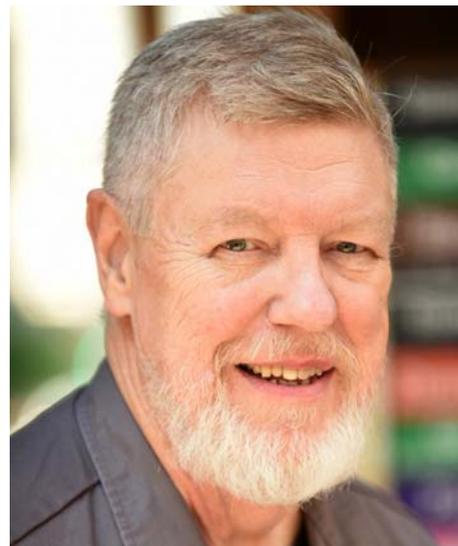

You might notice that I'm using an older English version of Mary's prayer. I like its poetry. It speaks to me much more than recent renderings.

I mention this because, at times when there are aspects of the Catholic faith and church that are troubling, I find it helpful and spiritually rich to recall the Magnificat and other prayers and Bible verses that touch me deeply. These are wellsprings of my personal faith. They are the deep soil that has nurtured me as a believer.

I'd imagine that any Catholic — well, any religious believer of whatever sort — would be able to call to mind such personally important spiritual touchstones. Perhaps, for you, it is the story of the Good Samaritan. Or the Beatitudes. Or Psalm 23. Maybe it's a novel, such as Muriel Spark's Memento Mori. Or a John Donne poem. Or a movie, such as The Passion of Joan of Arc.

Or maybe it's another of my favorites, The Exsultet, usually sung by a cantor on Holy Saturday, a 1,500-year-old song filled with wonder and awe, repeating the phrase "This is the night," including the lines: This is the night/of which it is written:/The night shall be as bright as day,/dazzling is the night for me,/and full of gladness."

Additional Openings Available for our Resurrection Compost Garden Program

There are several openings for people interested in participating in our compost garden program.

Parishioners that wish to join in this program will lease a 5 gallon Resurrection Compost bucket for $10 and can deposit appropriate materials in the bucket to St. Gertrude's deposit compost bin, which will be used to fertilize our vegetable garden that feeds patrons of Care for Real and the St. Thomas of Canterbury soup kitchen.

Interested people should speak with Mary Clare Barker, our Music Minister, after any of the weekend Masses or send her an email at mcbarker@stgertrudechicago.org.

Welcome Back Sunday Planned for September

As a way to reconnect as a parish and to welcome new parishioners from St. Ignatius, we will host a Welcome Back Sunday on Sunday, September 12.

We will have a Welcome Mass at 10:30 am, followed by hospitality and music.

We hope to see you there!

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process by which adults learn more about the Catholic Church. This free program begins in the fall and meets until Pentecost.

Many people who begin RCIA are non-Catholics seeking to become Catholic or at least to explore whether Catholicism might be a good home. Those who complete the process and decide to become Catholic are initiated into the Church at the Easter Vigil Mass on Holy Saturday. Others who take RCIA are already Catholic but want a deeper understanding of their faith foundation.

The RCIA process does not ask those who have been baptized in another faith to give up their denominational experiences. Rather, the RCIA process seeks to add new colors and designs to their existing faith life tapestry. In addition to attending Mass, the RCIA process includes weekly gatherings of breaking open the Word of God, sharing our stories, and learning about our faith traditions.

If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the RCIA process at St. Gertrude, contact Kevin Cheers, Pastoral Associate, at kchears@stgertrudechicago.org or call the Rectory at 773.764.3621.
