Bulletin for September 22, 2019

No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon.

~ Luke 16:13

From Father Rich

Today is Catechetical Sunday. We recognize and honor all the women and men who serve as catechists in our various religious education and formation programs: in our parish school – NCA (Northside Catholic Academy), in our Religious Education Program on Sunday mornings, in our baptismal preparation class, in the marriage preparation programs of Pre-Cana and FOCCUS, and in any of our other programs that help us explore the richness of our Catholic faith. Thank you to all our catechists for your wonderful witness to and sharing of the faith!

This evening from 5:00-6:30 pm, there is a meeting of United Power for Action and Justice with Mayor Lori Lightfoot. The meeting will be at DRW College Prep, 931 S. Homan. As members of United Power, any parishioner is invited to participate. The three central topics to be covered are: Reclaiming Communities on the southwest and west sides of Chicago by building homes and equity for working and working poor communities in Chicago; Treating, Not Incarcerating: ensuring crisis stabilization and housing so people facing mental health issues don't end up in jail; Reducing Gun Violence: leveraging public-sector gun purchasers to advance gun safety and hold gun manufacturers accountable for making our communities safer. If you would like to join the delegation from St. Gertrude, please contact parish representatives Renée Reilly at 773.334.4962, or reillyslp@yahoo.com, or Laurie Jacob at 773.262.6816 or jacobfamily@sbcglobal.net.

There are complimentary copies of two Catholic publications you may be interested in available on the tables at the Church exits. Give Us This Day is a monthly publication which contains the readings and prayers for the masses of each day of the month. It also offers reflections on the scripture readings for each day as well as some interesting brief articles on saints - especially more contemporary saints. The other available publication is Commonweal magazine. This is an independent Catholic publication in magazine format which comes out monthly. It provides articles from many contemporary Catholic writers and scholars about issues of interest to Catholics.

Both publications made their October issues available to parishes interested in offering this opportunity for their members who might be interested in digging deeper into their Catholic worship and Catholic thought in our world. Please help yourself to a copy as you head home and consider subscribing.

This Thursday, St. Gertrude Parish is the host of the Novena of Healing and Atonement at 7:00 pm in Church. This special nine-day prayer is part of the Vicariate's efforts to reach out to those who have been victims of the clergy sexual abuse or those who wish to support them. Bishop Bartosic will be present throughout the novena. This is a traditional prayer form, with periods of silence, Eucharistic Adoration, readings and hymns and is expected to be about 45 minutes in length. Please join us for this opportunity to seek God's blessings of healing in our church. (Information on the other churches and locations is contained on page 7 in the bulletin.)

Just a reminder that next weekend begins our annual three-week focus on Stewardship. The weekends of September 28-29 and October 5-6 are Sign-Up Sunday or Commitment weekends, encouraging every parishioner to consider if they might be able to volunteer in a ministry or service here in the parish. These are concerned with the first two of the "three-T's" -- time and talent. Please give some thought to how you might share some of your time and talent for the good of all. Then, the weekend of October 12-13 is the Annual Financial Report outlining how your financial contributions have been used for the operation of the parish during the past fiscal year, and the challenges and opportunities we face today and in the future. This is the "third T" - treasure. Please also give some thought to how you share your financial resources for the good of the parish.

Growing in Faith

Rarely is there a Bible reading as chilling as today's from the book of Amos which includes the lines: "We will buy the lowly for silver, /and the poor for a pair of sandals."

The people talking are the well-to-do, the comfortable. And here is what God has to say about them: "Never will I forget a thing they have done!"

This was written in a time of slavery, and there are many forms of slavery today, even in a land like ours where the ownership of people is banned by law. People are enslaved by bottom-line, greed-based economic decisions, whether made by corporations or governments, employers or you or me. Hundreds of workers laid off to win a tiny increase in the value of a corporation's stock — that's "trampling on the needy."

Those of us who are involved in making such decisions have a moral duty to think, decide, and act humanely. All of us face complicated moral questions about how to pursue humane policies through the ballot box and in public expressions of our beliefs.

There is something deeper, though. I can't "buy the poor for a pair of sandals" unless I deny that person's humanity. How do I act with a person who is poorer than me or less educated or somehow different? Love your neighbor. That's Christianity 101.

That means treat the other person as someone who is as fully human, as richly human, as you are. Jesus was human. You're human. I'm human. The refugee and the CEO are human. What else is there to know?

Father Mike to Run the Chicago Marathon for Heart to Heart

On Sunday, October 13, over 45,000 runners will take part in the Bank of America Chicago Marathon. A number of parishioners and I will be among them. If you have a prayer intention that you would like me to remember as I run the 26.2 miles, please send your intention to me at mbradley@archchicago.org.

