

THE CITIZEN

Action Thriller

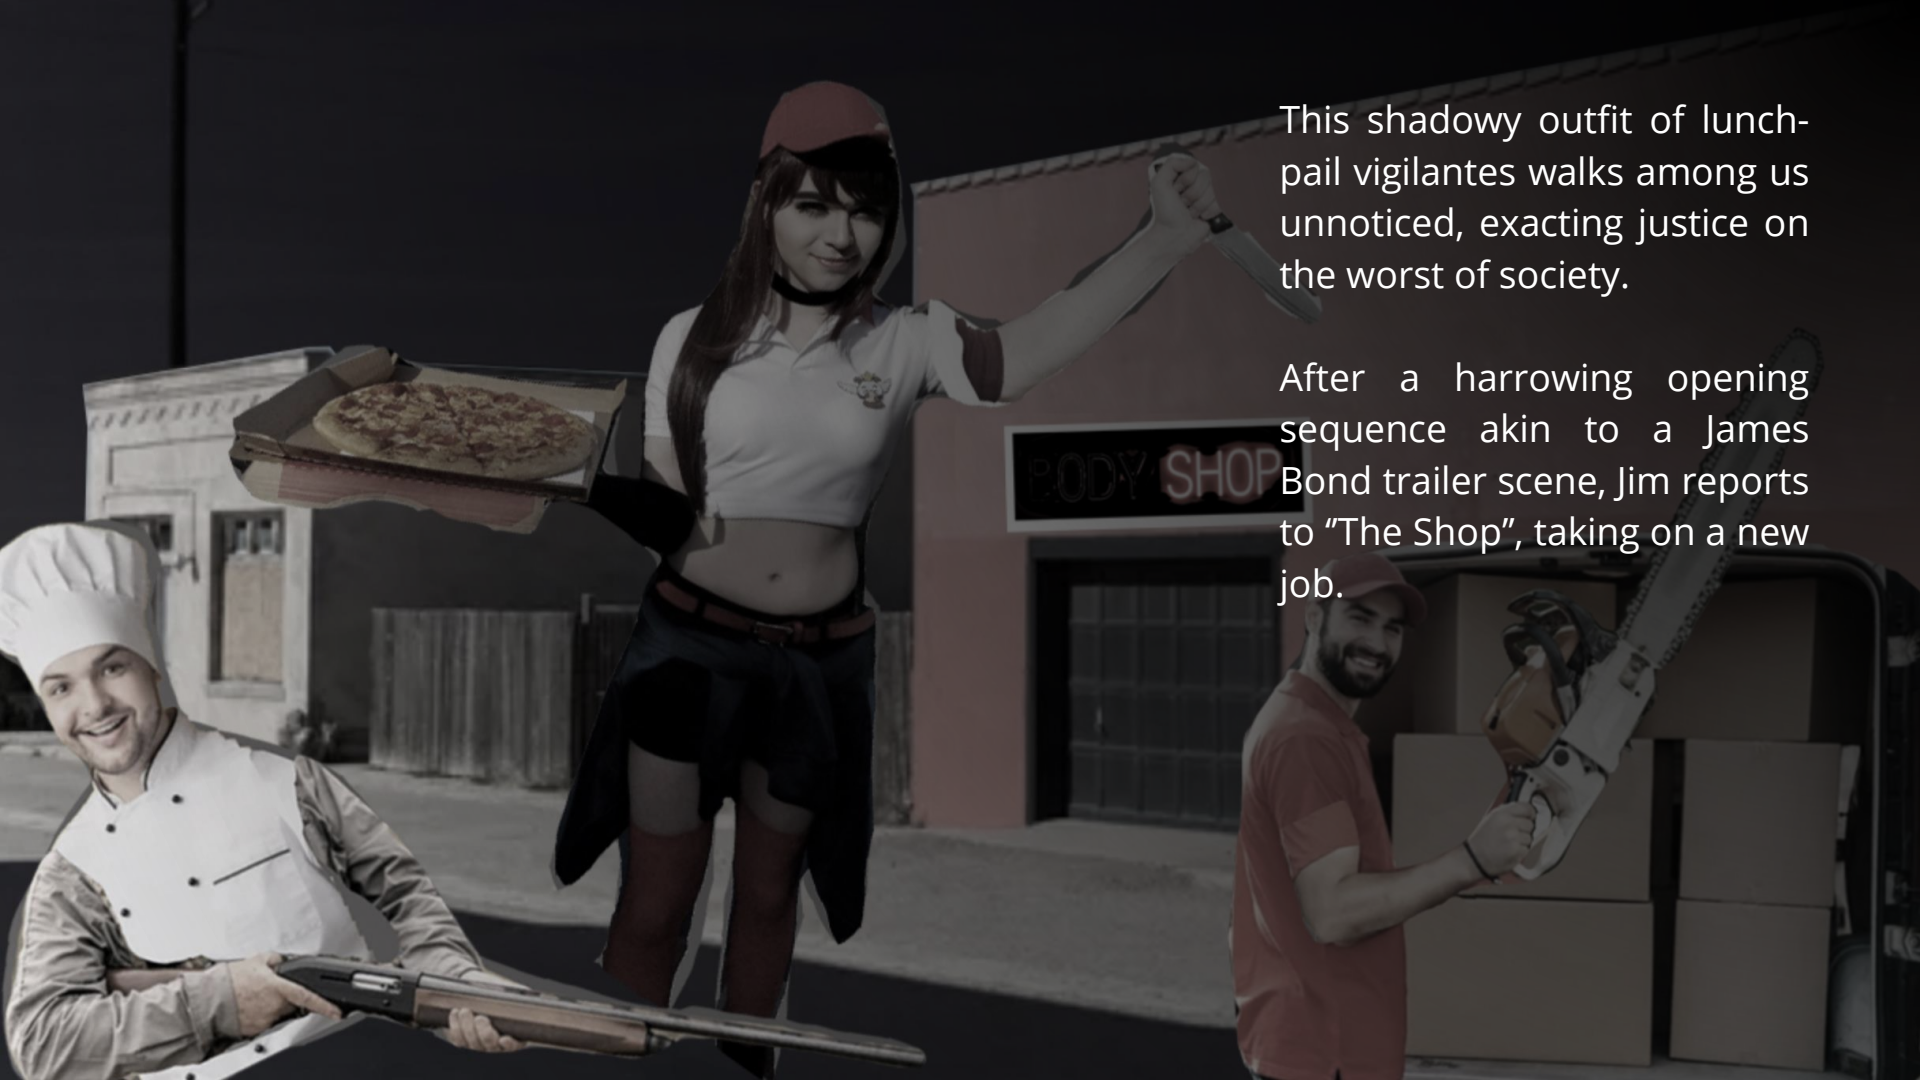

A blue-collar mercenary races against time to infiltrate and take down a domestic terror cell before it strikes a small southern community.

