

For Immediate Release

Contact:

Gissele Hernandez Cruz
Casa Azul of Greensboro
(336) 850-1532
gissele@casaazulgreensboro.org
<https://casaazulgreensboro.org>

Casa Azul of Greensboro Presents “Americanos: Across the Americas”

New group exhibition explores community, connection, and the shared future of the Americas — opening Sept. 11 at the African American Atelier (Greensboro Cultural Center).

GREENSBORO, N.C., [September 9, 2026] — Casa Azul of Greensboro announces Americanos: Across the Americas/ Americanos: Tras las Américas, an art exhibition running Friday, Sept. 11 – Saturday, Oct. 17, 2026, at the African American Atelier Gallery in the Greensboro Cultural Center. The public opening reception is Friday, Sept. 11 at 6:00 p.m.

Bringing together artists from across North Carolina and beyond, the exhibition explores the diverse stories, identities, landscapes, and experiences that shape the Americas and the ways we understand our shared connections. Participating artists include: Angel Xelhua Vera, Ariadna Sosa, Gliser Fuentes Mena, Hope Sarate, Myles March, Mynor Escobar, Oscar Adolfo Gonzalez, Jr., Patricia Sánchez, Renzo Ortega, Selene Paschoal, Shakira Olivera-Bautista, and Verónica Grossi.

Key events (all at the African American Atelier unless noted)

- Opening Reception: Friday, Sept. 11 at 6:00 p.m. - Meet the artists and view the full exhibit.
- Poetry Night: Friday, October 2 at 6:00 p.m. – An evening of poetry, reflection, and creative expression presented in partnership with and hosted at Scuppernong Books.
- Artist Talk: Thursday, October 8th at 6:00 p.m. - Conversation with select exhibiting artists.

About Casa Azul of Greensboro

Founded in 2011, Casa Azul is the Triad's only Latino arts nonprofit dedicated to celebrating and promoting Latin American arts and culture through exhibitions, performances, education, and community programs. Casa Azul builds bridges across communities by creating accessible, bilingual cultural experiences for families, students, and artists. For more information, visit casaazulgreensboro.org.

Press materials & media opportunities

High-resolution images, artist bios, and interview requests are available upon request. To schedule interviews or RSVP for media access at the opening reception or workshops, contact Gissele Hernandez Cruz at (336) 850-1532 or gissele@casaazulgreensboro.org.

#