GROOMING & BATHING SERVICE AGREEMENT

BEHAVIOR DISCLOSURE

Owners must disclose any known behavioral issues or concerns with, but not limited to, fear, aggression, or anxiety during drop-off or prior to services. We do our very best to handle each pet with patience, compassion, and care, but pets under stress may act in ways that pose a risk to themselves or our staff. By sharing information up front, you help us create the safest and most positive experience for your pet.

I acknowledge by signing that I have provided complete, truthful, and accurate information.

MEDICAL CONDITIONS & EMERGENCY CARE

Owners must disclose any known medical conditions, allergies, or sensitivities. Some services, or the environment, can worsen conditions.

Grooming is conducted in the best faith using regular grooming practices. Every reasonable effort will be made to ensure your pet's safety and well-being, but unforeseen situations or pre-existing conditions can sometimes result in injury or illness.

Emergency Veterinary Facility:

Emergency Pet Care of Texas

I/We affirm that the information I have provided is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

GROOMING RISKS

Owners acknowledge that grooming procedures, while low-risk, can have inherent risks, including (but not limited to):

nicks, cuts, skin irritation, matting pulled close to the skin, nail quicking, ear irritation, and unexpected reactions to shampoos or products.
