Reverend Alonzo Malvarez

Reverend Alonzo Malvarez is an ordained minister and missionary with the Church of God. His mission is to embrace, equip, and empower generations to fulfill the great commission. He has served in various places, from the underserved urban communities of his hometown to the nations of our world.

Following the leading of the Holy Spirit, Alonzo will serve under the Japanese Church of God Pastor, Izaya Yatsuzuka, and associate ministers to raise up a revival generation in Japan to live in the confluence of uncompromising love for God and a sincere love for others.

He believes that no field is “too dark” or “too difficult” for God to redeem.
