No opinions more divided than this;
Which creature of the two the better friend make.
Felinophiles any odd quirks can dismiss,
Cynophiles brag loyalty never fake.

Cats insist appearance always be neat.
Independence is the virtue admired.
Chooses own person, then bond is complete.
No further assistance is required.

Dogs can be a traveling, hunting bud.
When come home, always overjoyed will be.
Is willing to prove faithfulness with blood.
Contented as long as you they can see.

The perfect pet will be easy to show,
whichever personality I know.
