Subject: Application for replacement of old ATM card

Respected Sir/ Madam,

With due respect I beg to say that I am a regular customer and having a current account

When you will apply for the lost document, the official will ask you to attach the F.I.R copy with the application. These documents are identity proof and address proof. So these are very important to verify your address and identification. Besides these reasons, the most important reason is that the unauthorized person can misuse your lost original documents in many purposes. For example, he can use it in case of murdering, kidnapping and so on. Then you will be prey of harassment and in danger. How do I write a formal letter to a police station?
