I affirm that I am in accord with the following principles:

The Republican Creed:

That the free enterprise system is the most productive supplier of human needs and economic justice. That all individuals are entitled to equal rights, justice, and opportunities and should assume their responsibilities as citizens in a free society. That fiscal responsibility and budgetary restraints must be exercised at all levels of government. That the Federal Government must preserve individual liberty by observing Constitutional limitations. That peace is best preserved through a strong national defense. That faith in God, as recognized by our Founding Fathers is essential to the moral fiber of the Nation.

PRECINCT ORGANIZATION COMMITTEE: shall be responsible for establishing and maintaining an organization for effective communication between individual voters and the leadership of the Republican Party to achieve the objectives of the Republican Party. This committee shall coordinate all precinct activities, including the canvassing of the precincts, the posting of campaign signs, the distribution of campaign literature and sample ballots, and the staffing of polls on election days. The Committee will plan, organize and conduct necessary training of Precinct Captains and workers.

PRECINCT CAPTAINS: Precinct Captains do not represent any one candidate or issue; they work for the Republican Party and all Republican candidates. Duties include:

- a) Appointing a Vice Captain and attend meetings of the County Committee.
- b) Participating in the formal opening and closing of the polls in your precinct by verifying the vote totals on each voting machine. If you are unable to participate in this verification process, appoint a specific precinct worker to be responsible for opening and closing the polls;
- c) Assisting with county committee projects in your precinct;
- d) Educating yourself about all current Republican candidates and paying special attention to those who will be on the ballot in your precinct;
- e) Working with all candidates' representatives in your precinct to coordinate their campaign activities.
- f) Familiarizing yourself with Absentee Voter information – eligibility and how to obtain an Absentee Ballot;
- g) Learning all rules related to Ballot Security; and h) Keeping accurate, current records – and make them available to all Republican candidates. Returning all records back to the committee when you leave your position.

RULES AND RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE: shall prepare Rules and Order-of-Business, as required for the conduct of Mass Meetings, Party Canvasses, or Conventions. It shall keep and compute the Voting Strength of the districts and Precincts of Augusta County. The Committee shall accept and consider all Resolutions submitted that are requesting to be presented for a vote at all ACRC Meetings, Mass Meetings, or Conventions. The Committee shall receive and review all controversies and contests and report to the County Committee at the next called meeting, provide that ten (10) days are available for review. It shall as appropriate review these bylaws and recommend changes when required.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE: shall be the responsibility of this committee to seek out individuals to become members of the ACRC, distribute materials and information about ACRC to potential members from all segments. Of the community and to develop and implement membership-promoting and retention initiatives. It shall promote involvement of the in membership in ACRC activities. The chairman of this committee shall serve as liaison with all: Republican-friendly groups Augusta County, Staunton, and Waynesboro, including involving Republican Women of Greater Augusta, (RWGA); Young Republicans, College Republicans (MBU, Murphy Deming, and BRCC), and it shall explore reaching out and in high school Republicans in the activities of ACRC with the goal of developing and cultivating membership of all ages. It shall work closely with Community Engagement Committee if active.

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE: shall be the duty of this Committee to issue press releases and communicate with print and electronic media to obtain coverage and announcement of events, meetings and other Republican Party activities. Additional responsibility will be to coordinate letters to the editor in local newspapers supporting candidates of the Republican Party. It is responsible for developing new media social network sites. The Committee shall be responsible for maintaining and improving the website of the ACRC. If you like to write, please consider joining this committee.

FUNDRAISING COMMITTEE: shall be responsible for organizing and coordinating all fundraising events of the ACRC and shall coordinate its activities with the Finance Committee. If you like to organize parties and have fun, please consider joining this committee.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT COMMITTEE: shall actively engage in community activities of underrepresented populations within ACRC which shall include minority communities and isolated August county regions, and actively recruit and retain ethnic and minority members for the Committee and organize minority membership activities, in addition to promoting engagement with other groups and with the community generally.
