

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Carlos Gonzalez
Casa Azul of Greensboro
(336) 850.1532
info@casaazulgreensboro.org

Release Date:

Casa Azul of Greensboro 2024 Series- Chronicles de Cocina: The Stories We Tell Through Latinx Food

Greensboro, NC - Casa Azul of Greensboro announces its 2024 Arts Series- *Chronicles de Cocina: The Stories We Tell Through Latinx Food that will take place from Friday, August 30th to Saturday, October 12th at the African American Atelier Gallery at the Greensboro Cultural Center.

Casa Azul of Greensboro is once again partnering with the African American Atelier to bring the Chronicles de Cocina: The Stories We Tell Through Latinx Food Series and we invite the community to take part in the Exhibit Opening Reception on August 30th at 6:00 pm to meet the artists and explore the exhibit, which showcases artwork inspired by the diverse ways food has shaped Latin American culture. Chronicles de Cocinas: The Stories We Tell Through Latinx Food exhibit explores the multiple ways in which food, food habits, food spaces, and foodways communicate cultural and historical values and issues in Latin America and Latinx cultures.

Participating artists: Brenda Fonseca, Emilio Kimbeni, Fernanda Piamonti, Georges Le Chevallier, Gilberto Herrera-Sandoval, Gliser Fuentes, Jose Ruiz-Hernandez, Keudis Sanchez, Kristin Aguilar, Myles Brown, Nayla Bautista-Rubio, Antonio Alanis, Daniela Alcivar-Castillo, Patricia Sanchez, Robert Salazar-Guevara, Dayana Camposeco.

Calendar of Events

- Friday, August 30th: Opening Art Exhibit Reception at African American Atelier.
- Thursday, September 12th: Artist Talk. At the The African American Atelier Gallery, 6:00 pm
- Tuesday, September 24th: The New Southern Latino Table. An evening with Sandra Gutierrez, food journalist, professional cooking instructor and acclaimed cookbook author. At the African American Atelier, 6:00 pm.
- Friday, October 11th: An Evening of Culinary Literature & Poetry, at the Scuppernon Books, 6:00 pm.

In addition to the specific programs listed above, Casa Azul will designate 2 days a week for school visits. During these days the gallery will be staffed with a person that will guide students through the exhibit. Reservations are recommended. For school visits reservations contact The African American Atelier at arts@africanamericanatelier.org or 336- 333-6885.

About Casa Azul

Founded in 2011, Casa Azul is a non-profit organization that supports and promotes Latin American arts and culture in Greensboro and the Triad Region. Our mission is to provide the environment and resources for creative expression of Latino culture in our local community through projects and partnerships. We preserve and celebrate Latino culture and heritages through our arts and entertainment programs. We help build bridges of understanding through community dialogue, strengthen families with arts and entertainment and cultural activities. For more information, visit casazulgreensboro.org or find us on Instagram and Facebook.