Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sing a New Song, by Dan Schutte

Refrain: Sing a new song unto the Lord; let your song be sung from mountains high.
Sing a new song unto the Lord, singing alleluia.

Verse 1: Shout with gladness! Dance for joy! O come before the Lord.

And play for God on glad tambourines, and let your trumpet sound. (to refrain)

Psalms 96: Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations by Cooper Ray

O God, You Search Me by Bernadette Farrell

O God, you search me and you know me. All my thoughts lie open to your gaze.
When I walk or lie down you are before me: ever the maker and keeper of my days.
You know my resting and my rising. You discern my purpose from afar,
And with love everlasting you besiege me: in ev'ry moment of life or death, you are.
Before a word is on my tongue, Lord, you have known its meaning through and through.
You are with me beyond my understanding: God of my present, my past and future, too.

We Are Many Parts, by Marty Haugen

Refrain: We are many parts, we are all on body, and the gifts we have we are given to share.
May the spirit of love make us one indeed; one, the love that we share,
One, our hope in despair, one, the cross that we bear.

Verse 1: God of all, we look to you, we would be your servants true, let us be your love to all the world. (to refrain)

Verse 2: So my pain is pain for you, in your joy is my joy, too; all is brought together in the Lord. (to refrain)

Verse 3: All you seekers great and small, seek the greatest gift of all; if you love, then you will know the Lord. (to refrain)

Verse 2: Manifest at Jordan's stream, Prophet, Priest, and King supreme;
And at Cana, wedding guest, in thy Godhead manifest;
Manifest in pow'r divine, changing water into wine;
Praises be to thee addressed, God in flesh made manifest.

Verse 3: Grant us grace to see thee, Lord, mirrored in thy holy Word;
May we imitate thee now, and be pure, as pure art thou;
That we like to thee may be at thy great Epiphany;
And may praise thee, ever-blessed, God in flesh made manifest.
