Please keep our parish teens in your prayers as they head out to Pine Ridge, South Dakota on their summer mission trip from July 27 - August 4.

These are, hopefully, the mid-summer days of rest and relaxation. I hope everyone is finding some time to slow down, get out in the fresh air and sunshine, and enjoy summertime!

While things are quieter, I’d like to take this opportunity to give you an update on our ongoing Sunday Mass schedule plans. As you know, during this past (school) year we increased the number of “Combined” Masses to about one per month. This was to try out this schedule to see how well it accommodated everyone. The parish staff, in evaluating this experiment, found it was a great improvement in a number of areas, including: a better level of participation when there were more people gathered in church at one time; a more robust musical experience enhancing people’s involvement and adding an additional, positive dynamic to our worship; a better opportunity for hospitality after the 10:30 am Mass because we didn’t have to have everyone cleared out before the 11:30 am Mass; and the possibility of more ministers regularly available for all the Masses.

We found the schedule to be so effective that we are going to try it out in the regular (school) year after Labor Day. Which means our current “summer” schedule will continue as our regular schedule for weekend Masses (Saturday 5:00 pm, Sunday 8:00 am and 10:30 am, and the 10:30 (Gym) Mass.) In preparation, I recently informed the 9:30 am (Sheridan Road) Mass that their last Mass will be on the Sunday of Labor Day weekend. For some years, their attendance has veered downward so there are rarely even thirty-five people at that Mass. Also, while its original intent was to provide a local Mass for seniors, especially those with any physical limitations, most seniors and persons with disabilities come to the church for Mass. We will have a special celebration at their final Mass to commemorate the many years of worship at that site. The other change is that there will be no 11:30 am Mass as we move forward. And we hope to have the 10:30 (Gym) Mass come to the 10:30 am Mass in church once a month.

During the (school) year, we will also invite every parishioner to reflect and share their own thoughts, opinions and ideas on the Sunday schedule. At the June Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) meeting, the members unanimously adopted a proposal which will begin after Labor Day, in which individuals members of the PPC will invite conversations with individuals and small groups to gather data about people’s experiences at the Masses and what they feel is most important about scheduled times for Masses, the various charisms or unique dimensions of various Masses, and how we might better incorporate those positive elements into more Masses.

Among the input we hope parishioners will share with the PPC members are considerations such as whether or not the schedule meets not only the question of convenience, but also the question of necessity. What would the ideal schedule look like? Which Mass do I want to attend, AND which Mass do I need to attend because of work or other considerations? Along with that data, the slightly more difficult information about what are the characteristics, charisms, etc. in any of the particular Masses and how those can be sure to be continued in whatever the schedule ends up being. For example, some Masses offer hospitality on a fairly regular basis: the 9:30 am has once a month hospitality, the 10:30 am (Gym) Mass has weekly hospitality, and the monthly...
10:00 am Family Mass has offered hospitality. This is a very positive value and therefore one we want to be sure we respect and maintain as we go forward. Besides these smaller conversations with members of the PPC, we also will have one or more town halls offered to gather people’s thoughts and opinions on the schedule.

Finally, a word about “rules” for these conversations. It is important for this be a positive discussion. Everyone knows change is difficult. That’s the given. But how we approach the change makes all the difference! That we have to change to better reflect our present reality is not a punishment on anyone. It is simply a reflection on reality. Intransient, non-negotiable points aren’t helpful. And no bullying will be allowed. Of course there is often a lot of emotion around certain topics. But civility is requested and required for the conversations. This is as true for the individual and small group conversations as it will be for the town hall gatherings.

From a slightly broader picture, I think this is a good practice for all of us as we anticipate the Renew My Church process coming in the fall of next year. As I consider what all this will mean, it seems only fair that both the pain and the good that comes from the change(s) should be equally distributed, as much as is possible.

Fr. Maximilian Francis Buluma, originally from the Archdiocese of Mwanza, Tanzania in East Africa, will speak at all the Masses. He will discuss the needs of this East African diocese and the many challenges the community it serves faces.

