He shall be responsible for sending written notice of the call for a Committee meeting to all members of the Committee, which shall include the agenda for the meeting.
 - d. He shall be responsible for providing a prescribed time and place, which shall be supervised by the Unit Chairman, or a designated representative, for filing such declaration of candidacy and petitions as may be required by state law of a candidate in any primary election.

SECTION E. Divided Units

Whenever a Unit is divided between two (2) or more Congressional or Legislative Districts the Chairman of such Unit Committee shall serve as the Unit representative on the Congressional or Legislative District Committee encompassing his residence. Such Unit Chairman shall designate a person residing in that part of the unit located in each of the other involved Congressional or Legislative Districts to serve at the pleasure of the Unit Chairman as the Unit's representative on the respective Congressional or Legislative District Committee with the authority and vote of a Unit Chairman.

SECTION F. Combined Units

The Party organization of a city of the second class and an adjoining county may be combined whenever the respective committees, by a majority vote of each, vote to combine into one organization. Thereafter, such city and county shall be considered as one Unit for all purposes except in nominations for elective offices which serve solely the city or the county. A combined organization may be dissolved by the majority vote of a Mass Meeting of either the city or the county, provided notice of such proposal is included in the Call of the Mass Meeting.

SECTION G. Multi-Jurisdictional Constitutional Offices

In December prior to any year in which a Constitutional Office that covers more than one jurisdiction is to be filled, the unit chairmen of the affected jurisdictions, by call of the unit chairman representing a plurality of the weighted vote of the combined jurisdictions, shall meet to determine the method of nomination for that office. Decisions shall be made on the basis of the weighted vote of each chairman. In the event the chairmen shall decide to nominate a candidate for a Constitutional Office by convention, it shall remain the responsibility of each unit committee to determine the method of electing delegates thereto.

SECTION H. Unit Chairmen Who Serve as Congressional District State Central Representatives

Whenever a Unit Chairman shall be elected to serve as a Congressional District Chairman or Congressional District State Central Representative (as provided in Article II, Section A. 10, 11, or 12), the Unit Chairman shall serve and vote on the Congressional District Committee only as a State Central Representative. In his capacity as a Unit Chairman he shall designate a person residing in that part of the unit located in the same Congressional District to serve at the pleasure of the Unit Chairman as the Unit’s representative on the Congressional District committee with the authority and vote of a Unit Chairman. This provision shall apply whether the Unit Chairman shall have been elected to serve as a State Central Representative either prior to or subsequent to his election as Unit Chairman.

ARTICLE VII
Official Committees - General

SECTION A. Proxies

A member of an Official Committee or the Executive Committee of the State Central Committee may be represented in meeting by a proxy, subject to the following conditions:

1. Except as provided in Article V, Section A(2) hereof, no individual may cast more than one vote at any meeting.
2. The proxy holder must be a member of the Republican Party from the same Election District or organization represented by the absent member of that committee.
3. All proxies shall be in writing and shall be signed by the maker of the proxy and shall be substantially in the following form:

"KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That I, [NAME] of [AREA REPRESENTED], do hereby constitute and appoint [NAME OF PROXY] my true and lawful attorney, to vote as my proxy (with full power of substitution)* at a meeting of the Republican [State Central, District, County, etc.] Committee on the _____ day of [MONTH], [YEAR], or at any adjourned meeting thereof and for me and in my name, place and stead to vote upon any question that properly may come before such meeting, with all the power I should possess if personally present, hereby revoking all previous proxies.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this _____ day of [MONTH], [YEAR].

(Seal)

WITNESS:

(Seal)"

(*) Inclusion of the power of substitution is discretionary with the member. Its omission shall preclude substitution.

SECTION B. Notice and Quorum

1. Except as provided in subsection B.3. of this Article, meetings of Official Committees or the Executive Committee shall be held upon written notice, in the case of the State Central Committee, of not less than three weeks and otherwise, of not less than one week on the call of the Chairman, or on the call of one-third of the voting members, which call shall include the agenda for the meeting. Electronic Mail shall be deemed written notice for the purpose of this subsection, unless otherwise specified in the by-laws. However, the Official Committee must provide an alternative form of delivery for any member who does not have regular access to electronic mail.

