

Global Forum of Chinese Scientists APSA Panels (2006-2012)

2006

Panel I: Contending Perspectives on a Rising China

Chair: Quansheng Zhao, School of International Service, American University

Presenters:

1. “Power Transitions, Institutions, and China’s Rise in East Asia: Teoretical Expectations and Evidence.”
Avery Goldstein, Department of Political Science, University of Pennsylvania
2. “The Politics of International Status and the Rise of China”.
Yong Deng, Department of Political Science, United States Naval Academy
3. “Explaining China’s Use of Force in Territorial Disputes.” M. Taylor Fravel, Department of Political Science, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
4. “Market Reform, Globalization and the Transformation of Chinese Foreign Policy.”
Guoli Liu, Department of Political Science, College of Charleston

Discussant: Benedict Stavis, Department of Political Science, Temple University

Panel II: “Social Capital In Contemporary China”

Chair: Ronald Inglehart, Department of Political Science, University of Michigan

Presenters:

1. “Social Capital in Urban China: Attitudinal and Behavioral Effects on Grassroots Self-Government.”
Jie Chen, Department of Political Science, Old Dominion University
Chunlong Lu, Department of Political Science, Old Dominion University
2. “Interpersonal Trust and Democracy in China.”
Wenfang Tang, Department of Political Science, University of Pittsburgh
3. “Social Capital and Minority People in Contemporary China”
Yongming Zhou, Department of Sociology, University of Wisconsin

Discussant: Lynn White, Department of Politics, Princeton University

2008

Panel 1: Comparative Political Culture in East Asia

Chair: Suzanne P. Ogden, Northeastern University

Presenters:

1. "Cultural Bases of Trust and Compliance in South Korea".
Aie-Rie Lee, Texas Tech University
2. "The Role of Contested Memory in Shaping the Japanese Political Culture."
Mari Ishibashi, Randolph College
3. "Confucian Culture and Democratization in Taiwan."
John Fuh-sheng Hsieh, University of South Carolina
4. "Political Culture in the Study of Chinese Politics."
Peter R. Moody, University of Notre Dame
5. "The Concept of Hope in Chinese Political Culture."
Shiping Hua, University of Louisville

Discussants:

William A. Callahan, University of Manchester of Texas, Austin

Panel II: China's New Foreign Policy

Chair: Robert S. Ross, Boston College

Presenters:

1. "Globalization and Chinese Security".
Ming Wan, George Mason University
2. "Chinese Foreign Policy In Transition: Trends and Consequences."
Baohui Zhang, Lingnan University
3. "Continuity and Change in Chinese Foreign Policy"

Guoli Liu, College of Charleston

4. "Personality, Perception, and China's U.S. Policy"

Peter Hays Gries, University of Oklahoma

5. "Societal Pressure in China's Japan Policy Making"

Yufan Hao, Colgate University

Discussant:

Robert S. Ross, Boston College

Panel III: Political Culture, Political Participation, and Democratization in China: Results from Most Recent Survey Studies

Chair: Jie Chen, Old Dominion University

Presenters:

1. "Cultural Impacts on Political Participation in Mainland China."

Tianjian Shi, Duke University

2. "Public Roles of Private Entrepreneurs in China: Participation in Formal Political Institutions."

Bruce J. Dickson, George Washington University

Jie Chen, Old Dominion University

3. "Big Business Lobbying in Beijing: Institutionalizing Unequal Influence".

Scott Kennedy, Indiana University

4. "Distrust in Government and Preference for Democratic Election in Rural China."

Jie Lu, Duke University

Discussant: Peirre F. Landry, Yale University

2009

Panel I: New-Trends in Cross-Taiwan Strait Relations

Chair: Robert Ross, Boston College

Presenters:

1. “China, Taiwan and the United States—Using Cost-Benefit Analysis to Assess Future Trends.”
Robert G. Sutter, Georgetown University
2. “Continuity and Change in the Cross-Strait Relations.”
John Fuh-sheng Hsieh, University of South Carolina
3. “US Policy Towards Taiwan in Beijing’s View.”
Qiang Xin, Fudan University
4. “Identity Politics of the Taiwan Question: From the Island to the Mainland”.
Xin Xu, Cornell University
5. “Beijing’s Shifting Positions in the New Era of Cross-Taiwan Strait Relations.”
Quansheng Zhao, American University
Guoli Liu, College of Charleston

Discussants:

Robert Ross, Boston College

Yunhan Chu, National Taiwan University

Panel II: Political Development Under an Authoritarian Regime: Findings from Recent Survey Research on China

Chair: Melaine Frances Manion, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Presenters:

1. “Social Capital and Self-Government under an Authoritarian: A Survey of Rural China.” Jie Chen, Old Dominion University
Narisong Huhe, Old Dominion University

2. "Religion and politics in China." Wenfang Tang, University of Pittsburgh

3. "Crisis management in an Authoritarian Regime: Media effects during the Sichuan Earthquake." Pierre F. Landry, Yale University
Daniela Stockmann, Leiden University

4. "Citizen Compliance and State Legitimacy in Rural China." Lily L. Tsai, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Discussant:
Melanie Frances Manion, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Panel III: Chinese Democratization in Times of Change

Chair: Shiping Hua, University of Louisville

Presenters:

1. "Democracy, Dictatorship and Development: China, Africa and the East Asian Model in a Dynamic World."

