26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Bulletin for September 29, 2019

There is a magnet in a seeker's heart whose true north is God.
It bends toward the Voice of God
with the ear of the heart and, like sunflowers in the sun, turns all of life toward the living of the Word.

This listening heart is pure of pride and free of arrogance.
It seeks wisdom—
everywhere, at all times—
and knows wisdom by the way it echoes the call of the scriptures.

The compass for God implanted in the seeker's heart stretches toward truth
and signals the way to justice.
It is attuned to the cries of the poor and oppressed with a timbre that allows
no interruption,
no smothering
of the Voice of God
on their behalf.

These seekers hear the voice of God
in the cry of the poor and oppressed, and they “immediately put aside
their own concerns”
and follow God's call in their actions.

*~ Excerpt from A Listening Heart
by Joan Chittister*

From Father Rich

One of the most important signs that we truly love someone is that we spend time with that person. Usually that will mean carving out time from other parts of life, which we gladly do because that person is so important to us. In “corporate-speak”, we re-prioritize our schedules to be sure what is most important to our lives doesn’t get second place. Some of the greatest tensions we face in life are when what we value most gets challenged by something of lesser value to us, yet that less-valued part of our life demands more and more of our attention. If we are not careful, something of primary value is slowly replaced by something of lesser value. Until one day we are shocked to discover our true, primary commitment has become fragile and may even be near breaking. Then we have to take steps to put things back into their proper order. Or accept that this is the new reality, even if we don’t like it -- which will then lead to other serious problems.

One of the values we have as people of faith is to spend some time with God. This usually falls into a variety of expressions. We offer prayers when we wake and before we go to sleep; we give thanks before we eat for the gifts we share; we read spiritual authors who become companions on our faith journey; we go to church on Sunday to worship God and be with our fellow believers; and we find ways to live out our faith by participating in activities that help others -- especially the poor and vulnerable in our community and world. Another way of speaking of all this is to say we realize that we have to put our faith into action. It isn’t enough to have nice thoughts and feelings about what we believe. We need to actually live that faith.

Each year at this time we try to focus our attention on being good stewards of all that God has entrusted into our care. Stewardship is about how we use our Time, our Talents and our Treasure. This weekend and next, we are focusing on the first two “T’s” -- Time and Talents. We often refer to these weekends as our Sign-up or Commitment Sundays. We ask every parishioner to consider participating in a ministry or volunteer activity that interests them and is helpful to the parish and the broader community. Part of this is a discernment process -- figuring out with the help of prayer and thoughtful consideration, what my talents are and how might they best be useful in the community; and what kind of time could I reasonably commit to this ministry or volunteer activity.

In today’s bulletin is the form listing all the possible ministries and service opportunities available here at St. Gertrude’s. In looking over the possibilities, some ask for a weekly, or regular commitment (e.g. being a Lector at a weekend Mass), while others ask of a larger block of time, but only for a day or two (e.g. helping out at the Christmas Bazaar) in the year. Also, many opportunities are right here on our parish campus, while others may be more neighborhood centered. Altogether, there are a wide variety of time opportunities, and an equally large variety of talents that are needed. Please spend some time this week considering if there are opportunities for you to use your time and talents for the vitality of the parish community.

~ Father Rich

Growing in Faith

Jesus, at his anointing with perfume by Martha's sister Mary, noted a key part of our human condition, "The poor you will have with you always." The persistent poor among us is readily apparent in our Edgewater community.

Walking for just two blocks on Broadway from Granville to Whole Foods, on many days one could pass at least three homeless people. Each of the three people I'm thinking about has had a regular handout location for at least a year.

Personal relationships are key to growing in our faith walk. Give the rich man some credit for taking the time and effort to know Lazarus by name.

Slow down a bit. When you go out, plan some extra time for a casual encounter. Spend some time with at least one poor or homeless person where you live or work. Get to know that person by name and over time, what some of their key concerns and/or hopes and dreams may be.

Yes, that homeless person probably wants a little cash. Perhaps they might also appreciate a sandwich or a piece of fruit. But they also need to feel human – and a connection with others more than just as a handout.

Prayerfully consider that the corporal works of mercy aren't merely a list of good things we should know about. They cry out for our personal action on many fronts – food, drink, welcoming, clothes, visitation. Don't be complacent! Can you stretch yourself?

It's Heart to Heart Month!

This October, we celebrate the work of Heart to Heart, a ministry grown at St. Gertrude that serves some of our most vulnerable residents in Edgewater—our senior citizens. The outreach program works both to connect those in need with programs they may be eligible for, and to provide practical help.

Volunteers drive them to doctors' appointments, run errands, pick up prescriptions, pop in for a friendly visit to see how they are doing, check in with a phone call, or even walk the dog of a sick parishioner. With the help of these dedicated volunteers, we've been able to help hundreds of older persons live quality, dignified, independent lives in their own home.

Equally as important as tending to basic needs is the human connection that Heart to Heart provides to the lonely, poor, or those in need. Social services at St. Gertrude is about showing love and care through a listening ear, a smile, a kind word, a visit to break up a long day, or a helping hand. It's about putting faith into action by loving our neighbors and tending to their needs.

Heart to Heart depends on the generosity of the parish community to continue its work. Fundraisers, like Father Mike's participation in the Chicago Marathon and the Heart to Heart Cabaret, are wonderful ways to raise funds for this ministry, but we do need additional financial help. Please consider supporting our work by making a donation to Heart to Heart in church, at the Rectory, or online at givecentral.org/location/8. Donations made with a check should be made payable to St. Gertrude Parish with Heart to Heart written in the memo line. Thank you for supporting our work!

Father Mike to Run the Chicago Marathon for Heart to Heart

On Sunday, October 13, over 45,000 runners will take part in the Bank of America Chicago Marathon. A number of parishioners and I will be among them. If you have a prayer intention that you would like me to remember as I run the 26.2 miles, please send your intention to me at mbradley@archchicago.org.

This year, I am once again running to support the wonderful ministry of Heart to Heart, our parish's organization that reaches out to the elderly and shut-ins of the Edgewater community. Heart to Heart provides a helping hand to those who need a ride to the doctor, home visits, and wellness checks. There is also a medical equipment lending service that provides walkers, canes, and other assistance.

Because of your support for my run, last year over $15,700 was raised. Once again, I ask that you please contribute to Heart to Heart. Envelopes for this cause are available in the back of church, or you could donate online at <https://www.givecentral.org/location/8/event/606>.

For those runners who are taking part in the Chicago Marathon (or any marathon), you will have the prayers and encouragement of the St. Gertrude community. Please let me know that you are running, and I'll add your name to our prayer intentions. It's always good to realize that people are praying that God will guide our steps.

Thank you very much for your support for this run!

"Let us run with endurance the race God has set before us." ~ Hebrews 12:1

~ Father Mike Bradley

United Power for Action & Justice

Last Sunday, September 22, United Power for Action and Justice met with Mayor Lori Lightfoot to discuss our shared goals of mental health and addiction services, gun safety, and housing development on the city's South and West Sides

Thank you to the 24 parishioners from St. Gertrude that joined the nearly 100 religious and civic groups gathered at DRW College Prep in Homan Square! The hope is that Mayor Lightfoot acts on the concerns expressed and works to work with residents address them.
