

The Story of My Baptism Booklet

Students in our 3rd and 4th-grade class are asked to interview their parents about both their baptism. The purpose is to learn about our Catholic identity, some family traditions, as well as have a record of some sort of what happened on those special days.

Children are welcome to write or draw responses! We will share the answers during our Tuesday classes.

Name: _____

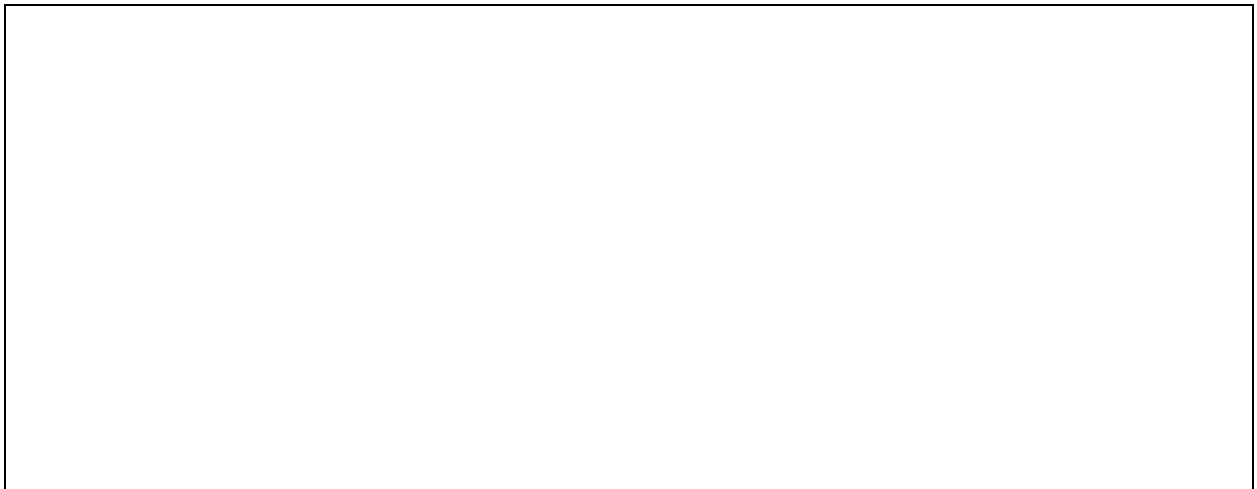

When were you baptized? How old were you?

Where were you baptized?

Who came to the baptism ceremony and celebration?

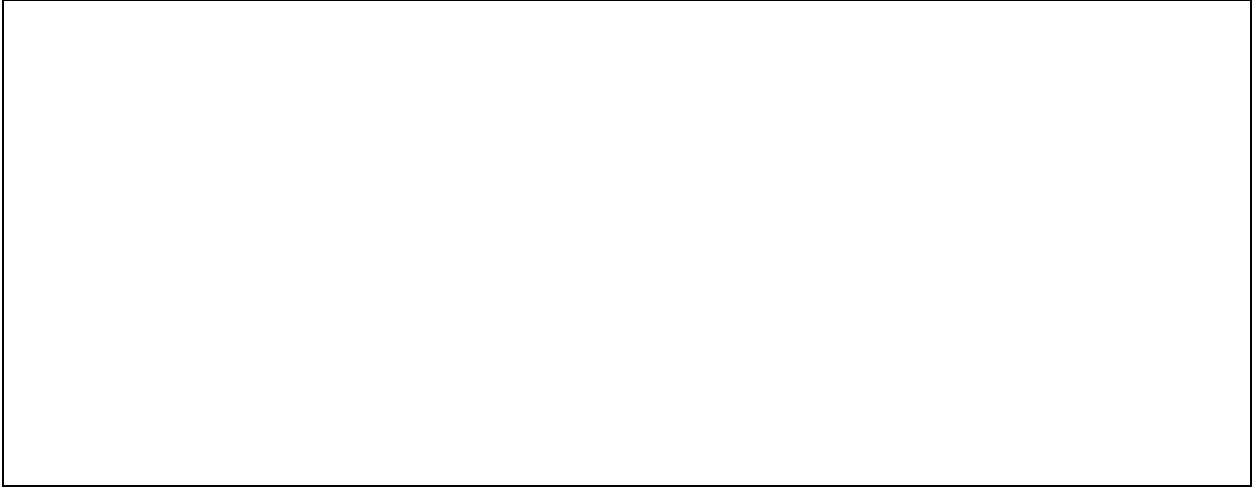

Who were your godparents? Why were they chosen?

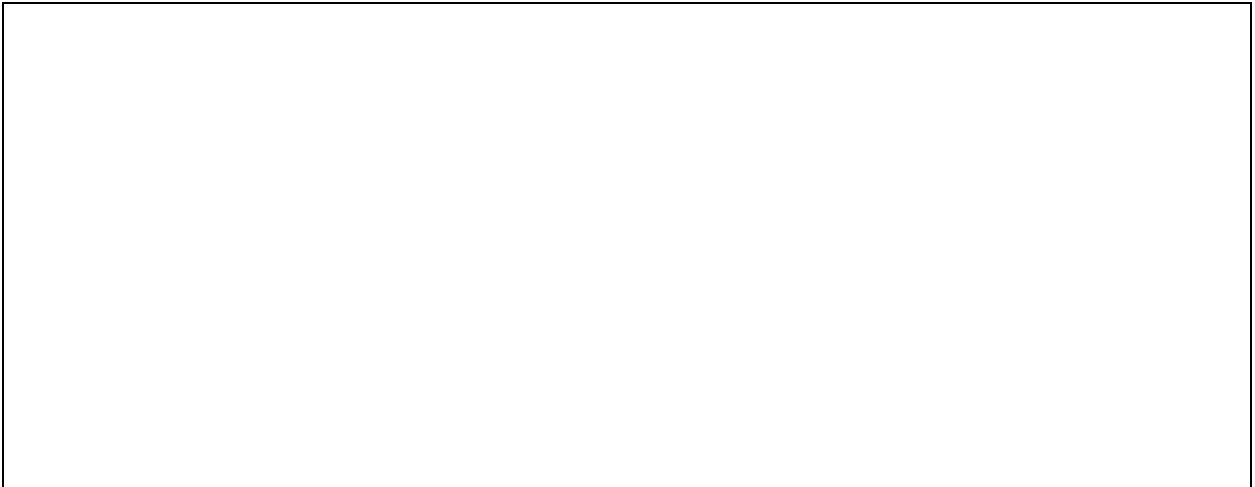

Does your family have any special traditions when a baby is baptized? What are they?

Do you celebrate afterwards? What did your family do?

What did you wear?

Who was the oldest person that came to the celebration? The youngest person?

Does your family have any funny stories about your baptism?

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the user to write their response to the question above.