Barrett L. McCormick, Marquette University

2. "The Price of Village Democracy: Vote Buying and Village Elections in China." John Kennedy, University of Kansas

3. "Enemies of the State: The Evolution of Subversion in Post-Mao China." Andrew Wedeman, University of Nebraska, Lincoln

4. "Democratization in China Since the Tiananmen Incident."

Joseph Y.S. Cheng, City University of Hong Kong

5. "Chinese Political Tradition and Its Contemporary Practices."

Yanqi Tong, University of Utah

Discussants:

Dennis V. Hickey, Missouri State

University Andre Laliberte
University of Ottawa

Panel IV: New Trends in Chinese Foreign Policy

Chair: Yong Deng, US Naval Academy

Presenters:

1. "Managing Sino-American Relations in Chinese Foreign Policy."
Jianwei Wang, University of Macau
2. "Coping with Internal and External Challenges in Chinese Foreign Policy in a Changing World."
Yufan Hao, University of Macau
3. "Media, Public Sphere and China Foreign Policy."
Hou Ying, University Macau
4. "China and Vietnam in the Global Financial Crisis."
Brantly Womack
University of Virginia

Discussant: Yong Deng, US Naval Academy

2010

Panel I Political Development Under an Authoritarian Regime: Findings from Recent Survey Research on China

Chair: Melanie Frances Manion, University of Wisconsin

Presenters:

1. "Rethinking the Role of Lineage Group in Public Goods Provision in Rural China." Jie Chen, Old Dominion University
2. "Public Goods and Public Support in China."
Bruce J. Dickson, George Washington University
3. "Patterns of Trust and their Attitudinal Correlates: Preliminary Evidence from Rural and Urban China."

Lianjiang Li, Chinese University of Hong Kong

4. "National Identity and Democratic Values of Chinese College Students: A Survey of Beijing College Students."

Chunlong Lu, China University of Political Science and Law

5. "Cultural Impacts on People's Understanding of Democracy." Tianjian Shi, Duke University

Discussant: Melanie Frances Manion, University of Wisconsin

Panel II Chinese Grand Strategy in Diplomacy

Chair: Yong Deng, U.S. Naval

Academy Presenters:

1. "China's New Grand
Strategy." Yufan Hao,
University of Macau

2. "Sino-American Relations After the Hu-Obama
Summit." Jianwei Wang, University of Wisconsin,
Stevens Point

3. "The Origins of China's Peaceful Rise Policy."

Kai He, Utah State
University Huiyun Feng,
Utah State University

4. "China's Increasing Important Role in Global Human Rights
Regimes." Titus C. Chen, University of Southern California

5. "Discord and Collaboration in UN Security Council Negotiations: The Case of China.” Joel R. Wuthnow, Columbia University

Discussants:

Jing Tao, Cornell University

Zhenqing Zhang, University of Minnesota

Panel III. Managing Global Crises: China’s Approaches and Perspectives

Chair, Quansheng Zhao, American University

Presenters:

1. China's Approach to Its Water Frontier - East China Sea Disputes with Japan and

South Korea Quansheng Zhao, American University

2. “Global Responsibility or Free Riding: The Implications of the "Win-Win" Principle for China's Approach to Managing Global Crises.”

Robert G. Sutter, Georgetown University

3. The Effects of Globalization on China's Military Strategy.”

M. Taylor Fravel, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

4. “China’s Overseas Investment in Times of Global

Recession.” Kate Xiao Zhou, University of Hawaii

5. “Contentions and Synergies in American and Chinese Perspectives on Global Crises.”

P. Brian Fisher, College of Charleston

Guoli Liu, College of Charleston,

liug@cofc.edu Discussants:

Yong Deng, U.S. Naval Academy

Peter L. Lorentzen, University of California, Berkeley

2011

Panel I: Political Development under An Authoritarian Regime: Findings from Recent Survey Research in China

Chair: M. Kent Jennings, Department of Political Science, University of California, Santa

Barbara Presenters:

1. “ Social Trust and Local Governance in Rural China.”

