High-energy performances
with crowd interaction

Suffolk Avenue were destined to provide party music at weddings and events all over the UK. Not only are Suffolk Avenue an experienced trio of talented musicians, but they met at Paul McCartney's institute of performing arts in Liverpool (LIPA) and their friendship translates to an on-stage chemistry that is infectious. If your guests are a party crowd that will love to sing along, this is the band for you. Expect a high-energy set list packed with eclectic, lively songs from the 60's through to modern day. Suffolk Avenue take client management seriously - they limit the amount of gigs they do each year to ensure that you and your guests get 100% energy and attention. Not only do they offset their carbon footprint for each and every performance, they always go the extra mile with special requests and can also DJ between live sets!