A second collection will be taken up at all the Masses that weekend for the Archdiocese of Mwanza. Funds collected will go to the building of a new kindergarten, the construction of a secondary school for girls, the training of more seminarians, water projects for rural communities, and the biggest issue facing the diocese—the care and nourishment of the overwhelming numbers of orphans they are looking after.

Please be as generous as you can to help our brothers and sisters in Mwanza.
Poetry Pilgrims: The next Poetry Pilgrims gathering will be Monday, July 15 at 7:30 pm in the Ministry Center. For a list of poems that will be read, contact Mary Grover at mary@marsgrover.com.

Volunteers that are active in Heart to Heart or Helping Hands ministries must receive VIRTUS training in order to continue with these ministries. For those volunteers that still need to attend training, we will offer two sessions. (Attendees need to attend only one of the sessions.) The trainings will be on Thursday, July 18 and Saturday, August 24 in the Social Hall. Sessions will start promptly at 10:00 am and end at 1:00 pm. No latecomers will be admitted. Teen Summer Mission Trip 2019: Twelve teens and two adult chaperones will leave on Friday, July 26 for a mission trip to the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota and return home on Sunday, August 4. The reservation is home to the Oglala Lakota, a tribe that is part of the Sioux people, and one of the poorest areas in the United States. The group plans to work hard around the reservation, learn about the Lakota people and their history, and explore South Dakota.

Donations are still being accepted for the mission trip! They can be dropped off at the Rectory or placed in the brown box in the back of Church. Please keep our teens and their chaperones in your prayers as they prepare to leave!

Please consider offering your time and talents to help our young people learn about and grow in their faith. If you are interested in helping us either as a catechist or as a substitute catechist, email our Youth & Family Minister, Jim Potthast, at jpotthast@stgertrudechicago.org.

New Start Time for Religious Education: The Religious Education program for the 2019-2020 school year begins on Sunday, September 8, 2019 and concludes on Sunday, May 3, 2020. Jesus tells the story of the Good Samaritan to answer the question, “And who is my neighbor?” In Jesus’ own life, he demonstrates that the answer is, everyone, by being in relationship with every type of person one could despise in his day: drunks, prostitutes, a dishonest tax collector for an oppressive empire, an officer in the occupying army, and thoughtful women like Mary Magdalene and the woman at the well. With the parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus shows what being a neighbor costs.

Both the priest and the Levite recoil at the sight of a naked, bloody, half-conscious man left on the road to die. The Samaritan, by contrast, recognizes a shared humanity with this victim of a violent crime, about whom he knows nothing except his evident need, and immediately springs into action. He cleans and binds the wounds with his own hands. He picks the broken man up in his arms, finds shelter for them both, and takes care of him all day, disregarding his travel plans. He pays the innkeeper and says as he leaves, “take care of him.” The innkeeper must trust that he will return.

Being a good neighbor means facing the reality and consequences of there being bad people in the world who do horrible things, and taking the risk that the person in need before you is himself another bad person. For that matter, your fellow helpers might be bad people, too. Jesus tells us, take the risk and heal the world.

Parish Stewardship

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.”
~ Luke 10:27

Simple. Love God. Love our neighbor as ourselves. Yet too often we pick and choose who we consider our neighbors to be. But that’s wrong. All persons are made in the image of God—all persons are our neighbors.

If you are an adult seeking answers to questions about becoming Catholic, or are Catholic and would like to receive the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist, you are invited to take part in the journey of faith which is RCIA.

- People who have been baptized and have had faith formation in another denomination.
- People who have been baptized in the Catholic Church but who have not completed the Sacraments of Initiation—Eucharist and Confirmation.
- People who have received Baptism and Eucharist, but who have not received any formation since that time.

Our first gathering will be in the fall. Contact Kevin Chears at kchears@stgertrudechicago.org for more information.