2. Unless otherwise provided by a District's or Unit's Plan or Bylaws, a majority of the voting members of a Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the case of a Legislative District Committee, the weighted vote of the voting members shall be used in determining whether a majority exists for a quorum. Likewise, a meeting of a Legislative District Committee may be called by one-third of the members' weighted vote or on call of the Chairman.
3. Meetings called for the purpose of (1) determining the method of nomination and associated details for a Republican candidate for a Special Election where there is less than (30) days available in which to nominate a candidate or (2) filling vacancies with Section F of this article, shall require at least twenty-four (24) hour notice, either written or verbal.

SECTION C. Removal

Any Chairman, except the State Chairman, or any other member of an Official Committee may be removed from office by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the other members of the Committee, after being furnished with notice that such removal will be sought, with the charges, in writing, signed by not less than one-third (1/3) of the members of the Committee; and allowing him thirty (30) days within which to appear and defend himself. The State Chairman may be removed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of a State Convention or by the three-fourths (3/4) vote of the State Central Committee, the action of said Convention or Committee being subject to the foregoing as to notice and opportunity for defense.

A member of an Official Committee is held to a higher standard of support for nominees of the Republican Party than an individual who merely participates in a mass meeting, party canvass, convention or primary. Therefore, a member of an Official Committee is deemed to have resigned his Committee position if he (a) makes a reportable contribution to and/or (b) knowingly allows his name to be publicly used by and/or (c) makes a written or other public statement supporting the election of a candidate in opposition to a Republican nominee in a Virginia General or Special Election, and/or (d) becomes a member or an officer of or makes a reportable contribution to any other political party. A majority of the elected officers of an official committee are charged with recognizing when this provision is in effect. For members of multiple official committees, such recognition by a given official committee applies to all subordinate official committees. Such member may be re-instated by a majority vote of the other members of the Committee.

For the purposes of this section, "allows" shall mean that a member has either (i) affirmatively given permission for his name to be publicly used, or (ii) refused to publicly disavow the use of his name upon receiving notification by an official committee chairman that it is being used.

SECTION D. Absences

A member of an Official Committee other than an ex-officio member automatically loses his committee position if he is absent three (3) consecutive meetings without representation by a person holding a proxy; provided, however, that a State Central Committee member automatically loses and is deemed to have resigned his Committee position if he fails to attend in person at least fifty (50) percent of the regular meetings in any calendar year. A vacancy created by such resignation shall be filled in accordance with the State Party Plan. In the case of an ex-officio member with voting privileges, those voting privileges shall be suspended if he is absent three (3) consecutive meetings. Voting privileges for an ex-officio member that has been suspended may be restored by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the other members of the committee.

SECTION E. Nominations by Committee

Whenever an Election District fails to nominate a candidate or candidates for public office, in the absence of an instruction to the contrary by the Convention or Mass Meeting, the Official Committee of that Election District is authorized to nominate such candidate or candidates by two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present in a Committee meeting after notice of such intent has been included in the call of the meeting, and the nominations shall have the same force and effect as if the person or persons were nominated by a Mass Meeting, Party Canvass, Convention or Primary.

SECTION F. Filling Vacancies

Whenever candidates, electors, delegates or alternates have been duly elected by a Mass Meeting, Party Canvass, Convention, or Primary and a vacancy occurs, the applicable Official Committee is authorized to fill such vacancy in formal meeting by majority vote after due notice of such intent has been included in the call of the meeting. Such a meeting shall require at least twenty-four (24) hours notice, either written or verbal.

SECTION G. Public Meetings

All Official Committee meetings shall be held in a building appropriate for public use and shall be open to the public.