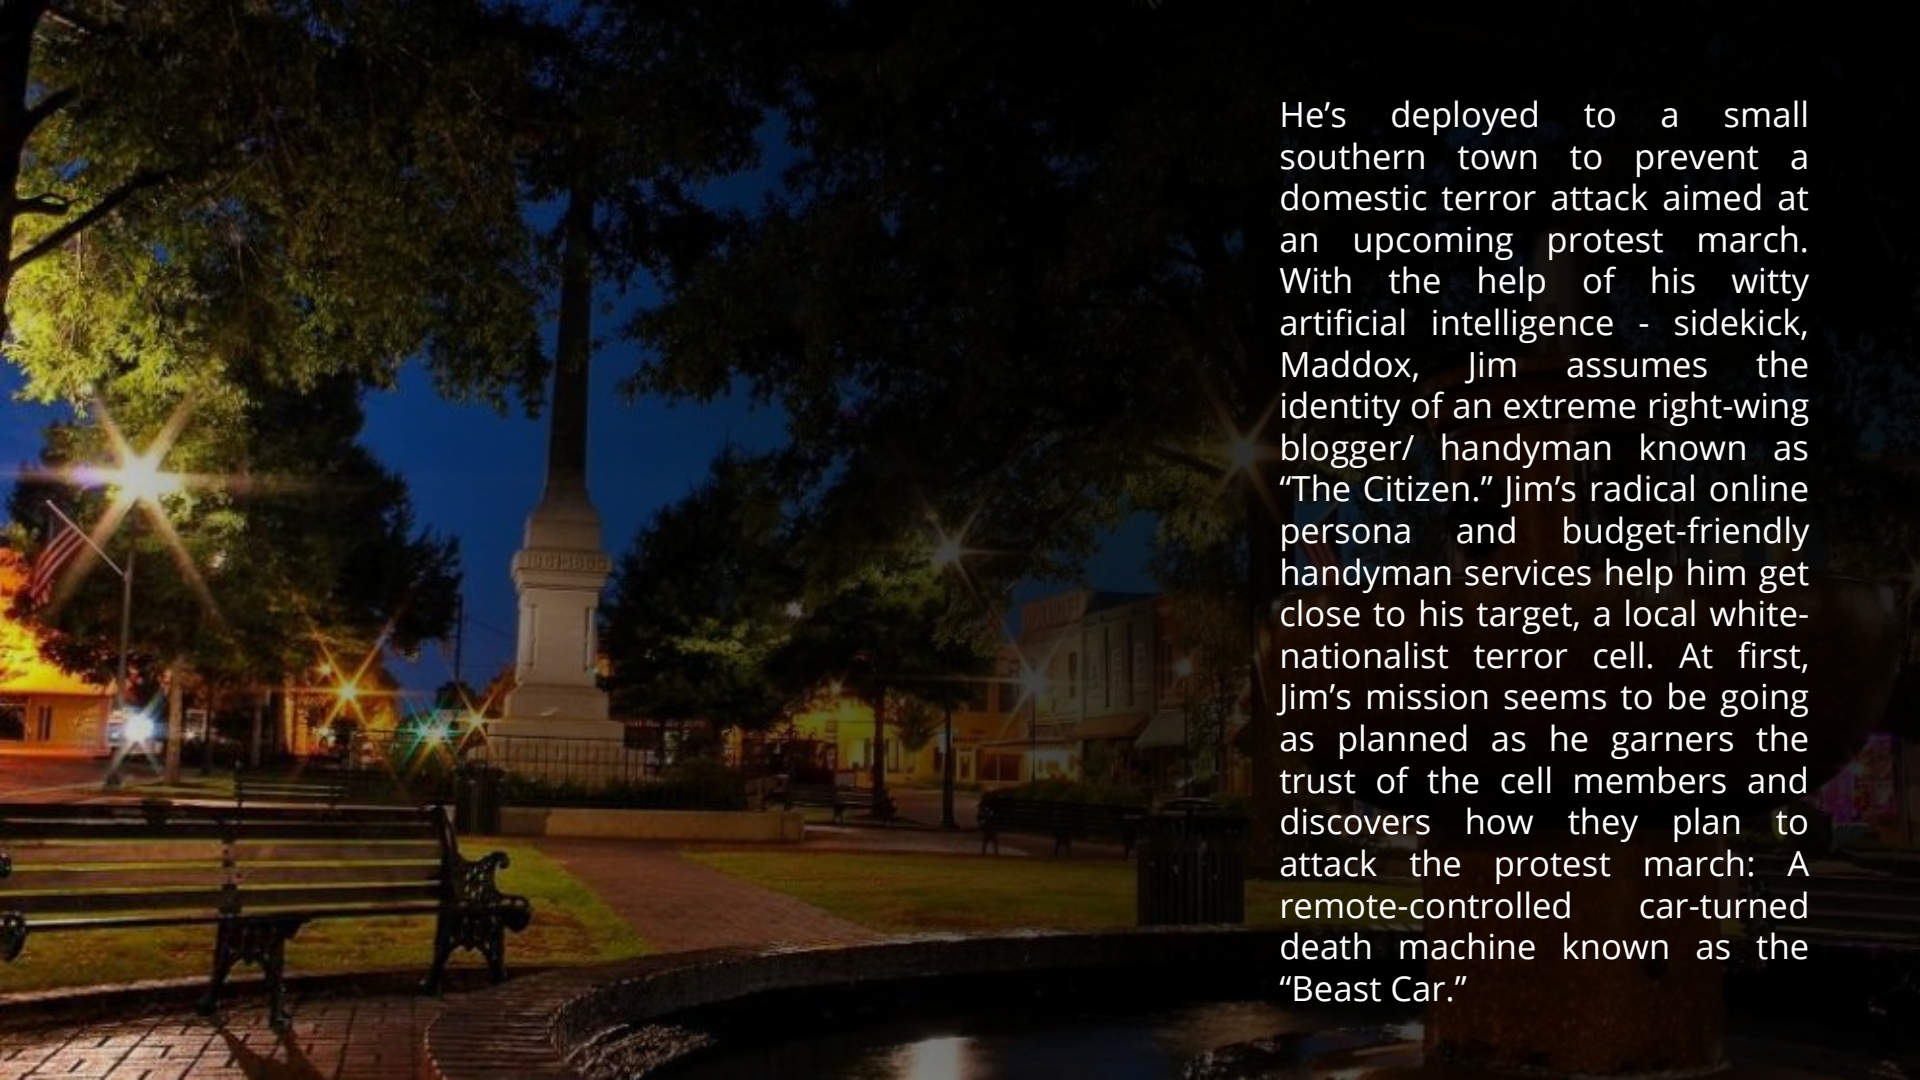

At first glance, Jim is a drifter. A forgettable sort who wanders the country taking odd jobs to survive.