This year, I am once again running to support the wonderful ministry of Heart to Heart, our parish's organization that reaches out to the elderly and shut-ins of the Edgewater community. Heart to Heart provides a helping hand to those who need a ride to the doctor, home visits, and wellness checks. There is also a medical equipment lending service that provides walkers, canes, and other assistance.

Because of your support for my run, last year over $15,700 was raised. Once again, I ask that you please contribute to Heart to Heart. Envelopes for this cause are available in the back of church, or you could donate online at <https://www.givecentral.org/location/8/event/606>.

For those runners who are taking part in the Chicago Marathon (or any marathon), you will have the prayers and encouragement of the St. Gertrude community. Please let me know that you are running, and I'll add your name to our prayer intentions. It's always good to realize that people are praying that God will guide our steps.

Thank you very much for your support for this run!

"Let us run with endurance the race God has set before us." ~ Hebrews 12:1

~ Father Mike Bradley

This is Father Mike's 20th Chicago Marathon and 46th marathon overall!

Refugee and Immigration Ministry - Anniversary Celebration

The St. Gertrude Refugee and Immigration Ministry thanks you for your loving support as we celebrate our fourth anniversary!

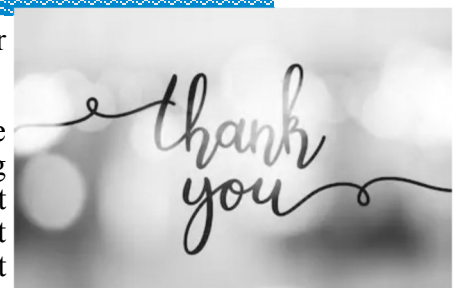

Our events to date have been truly wonderful. Our presentation on the immigrant experience on Thursday, September 12, with speakers Mary Meg McCarthy, Executive Director of Heartland Alliance's National Immigrant Justice Center, and Sr. Maureen Jerkowski, who works with immigrant children at Maryville, was incredibly insightful. About 30 people came out to hear about their work and their thoughts on refugees.

Last weekend's second collection went to the Refugee Ministry, with a total of $6,437.88 raised! The funds collected will allow us to continue our mission of sponsoring families and individuals in transition. And we were delighted so many enjoyed the Refugee Ministry's hospitality after the 10:30 am Mass in Church.

We'll continue to celebrate the Refugee Ministry's anniversary this weekend by hosting another postcard writing event today, Sunday, September 22 after the 10:30 am Masses in the Ministry Center Dining Room. Please join us we write to our political officials and urge them to be more open and accepting of refugees into our nation. We will provide all the materials needed as well as examples of how to word things, and snacks.

Thank you again for all of your support this month and over the years! We truly could not do it without you!

~ Denise Goodman on behalf of the Refugee Ministry

Parish Stewardship Report

"This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth." ~ 1 Timothy 2:3-4

Pontius Pilate cynically asked, "What is truth?" Philosophers have argued over the meaning of truth for thousands of years. But we as Christians should always keep the words of 1 John 4:16 in mind. "God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him." This is the truth—we are saved in and by and through love.

Novena for Healing and Atonement

An initiative of Catholic laity of Vicariate II is to unite the faithful in addressing the issue of clergy sexual abuse, through prayer for healing, atonement, and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit within our Church.

Nine evenings of prayer and reflection will be hosted through Sunday, September 29 by the parishes on the northside and in the northern suburbs. The novenas are meant to give us the opportunity to walk together in the Spirit toward reparation, forgiveness, and healing. Novenas will be held from 7:00-8:00 pm in each location.

Hurricane Dorian Help

Hurricane Dorian has devastated the Bahamas and parts of the southeastern United States. Catholic Relief Services and Catholic Charities USA—along with local partners—are mobilizing resources to communities affected by the storm.

Photos and videos surfacing from the northern islands of Abaco and Grand Bahama reveal massive flooding and destruction. Join us in prayer for our brothers and sisters who have been affected by Hurricane Dorian, and consider donating to provide emergency food, water and shelter to people who need it most.

How you can help:

- Pray for those affected by Hurricane Dorian
- Give online to hurricane relief in the Bahamas – to Catholic Relief Services at <https://support.crs.org/donate/hurricane-dorian>.
 - Checks payable to Catholic Relief Services can be sent to:
 - ◆ Catholic Relief Services
Hurricane Dorian Response
P.O. Box 17090
Baltimore, MD 21297
- Give to hurricane relief in the U.S. – donate to Catholic Charities USA online at <https://www.catholiccharitiesusa.org/>.

St. Gertrude will have a second collection for CRS on Saturday, September 28 and Sunday, September 29 at all Masses.
