

C.H.F. Foundation's Workforce Development Program

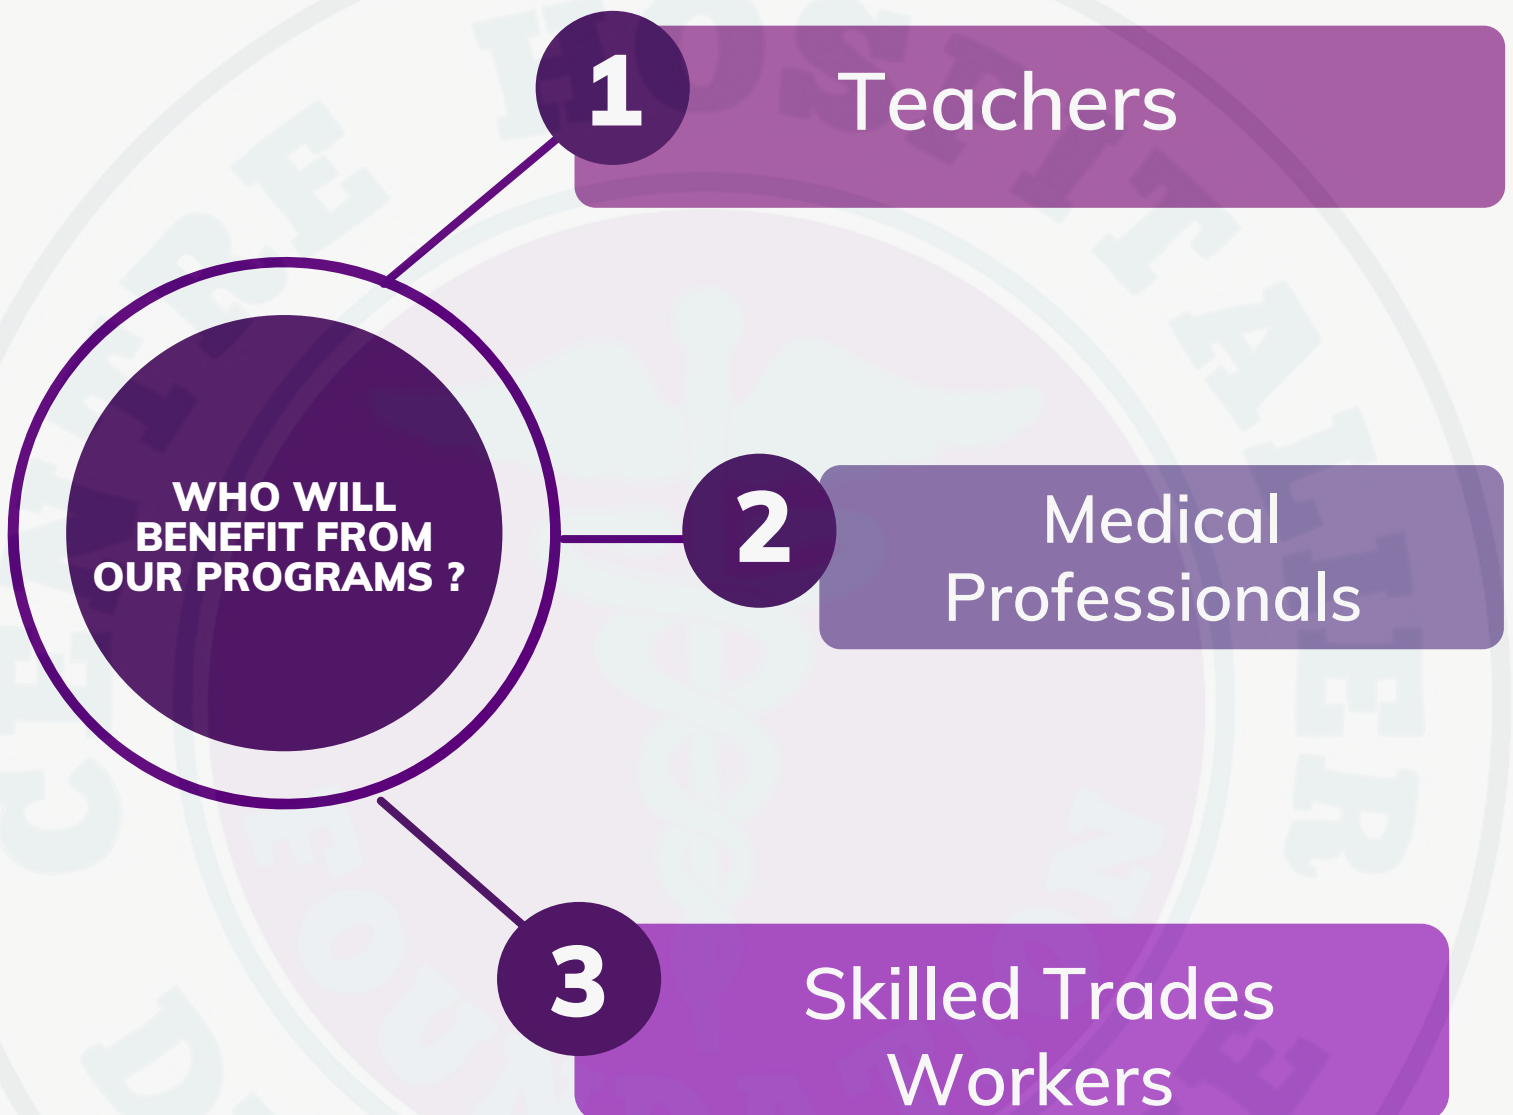

Something is not working. Are we asking the right questions?

Hiring Haitians in Haiti for the development, testing, launching and running of these programs can contribute to the economic stability, and mobility of the communities depending on our partner hospital and school.

Something is not working. Are we asking the right questions?

Our programs are designed to develop new members to enter the workforce better prepared to meet their community's needs, and create an opportunity for each participant to become financially stable , and financial contributors to their community.