Jie Chen and Narisong Huhe, Department of Political Science, Old Dominion University

2. “Measuring Political Trust in China: Reflections on Surveys in the Last Two Decades.” Lianjiang Li, The Chinese University of Hong Kong

3. “National Identity and Democratic Values of Chinese College

Students.” Chunlong Lu, China University of Political Science and

Law

4. “Why is the Central State More Persuasive? The Effects of Public Service Announcements on Political Trust and Satisfaction in Urban China.”

Daniela Stockmann, Ashley Esarey, and Jie Zhang, Department of Political Science Leiden University

5. “Effects of Third-Party Presence on Survey Responses: The Chinese

Case.” Wenfang Tang and Liying Ren, Department of Political Science,

University of Iowa

Discussant: M. Kent Jennings, Department of Political Science, University of California, Santa Barbara

Panel II: Dynamics in Cross-Strait Relations: Taiwan, China, and the Asia-Pacific

Stability Chair: Anard A. Yang, Henry Jackson School of International Studies,

University of Washington Presenters:

1. "The Moral and Institutional Basis of Cross-Taiwan Strait Political Reconciliation." Jacques deLisle, Law and Political Science, University of Pennsylvania Law School

2. "Butter versus Guns: Economic Interdependence and the Cross-Strait Relations."

Chung-chian Teng and Yeh-Chung Lu, College of International Affairs, National Chengchi University

3. "Diplomatic Beneficial Cycles and Political Reconciliation: The Case of Cross-Taiwan Strait Relations."

Kwei-Bo Huang, College of International Affairs, National Chengchi University

4. ""The Internal-External Nexus in the Cross-Taiwan Strait Relations."

John Fuh-sheng Hsieh, Department of Political Science, University of South Carolina

Discussant: Shelley Rigger, Department of Political Science, Davidson College

Panel III: Rights and Responsibility of a Rising China

Chair: Susan H Whiting, Department of Political Science, University of

Washington Presenters:

1. "Status and Responsibility: China Reconsiders its International Role." Deng Yong, United States Naval Academy

2. "Can China Be a Benign Hegemony?"

Wang Jianwei, University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

3. "The Internal Challenge to the Making of China's Diplomatic Strategy." Yufan Hao, University of Macau

4. "Critical Energy and Climate Issues in Local and Global Perspectives: Cases from China and the United States."

P. Brian Fisher and Guoli Liu, College of Charleston

5. "Why Does China Reject the International Criminal Court? China's Dilemma in International Human Rights and Humanitarian Regimes."

Jing Tao, Cornell University

Discussant: Yitan Li, Seattle

University

2012

Panel I: New Challenges in China's Foreign Policy

Chair: Brantly Womack, Professor of Foreign Affairs, University of Virginia Presenters:

1. "China and the Developing World: A Relationship of Neo-Colonialism? "

Chung-chian Teng, Professor of Diplomacy and Dean of College of

International Affairs, National Chengchi University

2. "China and the WTO: From Rule Taker to Rule Maker?"

Yeh-chung Lu, Assistant Professor of Diplomacy, National Chengchi University

3. "China and the South China Sea: Conflict or Cooperation in an Interdependent Global Community." Dennis Hickey, Professor of Political Science & Director of the Graduate

Program in Global Studies, Missouri State University

4. "Domestic Constraints of the Rise of China's Public Diplomacy"

Wang Yiwei, Distinguished Professor of Tongji University,

Shanghai, China Discussants:

Brantly Womack, Professor of Foreign Affairs, University of

Virginia Fei-ling Wang, Professor of International Affairs,

Georgia Tech

Panel II: Recent Trends of Quantitative Research in

Authoritarian China Chair & Discussants:

Emerson Niou, Department of Political Science, Duke

University Presenters:

1. “The Politics of Social Spending in China: The Role of Career Incentives.” Derek Tai-wei Liu, School of Public Economics and Administration Shanghai University of Finance and Economics, Shanghai, China

2. “Alternative Framing: The Political Effects of the Internet in China.”

Min Tang, Narisong Huhe, and Jie Chen, School of Public Economics and Administration Shanghai University of Finance and Economics, Shanghai, China

3. “Regime Support in Urban China.”

Yang Zhong and Yongguo Chen, Department of Political Science, University of Tennessee

4. “Good Governance through Taxation: Business Politics in Authoritarian China.”

Changdong Zhang, School of International and Public Affairs, Jiaotong University, Shanghai, China

5. “Political Connection, Credit Rating and Bank Loans in Reform-era Chinese Private Sector.”

Hongxing Yang, School of Public Economics and Administration, Shanghai University of Finance and Economics, Shanghai, China