But it's all a cover. He's a mercenary with a haunted past who works for an underground syndicate known as "The Shop."

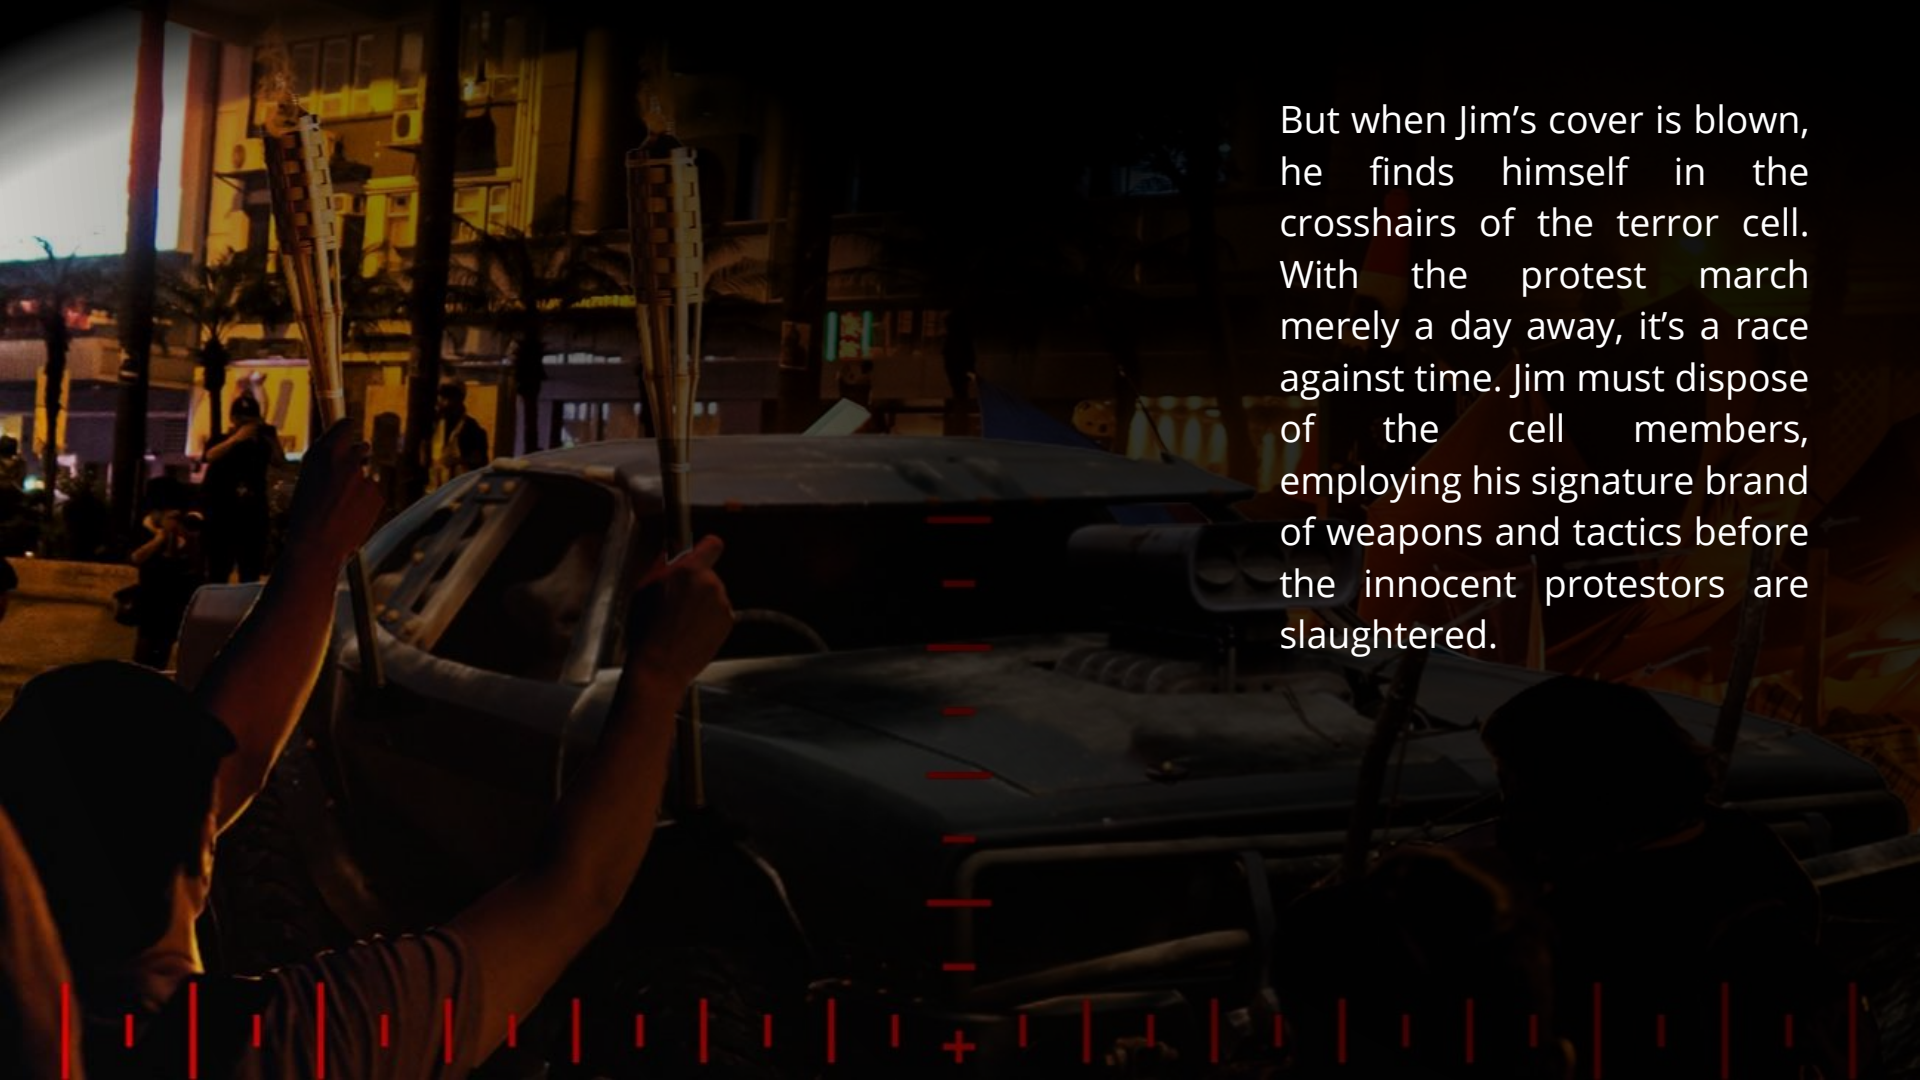

This shadowy outfit of lunch-pail vigilantes walks among us unnoticed, exacting justice on the worst of society.

After a harrowing opening sequence akin to a James Bond trailer scene, Jim reports to "The Shop", taking on a new job.

He's deployed to a small southern town to prevent a domestic terror attack aimed at an upcoming protest march. With the help of his witty artificial intelligence - sidekick, Maddox, Jim assumes the identity of an extreme right-wing blogger/ handyman known as "The Citizen." Jim's radical