

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What services do you offer?

A: We offer a range of event planning services from proposal set-up, romantic picnics, birthday celebrations, anniversaries to wedding planning and venue décor.

Q: Where are you based?

A: We are based in Rhodes island, Greece and our services cover the whole island. Our most popular picnic and wedding locations are Rhodes town, Kallithea, Faliraki, Afandou, Ixia, Kolymbia, Lindos, Pefkos, Lardos, Gennadi, Kiotari.

Q: Can you organize a hen-party for me?

A: Of course! We can organise a beautiful hen-party beach picnic for you and your friends with themed decorations, live music, food, drinks and more.

Q: Do you provide extras like a professional photographer, live music, cake or décor?

A: Yes! We can source just about everything for you. We work with a wide range of trusted and very talented suppliers ranging from flowers, table décor, photography, videography, live music, catering and many more.

Q: What's included in your wedding planning service?

A: We help you with planning your wedding as much or as little as you'd like us to. Our standard wedding planning offer consists of initial video or phone consultation with you, booking a ceremony and reception venue, translating all the necessary documents, submitting the documents to the local register, booking all the necessary suppliers like hair and make-up artists, photographers, musicians etc., coordinating the wedding day to ensure it all runs smoothly and to plan, decorating ceremony and reception venues and assisting you with all your wedding queries throughout the duration of the planning, during your stay on Rhodes and beyond.

Q: Where can I find more information and prices for the services you provide?

A: Most of our pricing is on our website www.holymoly-events.com. We also work with each inquiry individually and tailor make every event and experience. To find the best solution for your special occasion and for more information please contact team@holymoly-events.com