Cimarron Pond
Relive the excitement and charm of a bygone era!
This is the former site of Cimarron City, a live Western Town theme park open from 1960-63.
Cimarron City had a staff of 54, including a genuine Seminole Indian who wrestled alligators each afternoon in a small pool on the outskirts of "town".

Town of Thompson
Lake Ida Park
Former site of
• Camp St Vincent De Paul
• Camp Merrimont
• Camp Jened

GOALS
• Connect, actively listen, and collaborate with residents and diverse communities in our County.
Whether it's an individual, the lake communities, senior citizens, veterans, fire companies, EMTs, or other community groups, I am committed to addressing the distinct requirements of each person or group and ensuring that your opinions are heard through fruitful discussions and practical remedies.

- Advocate for alternatives to trucking Sullivan County's solid waste to Seneca County for disposal in the Seneca Meadows landfill.
- Maintain and optimize our County's aging infrastructure, including bridges, roads, equipment, technology and offices.
- Advocate for our children to have recreational and employment opportunities.
- Strengthen relationships with federal, state, and local officials to amplify the county's influence and advocate for positive changes that will benefit Sullivan County's citizens.