SECTION H. Rules

All Official Committee meetings shall, to the extent applicable, be governed by and conducted in accordance with, giving precedence as listed to, the following: the State Party Plan; District or Unit Plan or Bylaws; and otherwise in accordance with the then current edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

SECTION I. Endorsement of Candidates

An Official committee shall not endorse, nor contribute to from its funds, any candidate who is running for a Republican nomination for public office unless that candidate is unopposed for that nomination. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to prevent an Official Committee from endorsing a candidate running for public office where there will be no Republican nominee, nor to prevent a member or officer of an Official Committee, as an individual, from endorsing a candidate in a contested nomination.

SECTION J. Ethical Conduct

1. Voting members of official committees shall exercise their best efforts to conduct the business of the Party in good faith, with reasonable care, skill, and diligence. They shall hold as confidential all party information, documents, and communications clearly designated as confidential or for limited dissemination or use by adopted policy of the committee. They shall refrain from participating in unethical activity, diminishing the dignity and credibility of the the Party.
2. Recognizing that not all possible conflicts represent an actual conflict of interest, voting members of the State Central Committee and District Committees shall voluntarily disclose, in writing, any known potential or actual conflicts of interest to all members of the official committee on which they serve in a timely manner after becoming aware of such conflict.

The call, including the pre-filing requirement, must then be published at least seven (7) days prior to the pre-filing deadline. This publication requirement shall take precedence over the publication requirement of Article VIII, Section A.2. Each person desiring to pre-file must file a statement prior to the deadline for pre-filing. The Official Committee or its Chairman, if authorized, may prescribe the use of a particular filing form for the required statement, in which case the official pre-filing form must be included with the call published on the RPV website. The Official Committee may, at its option, establish a filing fee for candidates for nomination for public office, as long as such fee does not exceed twice the primary filing fee for that office. Filing fees for any office are non-refundable.
 4. A copy of the call shall be sent by e-mail to each member of the issuing committee who has an e-mail address on file with the committee and to the respective District Chairmen, in compliance with all the time requirements in Paragraphs 1,2 and 3 above.

5. It is the responsibility of the applicable Chairman to use the most effective means available, including news media, to adequately publicize Mass Meetings, Party Canvasses, or Conventions with the purpose of encouraging maximum citizen involvement. If the number of persons pre-filing as candidates for election or nomination for all offices to be decided upon by any Mass Meeting, Party Canvass or Convention does not exceed the number to be elected or nominated, then the candidates may be declared elected or nominated by the Republican Party and the Mass Meeting, Party Canvass or Convention may be cancelled if provided for in the call.
10. If the number of persons seeking election as a member of a unit committee or as a delegate to a unit, district or state convention does not exceed the total number allowed by the State Party Plan, all candidates for such office who meet the requirements of Article I of the State Party Plan and, where required, any pre-filing requirements, shall be deemed elected.

A unit Chairman shall document the reason(s) for determining that an individual, who is seeking election as a member of the unit committee or as a convention delegate, has been disqualified for the reason that the individual does not meet the Qualifications for Participation as stated in Article I and/or the unit's pre-filing requirements, if any, and shall provide such documentation with the certification of delegates required in Article VIII, Section H.

In all proceedings for nominations for statewide office, the relevant Unit shall be entitled to one (1) delegate vote for each 250 votes. In all proceedings at the District level, the relevant Unit shall be entitled to one (1) delegate vote for each 100 to 500 votes. In all proceedings at the local and Legislative District level, the relevant political subdivision shall be entitled to one (1) delegate vote for each 25 to 500 votes. The exact number shall be decided by the appropriate Official Committee and included in the call.

For the purposes of, and limited to, determining the Republican Party Voting strength of a Military Delegation at a Party convention called to nominate a candidate for election to a public office, such Voting Strength shall be the average percentage of the Republican vote in the immediately preceding Gubernatorial and Presidential elections among all units and portions of units comprising the convention multiplied by the total number of active-duty military absentee votes cast in such units and portions of units in the same Gubernatorial and Presidential elections (number of military absentee ballots cast can be found from your local registrar using the code 6A).

