Third Sunday of Lent

Bulletin for March 15, 2020

WHOEVER

NEVER THIRST.
- JOHN 4:14

From Father RichCensus 2020

Ninety-five percent or about 143 million households in the country will receive an initial invitation to respond to the 2020 census in their mailboxes between March 12 and 20. Households are encouraged to respond when they receive their invitation. Depending on how likely the area is to respond online, households will receive either an invitation encouraging them to respond online or by phone (about 112 million households), or an invitation along with a paper questionnaire (about 31 million households).

All invitations will include a short phrase in English and twelve additional languages inviting people to respond online or by phone in their language. In areas where twenty percent or more of the households need Spanish assistance, the invitations will be in both English and Spanish.

All households receiving an invitation in the mail will receive a second letter in the mail shortly after reminding them to respond. Then, households that still haven't responded will receive a series of additional reminders, including a paper questionnaire in mid-April. Census takers will follow up with households that don't respond to collect responses in person.

I encourage everyone to respond to the 2020 Census. This count is very important in determining our representation in government and the monies our area will receive from many government programs.

Other News

Next weekend, Friday, March 20 and Saturday, March 21, the annual Spring Play, Three Cheers, a Patriotic Celebration of a Veteran! will be in the Gym at 8:00 pm. Come on out and enjoy a fun night of great singing and dancing and acting! Hope to see you there.

On Sunday, March 22 at 1:00 pm in Church, we will celebrate our Lenten Parish Reconciliation Service. This service offers a time for quiet reflection with a guided examination of conscience, some scripture and hymns and a celebration of our sins forgiven. Please plan on joining us.

This week, we celebrate two important Catholic saints' days with St. Patrick on Tuesday, March 17, and St. Joseph on Thursday, March 19. I'm not sure what effect the coronavirus will have on the usual celebrations of these feasts. Both are usually celebrated with gatherings involving food and drink. But I want to address an often-related topic which isn't an issue this year but will be soon enough. It is the question of what do we do when any kind of celebration falls within the season of Lent, especially when it falls on a Friday and challenges either the Guidelines for Fast and Abstinence, or our own personal Lenten practices of giving something up. Can we still celebrate the event and eat or drink what we have given up? Can we eat meat (this is usually a St. Patrick Day question when it is on a Friday) if it's a Friday? Can we get a dispensation? And the short answer to all those questions is that each of us has to make her/his own decision. It's up to each of us to decide whether or not we want to follow the guidelines and whether or not we are going to take on any personal practices during Lent. And it is up to each of us to decide if whatever feast or event is worthy enough for us to exempt ourselves from those practices on this day for our own reason(s). We decide if we give ourselves a dispensation. To put it another way, it is up to each of us to be responsible for our own lives, our own religious practices, etc.

~ Father Rich

Lent at St. Gertrude Parish

Lenten Reconciliation Service Next Sunday, March 22 at 1:00 pm

Our Lenten Reconciliation service will be in Church. This service, lasting less than an hour, offers absolution of our sins in preparation for the celebrations of Holy Week and Easter through reflection and quiet prayer.

Stations of the Cross Fridays During Lent at 3:00 pm

Stations of the Cross will be prayed every Friday during Lent at 3:00 pm in Church.

On Good Friday, April 10, there will be Living Stations of the Cross at 3:00 pm, featuring teens from the parish.

Almoner's Program

Each weekend in Lent after Mass, $5 gift cards to McDonald's will be distributed by volunteers, with the intention of parishioners sharing them and a conversation with those in need. There will be a second collection after all weekend Masses during Lent to fund this program. Everyone is encouraged to use the moment of the handing over the card as an opportunity to have a brief and humane conversation with the other person, affirming them and wishing them well. This interaction is often more important than the card itself.

Rice Bowls

The CRS program is meant to encourage praying, fasting, learning, and giving.

For more information about using the rice bowls during Lent, visit <https://www.crsricebowl.org/>.

Thank you to all who participated in last weekend's Lenten Food Drive!

The donations were very generous, and Care for Real was grateful for all of the food, personal care items, and sundries. We especially thank our young Confirmation candidates and teens from our youth group for organizing this food drive and for sorting and repackaging the items.

Growing in Faith

The story of Jesus and the woman at the well in today's Gospel is one of those cinematic and very human stories that we find in the Bible. You can see it unfold before your eyes, as if in a movie. In fact, I find it fun and useful to imagine a couple of actors doing the scene.

How, for instance, would the one actor convey that Jesus is tired after his journey? How would the other say her lines to the request of Jesus for a drink? "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" What tone would she use? Would she be meek? Argumentative? Sassy?