online persona and budget-friendly handyman services help him get close to his target, a local white-nationalist terror cell. At first, Jim's mission seems to be going as planned as he garners the trust of the cell members and discovers how they plan to attack the protest march: A remote-controlled car-turned death machine known as the "Beast Car."

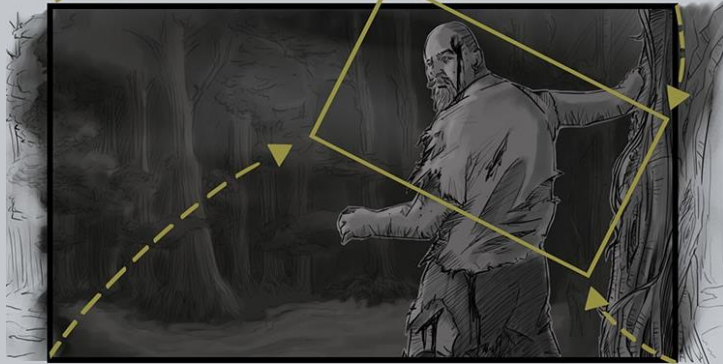

But when Jim's cover is blown, he finds himself in the crosshairs of the terror cell. With the protest march merely a day away, it's a race against time. Jim must dispose of the cell members, employing his signature brand of weapons and tactics before the innocent protestors are slaughtered.
