> Second Sunday of Lent Bulletin for March 8, 2020

Bear your share of hardship for the Gospel with the strength that comes from God. He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design.

From Father Rich

As you have probably seen in the media, the Archdiocese of Chicago has issued new guidelines for liturgy in every parish until the Coronavirus crisis has passed. These guidelines are now in effect:

During all Masses and liturgies:

- Refrain from physical contact during the Sign of Peace. (Note: the Sign of Peace can be exchanged without physical contact.)
- Refrain from distribution of Holy Communion to the faithful via the chalice.
- Given the frequency of direct contact with saliva in the distribution of Holy Communion on the tongue, every consideration should be given by each individual to receive Holy Communion reverently in open hands for the time being.
- Refrain from holding hands during the Lord's Prayer.
- Refrain from using Holy Water fonts. (All the fonts in Church will be empty.)

The guidelines also reminded us that the Church has always allowed any of us to miss Mass for a serious reason—and that has always included illness. It is an act of charity to everyone to stay home when you are sick and not endanger anyone else's health or worsen your own situation.

As we hear repeatedly from all the health officials, the most important things we can do to prevent the spread of this, or any virus, is to wash our hands often, avoid physical contact if we are feeling ill, and stay away from large gatherings when we don't feel well (meaning – we should stay home when ill.)

I would like to reiterate the request that those who receive Communion on the tongue refrain from doing so, instead receiving in the hand, until this crisis has passed. It is very difficult to distribute Communion to individuals on the tongue without getting some of their saliva on the ministers fingers.

Finally, please join in praying for all those who are sick.

An update on Renew My Church. As you know, St. Gertrude is in a "grouping" with St. Ignatius and St. Jerome parishes. Together, we will go through the Renew My Church process this fall. But the first official meeting that I have for Renew My Church is Monday evening when there is a gathering with Cardinal Cupich for all pastors whose parishes will be in the process this year. At this meeting, the Cardinal will share his own vision about Renew My Church and respond to any questions or concerns the pastors may have.

Then on Friday, March 20, the pastors in our grouping will meet with our facilitator who will share with us the makeup of the representatives from each parish who will be involved in the process this fall. My understanding of this meeting is that he will outline the characteristics of representatives we will be looking for. Each of the parishes will have five parishioner-representatives who will commit to the process.

In the first week of May, there will be a three-day retreat in Mundelein for the pastors whose parishes will be going through Renew My Church this year.

I encourage everyone to keep the Renew My Church initiative in their prayers as we begin preparing for the process that will help determine how we will be church in the coming years.

The weekend of March 21-22, members of the Parish Pastoral Council will be making an announcement at the Masses and will have members in the back of Church to offer parishioners the opportunity to express their opinions on the weekend Mass schedule. This is the second and final time they will be offering everyone the opportunity to express their own thoughts about the schedule. If you did not participate in this surveying back in November, please take a moment to do so that weekend. The survey results are then compiled by the Parish Council and carefully reviewed to determine what response might be called for. Their report will be published in the bulletin.

Ministry of Praise: Did you know that there is a special and valued ministry that needs participants, particularly our homebound and physically-restricted parishioners? Our Ministry of Praise provide participants with a prayer book and a monthly guide sheet reflecting some of the prayer requests taken from St. Gertrude Church's Prayer Wall. Call Jane Callahan-Moore at 773.973.5464 for more information.

Lent at St. Gertrude Parish

Stations of the Cross Fridays During Lent at 3:00 pm

Stations of the Cross will be prayed every Friday during Lent at 3:00 pm in Church.

On Good Friday, April 10, there will be Living Stations of the Cross at 3:00 pm, featuring teens from the parish.

Almoner's Program

Each weekend in Lent after Mass, $5 gift cards to McDonald's will be distributed by volunteers, with the intention of parishioners sharing them and a conversation with those in need. There will be a second collection after all weekend Masses during Lent to fund this program. Everyone is encouraged to use the moment of the handing over the card as an opportunity to have a brief and humane conversation with the other person, affirming them and wishing them well. This interaction is often more important than the card itself.

Simple Supper Wednesday, March 11 from 6:00-7:30 pm

All are invited to participate in faith-focused reflections while sharing a meal of soup and bread. NCA's preschool team will host this meal in the Social Hall.

Lenten Food Drive Saturday, March 7 & Sunday, March 8

This weekend, Saturday, March 7 and Sunday, March 8, our parish will host their annual Lenten food drive for Care for Real in the back of Church. After this morning's Masses, the teens and confirmation classes of the parish will sort the donations and bring them to Care for Real.

We appreciate all who were able to donate items!

Rice Bowls

The CRS program is meant to encourage praying, fasting, learning and giving. For more information about using the rice bowls during Lent, visit https://www.crsricebowl.org/.

Lenten Reconciliation Service Sunday, March 22 at 1:00 pm

Our Lenten Reconciliation service will be in Church. This service, lasting less than an hour, offers absolution of our sins in preparation for the celebrations of Holy Week and Easter through reflection and quiet prayer.

