Aphid characters useful for identification (wingless adult forms)

Antennal (frontal) tubercles
(The part of the head next to the 1st antennal segment)
(Note direction of inner sides as viewed from above)

Last antennal segment
(Note length of terminal portion compared to basal portion)

(Base of antenna)

(Eye)

(Eye)

Basal portion

Terminal portion

Body length (mm)

Shape & lengths of cauda and siphunculi

Presence or absence of flange at tip of each siphunculus

Cauda

Siphunculi

Flange

Shape of inner faces of antennal tubercles
(Viewed from above)

Parallel

Diverging

Converging

Tubercles small (weakly developed)

Tubercles absent