SECTION H. Delegates

1. Certification
 - a. Delegates and alternates to a Convention shall be certified to that Convention by the permanent Chairman, and Secretary of the Mass Meeting, or Convention which selected them, or by the Chairman of the Official Committee which conducted the Mass Meeting, Convention or Party Canvass to select the delegates and alternates. The certifications shall be delivered to the Chairman of the Official Committee which called the Convention prior to the convening of the Convention. Except in the case of the State Central Committee, a copy of the certification shall also be delivered to the secretary of the official committee. Such Chairman shall be responsible for the preparation of a roll of all such certifications which roll shall thereafter govern the procedures of the Convention, unless and until changed by the Convention.
 - b. In the case of a State Convention a copy of unit certifications shall also be delivered to its District Chairman.
 - c. In the case of a District Convention, said certifications must be delivered to the appropriate District Chairman and Secretary seven (7) days prior to the convening of said Convention. In the case of a State Convention, said certifications must be postmarked sixteen (16) days prior to the convening of the Convention or delivered in person fourteen (14) days prior to the convening of said Convention. After the filing deadline of the certifications, no change may be made except a certified alternate may be made a delegate. A copy of the published official call of the Convention, Mass Meeting, or Party Canvass called for the purpose of selecting delegates and alternates to convention must accompany the certification with the date of the publication included.
 - d. A delegate or alternate who is not certified in accordance with the above requirements shall be seated only by a majority vote of the Credentials Committee, or in the event of the failure of the Credentials Committee to seat, by a vote of the Convention.

 3. The certification of delegates may state how the delegates shall vote whether by those present voting full vote, or non-full vote, and if an how an allocation of votes is fractionalized. A delegation shall vote full vote unless otherwise designated by the electing body.
 - a. Full vote means the delegates present and voting at the Convention may cast the full vote of the delegation with proportionate weight given to majority and minority vote. Example: If a County has ten votes to a Convention but only six delegates are present at the Convention and four desire to support one candidate and two desire to support another candidate, the four delegates would cast 6.67 votes for their candidate and the two delegates would cast 3.33 votes for their candidate.
 - b. Non-full vote shall mean that each delegate will only be entitled to the vote to which he is certified. Example: If a County has ten votes to a Convention and elects fifty delegates non-full vote, each delegate present at the Convention would have 0.20 vote.
 - c. The vote of a delegation shall be reported to the nearest hundredth. Example: If a 37-vote delegation has 85 delegates present with 22 voting for A and 63 voting for B, A's vote would be $22/85 \times 37 = 9.58$; B's vote would be $63/85 \times 37 = 27.42$.
 4. No delegation shall vote under a unit rule at any Convention; nor shall any delegation be instructed on any vote at any convention, except as set forth in Paragraph 7 of this Section H.

The number of delegates certified in this manner shall count toward each unit's maximum allowable number of convention delegates.
 - a. The provisions of this Paragraph 6 of Section H shall remain in force until such time as the State Central Committee determines Department of Defense regulations no longer inhibit active duty military personnel from standing for election to become a delegate to a Convention.
 7. Every convention involving nominations for public office, except those called to nominate candidate(s) for a special election, shall have a Military Delegation representing Military Members as set forth below.
 - a. Declaration. Military Members who declare via electronic mail to the Chairman of the Official Committee calling the Convention or his designee in the Call, that because of the obligations of their official military orders, they are unable to attend their respective Unit mass meeting, canvass or convention called for the purpose of selecting delegates to that Convention, and that in lieu of selecting delegates to represent them from their respective Unit they instead wish to be represented by the Military Delegation, shall be entitled to representation via the Military Delegation. Such e-mail declaration shall include attached a signed statement of intent and affirmation of their official military orders precluding their attendance, and their email address for correspondence. The Call for the Convention shall provide Military Members the deadline and email address by which to send their declarations. The Call shall provide the deadline and email address by which to return the ballot. The Chairman or his designee shall respond via email to each Military Member to confirm the receipt of each emailed returned ballot. The deadline to return the ballot shall be at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the convening of the convention. The Chairman of the Official Committee or his designee shall be responsible for ensuring the complete set of returned Candidate Preference Ballots are delivered to the permanent chairman of the Convention, once elected, for tallying the ballots in a manner designed to cast a vote in each round of balloting (as determined by the Rules adopted by the Convention) for the then-eligible candidate with the highest preference expressed on each Candidate Preference Ballot. The Chairman of the Official Committee or his designee shall also provide, upon the request of any candidate on the ballot, the names of qualified Military Members who submitted Candidate Preference Ballots.