Growing in Faith

Today we hear the story of Abram (before he was named Abraham) and the faith he had in God. He was told to leave his kinfolk and his father's house and go to a new land. He couldn't foresee the hardships he might encounter on the way, but he trusted that God would bless him as He promised. It makes me wonder how Abram experienced God's message to him. Was it anything like the Transfiguration event that Peter, James, and John had? That would be pretty convincing. But then they went back to ordinary life, cautioned to say nothing about what they had seen. Most of us, I suspect, get mostly ordinary life and our messages from the Lord may seem ambiguous. We may even start to doubt them.

Today's epistle tells us "to bear our share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God." We all have hardships to endure; it may be illness or the loss of a job, or the loss of a loved one. Refugees, like Abram, are on their way to a new land, fearful, not knowing what awaits them. Sometimes it may seem like God is absent. I think

I'd welcome some clear message to sustain my faith. But that isn't what I get. Maybe the way God is speaking to me is through the words and acts of love, faith, and support from friends and family. Maybe God uses me to speak to them in the same way.

Lent 2020: Discovery of Mission Through Prayer – Week II

God Provides Us With a Vision of Who We Can Be

Last week, as we began the Lenten season, we joined Jesus as the Spirit led him into the desert to be tempted. Jesus resisted those temptations, and so also encourages us to do the same.

This week, we have a very different image. Where last week Jesus was weak and vulnerable after 40 days of fasting, today we see a glorified Jesus—a vision of what will come to pass in time when he is crucified and dies on the cross, and then, after three days, is raised from the dead. This is God's glory revealed living among us

Peter, James, and John accompanied Jesus to the "high mountain." Almost always, a "high mountain" in the sacred scriptures implies some kind of divine activity—and often it is a theophany, an actual encounter with God. It is no wonder Peter and the others were so overwhelmed and then, after hearing the voice of God pronouncing, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him," struck with fear. It was almost unheard of that any human being could see God face to face and live.

While it seems the disciples who accompanied Jesus did not grasp just what it was they were experiencing at the time, it became a touchstone for them after they had lived through his Passion, Death, and Resurrection. Thus the Transfiguration is a kind of preview of what was to come and who Jesus was. And after the actual events unfolded, it became a source for understanding all that had happened.

This great vision of the glorified Lord was showing the disciples not only who Jesus truly was, it was also a hint at who they were and what they would become. It is a reminder of who we truly are as brothers and sisters of the Lord—especially in times when we feel overwhelmed by our sins, failings, and frailties.

I think of this as similar to what happens when a human being has been experiencing depression for any length of time. While living inside that debilitating state, hope seems forever lost and we are stricken with a certain powerlessness—an inability to do anything, the impossibility of lifting ourselves out of the depression. Then, whether with the help of a professional, and/or medication, and sometimes for no apparent reason whatsoever, the depression lifts and we are startled to find we feel alive, vibrant, hopeful once again. You might say we are restored to the human being God created us to be.

Just as God wanted only the best for His Son, God wants only the best for each and every one of us. When we stumble off the path, when we wander away from God, God never deserts us. God is always right there, waiting for us to turn back. God is always right there, waiting to remind us who we have been created to be.

Lent is a time for us to rest in God and God's goodness. It is a time to remember who we are as God's children. No matter what has dragged us down or misdirected our way, always we can cling to the vision which gives hope. Just as the Transfiguration helped the apostles when they thought all they counted on was lost, so also for us. Never give up on hope in God. And if we will spend a few moments with God—in silent prayer, in enjoying nature, in embracing someone we love, right there is our own Transfiguration—the reminder of who we truly are.

The Lenten Liturgy: During the Lenten season, just as we strive to simplify our lives, we also strive to "unclutter" our liturgy, helping us focus. At each Mass during Lent, the ministers process in as usual, then the Presider moves to a kneeler in front of the Lenten cross. Here he begins the Mass, provides a brief focus-statement and then invites us to kneel for the "Kyrie, eleison. Christe, eleison. Kyrie, eleison." This Penitential Rite during Lent encourages us to call to mind where we have been "missing the mark" and asking God's mercy that we might have the strength to follow Him.

There is no Glory to God during Lent, nor do we sing any Alleluias. These absences help us be aware that this is a Penitential season. After the first and second reading, we take slightly longer pauses to give us a brief time for reflection. The responsorial Psalm we sing is the same throughout Lent, "Let your mercy be on us, O Lord, as we place our trust in you." After the second reading, we sing the Gospel Acclamation, "Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory." After the Eucharistic Prayer, the Lord's Prayer, and Communion, we again pause for a slightly extended period of silence for the post-Communion reflection. On the fifth Sunday of Lent, we will have a very simple musical setting with no piano and quieter instruments leading our singing.

Refugee Committee Request

Kadidja and her two children, refugees from the Central African Republic, have been in the U.S. since April 2019. Up to now, Kadidja has been supported financially by Catholic Charities and the St. Gertrude Refugee Committee. The financial support from Catholic Charities will end at the end of March. She is currently studying English and is not fluent but she does understand some English. Kadidja needs to start working and move closer to relatives in Evanston in order to get childcare support. Email Jim Manzardo at ibmanz@att.net if you can help with the following:

- You know of an affordable apartment in the south end of Evanston for about $1,000 a month.
- You know of an elderly couple with extra living quarters that may require assistance.
- You know of an employment opportunity such as cleaning, food prep, or sewing. (Kadidja has experience in sewing and natural hair braiding.)
- You have some creative ideas on childcare.