And, from there, the scene plays out in a lively give-and-take until the woman says something about the Messiah coming, and Jesus delivers the punchline of the scene: "I am he, the one speaking with you."

Great literature gives us insight into what it means to be human. In a way, all great literature is sacred-writing. The Bible is "official" sacred-writing and also great literature.

This resonant exchange between two human beings says something about what it means to be human and what it means to be a believer. It also says something about how we meet God.

Jesus isn't going to be the one who fills my order at Starbucks, but my interaction with the woman behind the counter—or with anyone—is something special and sacred. As Jesus says in Matthew's Gospel, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Lent 2020: Discovery of Mission Through Prayer – Week III

Christ encounters us to reveal the depth of our need and fills us with love.

Sometimes our prejudices are so ingrained we don't even realize we have them until something unexpectedly happens and we see clearly for the first time how we think and feel about certain things. We encounter the truth! And in that encounter, we not only realize how distorted our thinking had been, but also how strong is our need for truth and the desire for love.

Today's gospel passage of the "woman at the well" is a story that traces that very pattern. In their conversation, it is immediately clear that both Jesus and the woman are speaking from their pre-set understanding of the relations between Jews and Samaritans. But Jesus begins the encounter by cutting through all that when he asks the woman for a drink. We can tell by her response how shocked she is he would even speak with her, let alone ask of her this favor.

In the following exchange, we see what a difference it can make in any life when we deal with the truth of things. The woman's eyes are opened not only to the reality of who Jesus might be, but who she is! And she is much more than just a passerby who happened to be coming to the well at that hour. She soon becomes a messenger of the Messiah, leaving behind her reputation of being many times married in order to bring this truth to her own neighbors.

When we lock ourselves off to reality in order to maintain our own pre-conceived notion of what is, we deny ourselves the opportunity to expand our vision and widen our horizons. Truth becomes elusive because it has to fit within our shrunken world view. But truth, that is the Lord, breaks through and offers us a means of dealing with our deepest need, our desire for love.

Today at the 10:30 am Mass, we celebrate the First Scrutiny with our RCIA candidate, Sean Madden. As he is questioned about his desire to turn away from sin and to live in the fullness of life in the Lord, we ask ourselves those same questions that our faith might be strengthened. This is but the first of three Scrutinies we will celebrate. The opportunity for three is a reminder that the path of conversion is rarely instantaneous. Usually, it requires that we accept the change into our lives in steps or stages. Each step allows us to more fully leave behind our former ways of thinking and acting and incorporate this new truth. And in each step the depth of our love also increases. All of this because the Lord invites us to participate in this new life.

The Lenten Liturgy: During the Lenten season, just as we strive to simplify our lives, we also strive to "unclutter" our liturgy, helping us focus. At each Mass during Lent, the ministers process in as usual, then the Presider moves to a kneeler in front of the Lenten cross. Here he begins the Mass, provides a brief focus-statement and then invites us to kneel for the "Kyrie, eleison. Christe, eleison. Kyrie, eleison." This Penitential Rite during Lent encourages us to call to mind where we have been "missing the mark" and asking God's mercy that we might have the strength to follow Him.

There is no Glory to God during Lent, nor do we sing any Alleluias. These absences help us be aware that this is a Penitential season. After the first and second reading, we take slightly longer pauses to give us a brief time for reflection. The responsorial Psalm we sing is the same throughout Lent, "Let your mercy be on us, O Lord, as we place our trust in you." After the second reading, we sing the Gospel Acclamation, "Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory." After the Eucharistic Prayer, the Lord's Prayer, and Communion, we again pause for a slightly extended period of silence for the post-Communion reflection. On the fifth Sunday of Lent, we will have a very simple musical setting with no piano and quieter instruments leading our singing.

Parish News

TODAY—R.C.I.A.—First Scrutiny of the Elect: At the 10:30 am Mass today, and for the next two Sundays, we will celebrate the Scrutinies with Sean Madden, our Elect, who is preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation at Easter. These prayers ask that he may be freed from anything that keeps him from embracing the Gospel and becoming a disciple of Jesus Christ.

Today, we pray that Sean will find his zeal for the Lord strengthens him to turn away from sin and find his satisfaction in Christ Jesus. Please keep Sean in your prayers as he continues his journey to Easter.

TODAY—Canon Law 101: What is the Code of Canon Law? How did it come into existence? Why do religions have laws? Why does the Catholic Church have laws, requirements, and restrictions?