 - c. Voting. The Chairman of the Credentials Committee or his designee shall cast the votes of the Military Delegation in proportion to the count of the Candidate Preference Ballots as specified pursuant to paragraph (b), and shall tabulate results in accordance with the Republican Voting Strength of the Military Delegation.
8. A list of delegates and alternates elected to represent a Unit shall be provided, once available, by the chairman of the Unit Committee to each duly filed candidate for public or party offices to be filled at the convention, upon request of the candidate or candidate's designee. Lists of delegates shall be available within (a) 14 days of their election, if 250 or fewer delegates are elected, or (b) within 21 days if more than 250 delegates have been elected. 2. The Official Committee shall prepare the rules for the conduct of a Party Canvass subject to the provisions of the State Party Plan.
3. The State Central Committee recommends that the documents related to these proceedings should conform as closely as possible to the model rules in Appendix B.
4. All Mass Meetings, Party Canvasses, Conventions, and Primaries shall, to the extent applicable, be governed by and conducted in accordance with, giving precedence as listed to, the following: the State Party Plan; District or Unit Plan or By-Laws; rules adopted by a designated Rules Committee; and otherwise in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order.

In the event the boundaries of a Unit are changed between the time of the last preceding Gubernatorial or Presidential elections and the time set for a State or District Convention, the Republican Party voting strength shall be transferred between the Units affected on the basis of the percentage or registered voters by Precincts which have been transferred.

In the event the boundaries of a Congressional District, Legislative District, Ward, Magisterial District or Precinct are changed, then a method equal or similar to that aforementioned shall be used for determining the Republican votes transferred between the affected political subdivisions and therefor the revised Delegate allotments of Committee memberships. Boundaries of congressional districts, legislative districts, wards, magisterial districts and precincts shall be determined in accordance with applicable local, state and federal law.

In the event that the boundaries of a congressional district change after March 15 in the year of a Quadrennial District Convention, calls for such conventions issued prior to March 15 shall remain valid for all purposes except the nomination of a candidate for the House of Representatives. Delegates and alternates elected at such conventions shall be the district delegates and alternate delegates to the Republican National Convention, the new boundaries of the congressional districts notwithstanding.

ARTICLE X Rulings and Appeals

SECTION A. Rulings

1. Any Chairman of an Official Committee or twenty (20) percent of the members of an Official Committee may request a ruling or interpretation of the State Party Plan from the General Counsel. 4. All rulings and interpretations by the General Counsel, and the final determination on any appeal of such, shall be posted on the State Central Committee and Unit Chair sections of the website of the Republican Party of Virginia. Further, notice of each ruling and determination of any appeal shall be provided by electronic mail to each member of the State Central Committee and to each Unit Chairman.

SECTION B. Contests

1. Each Unit Committee shall decide all controversies and contests arising within its jurisdiction, but those persons deemed adversely affected by any such decision shall have the right of appeal to the appropriate District Committee. In the case of a split Unit, if the controversy or contest specifically relates to the operations or affairs of a particular Congressional or Legislative District, an appeal shall be taken to that particular Congressional or Legislative District Committee; if not, an appeal shall be taken to the District Committee of the District wherein the person appealing resides.
2. Each Legislative District Committee shall decide all controversies and contests arising within its jurisdiction. Persons deemed adversely affected by a decision of the Legislative District Committee shall have the right of appeal to the appropriate Congressional District Committee. In the case of a legislative district that is located in more than one congressional district, the appropriate Congressional District Committee shall be the District wherein the person appealing resides.
