Memorial Services at St. George Jax are held on the:

40th day

Sixth(6) month

First (1) year

It is the tradition of the Church to pray the memorial service together with the Liturgy on the day of death, the third day, the ninth day, the fortieth day after death and on the annual anniversary of death, as well as periodically throughout the year. The prayers are said on the third day in remembrance of the third-day Resurrection of Our Savior; on the ninth, that the soul of the deceased be conjoined to the nine ranks of Angels; on the fortieth, from the example of the mourning in the Old Testament for the death of the Prophet Moses for forty days by the Israelites, and because of the Ascension of our Lord on the fortieth day. Those asleep are commemorated on the annual anniversary of repose because this day is their birthday into the life everlasting, and on this day, we especially feel the loss of a loved one.

What is the purpose of a memorial service?

Traditionally, a memorial service is designed to honor and pay tribute to a loved one's life. A memorial service can be arranged by anyone, but usually close family members or friends arrange the service. Memorial services will take place in a church.

How to arrange a memorial service?

Notify the church office well in advance, ideally at least two weeks before the service.

Condolences:

For the 40- day memorial service- The family is specifically invited to sit in the first pew located on the left side of the church and they will accept condolences or sympathy inside the church.

For the 6-month and 1-year memorial services- No formal offering of condolences or sympathy will be accepted inside or outside the church. The family will be dismissed first to the church hall.

At the 6-month and 1-year memorial services- The family of the deceased are welcome to sit in the first pew located on the right side of the church, but they are also free to choose any other pews they prefer to sit in, if they wish to sit somewhere else.
