11:30 Lunch/Connector Question: November is a month for Thanksgiving and gratitude. We are grateful for “people” over “things.” Take a moment to share with your neighbor of someone you are grateful for and/or then message that person right now.

Welcome and Introductions

Introductions and Agency Updates

Red Ribbon Week was such a tremendous success that it stands as our primary update for last month. We reached over 50 schools across Yuma County with prevention information. YCADC presented full-day sessions at Gila Ridge High School and Kofa High School, and partnered with:

- Homeland Security Investigations
- Yuma Union High School District
- U.S. Border Patrol – Yuma Sector
- Yuma County Public Health Services District
- Arizona Department of Liquor Licenses & Control

We also presented at Palmcroft Elementary and Salida del Sol Elementary, conducting multiple assemblies and engaging with more than 3,000 students throughout the week.

We concluded Red Ribbon Week by partnering with the Yuma Police Department at the Trick or Treat Scary & Safe event.

Upcoming Events

- YCADC will deliver full-day drug prevention presentations to Cibola High School students in December.

Appreciation

- Big appreciation to Henry Gonzalez for being our link to the high schools and for presenting during Red Ribbon Week — your presentation was outstanding!
- We are incredibly grateful to our Red Ribbon Week sponsors, whose support helped us provide supplies and prevention materials to schools across the county: Arizona Western College, R.L. Jones Insurance, Nova Home Loans, Cathy Nuetzi State Farm, and Jay's Party Shop.
- A special thank-you to Jennifer Hulbert and the Yuma County Health Services District team — they were our biggest partners during Red Ribbon Week and were phenomenal at every school.
- A heartfelt thank-you to Michael Odom for joining us as our podcast guest and sharing such meaningful insight with our community.
- Special thanks to Ryan Butcher for presenting today — we appreciate your expertise and the value you bring to our coalition.

Presentation

Ryan Butcher, Deputy Chief Health Officer – Overdose Fatality Review/Overview Program

- Summary of presentation:
Ryan Butcher, Deputy Chief Health Officer at the County Health District, oversees overdose fatality review (OFR) along with other fatality review programs.
- Emphasizes that data represent real people and families and asks attendees not to take photos of the preliminary slides.
- Ryan stresses the system is increasingly providing linkages and continuity of care, but stigma and engagement remain significant challenges.
- Naloxone information and free pick up locations available on our website: www.ycadc.org
