

Member's Code of Conduct for HOA Meetings

The Association conducts annual meeting of Members, regular meetings of the Board of Directors, and committee meetings as necessary.

The Board welcomes the presence of all Members at these meeting however, it is essential for the efficient and effective transaction of Association business at these meetings that all Members of the Association conduct themselves in a businesslike, ethical and appropriate manner that serves the best interests of the Association as a whole.

All Members are expected to adhere to the following Code of Conduct using any means available under the governing documents of state law. This Code of Conduct shall apply to all meetings.

1. Members must maintain decorum, sit quietly, and refrain from speaking until recognized by the meeting chair.
2. Members must not interrupt anyone who validly has the floor, or otherwise disrupt the meeting.
3. When speaking, members must refrain from engaging in personal oral attacks on either Board Members or fellow Association Members.
4. Members must address all remarks to the meeting chair.
5. Members must confine their comments to things germane to the agenda item being discussed.
6. Members should not speak for a second time until everyone who wants to speak has been given a chance to speak once.
7. Members must at all times behave with common courtesy and civility, and refrain from the use of abusive, rude, threatening, or crude language.
8. Members should not speak once the open session is over allowing the Board Members to conduct their business meeting without interruption.