

Growing Fresh Inc.

Is an S Corporation located in New York. This company is my "American Dream" come true. I am a minority female wholesale entrepreneur importer and exporter of agricultural products with over a 25 years of experience between the USA & South America. My passion for the industry, strong work ethic, resilience and perseverance has driven me to grow and scale the business. As a Corporation, we have experience and developed strong relationships throughout the fresh produce and seed supply chain.

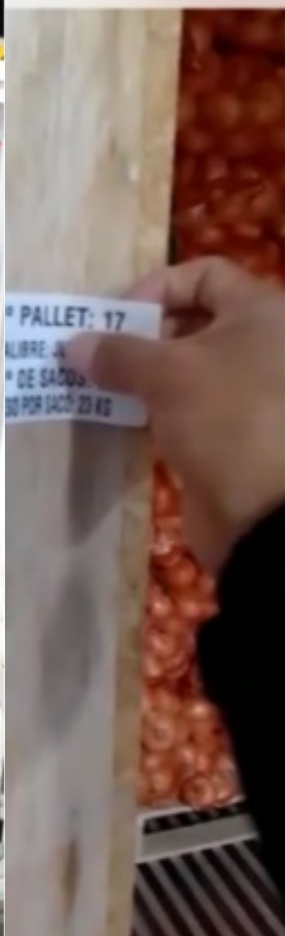

Growing Fresh, works hand to hand with the whole supply chain to ensure that we deliver the best quality products to our clients.
