Essay topic 1: What is the toughest decision you have ever had to make and how did it impact your life? What did you learn from the choice you made?

Essay topic 2: Given the opportunity, how would you advocate for your rights and the rights of others? Explain how you are a changemaker.

Essay topic 3: What do you know about your heritage and are customs and traditions important to you?

Essay topic 4: If you had a talk show, who would be your first three guests and why?

Paloma Gamos Scholarship

Please follow the instructions listed below, and include your essay, to qualify for this scholarship.

Paloma Gamos, grew up in a household where employment took precedence over education. She never finished her freshman year of high school and worked in a factory and assembler. Always feeling insecure about communicating with others and working harder than needed to support herself; it was a struggle. This scholarship will be awarded to a student who will be the "first in the family" college attendee, who is a new enrollee or currently continuing their education.

Essay Topic: How will your education and degree impact your life? Who else will benefit from your education? What do you want to teach others who might not think an education is important?
