

ASTRO BASKETBALL 101

Like Basketball, Astrology is a Language of Energy

The zodiac signs and planets represent unique players and archetypes. Every player and individual has a playbook (birth chart). Astrology helps one understand their team of inner archetypes so they can harness their fullest potential on and off the field.

Understanding the Connections

The Zodiac Signs (Player Archetypes)

How each player arrives at the game, showcasing their prowess and character.

The Planets (Player Positions)

Each position is interconnected through specific functions and specialities, relying on each other to contribute to the team's success.

The Aspects (Vicinity of the Planets)

The game day conditions and communication between players.

Conjunct (within 10 degrees)

Adjacent players unite for enhanced unity.

Square (90 degrees)

Players thrive on tension, building unparalleled strength.

Opposition (180 degrees)

Players unify contradicting energies to create optimal outcomes.

Sextile (60 degrees)

Complementary positions stimulate the skills and amplify connection.

Trine (120 degrees)

Players seize opportunities through an ease of using natural talents.
