SPECIALTY

BUCK BUTTER 1.5oz SPL0847

Buck Butter is a forehead gland gel. Using Buck Butter is a great way to help stimulate rub activity in your area. The smell of another Dominate Buck using the territory will bring out the natural aggressive behavior of a Dominate Buck, and may even bring out those nocturnal bucks to see who the intruder is!

BRANCH BUTTER 1.5oz. SPL0755

Branch Butter is a long lasting pre-orbital and forehead gland gel formula, and is the perfect way to introduce an intruder buck into the mix of bucks in your area. Deer use scrapes and licking branches to communicate with each other, and to establish a "Hierarchy". Branch Butter will give you an edge by helping to exploit this behavior and draw bucks in all season long.

LURES

ITS SIMPLE....
THEY WORK!

INTERDIGITAL GLAND 4PK. SPL0809

Interdigital Gland is a very important scent in the making of mock scrapes, or doctoring existing scrapes. A mock scrape without Interdigital Secretions is not a complete scrape!

TARSAL GLAND 4PK. SPL0816

Tarsal Gland is a powerful attractant that calls out Dominate Bucks to defend their territory. The Tarsal Gland carries information about the deer, such as sexual dominance, and health conditions. Using Tarsal Gland in a scrape, tells the Dominate Bucks in the area that there is a New guy in town.

SCRAPE

Scrape Beads are available in two sizes, 2oz. jar or 6oz. jar

Scrape Beads are available infused with either Hot-N-Ready doe estrus, or Scrape Master (a 50/50 blend of doe estrus and dominate buck urine). The beads slowly release scent over time, and will last for weeks. In addition, as deer in the area visit the scrape, their urine will be absorbed by the beads. This is a great way to keep a scrape constantly producing scent. Use in existing scrapes, or create your own scrape to keep deer visiting the area.
