

History of Civilization

By C. E. Warner 1-13-22

Mankind's pattern constantly repeating.

New clans rise up, conquers all before.

Old religion and culture deleting, believes invincible forevermore.

Ignores daily duties, conquered concerns.

Falls into neglect's contented stupor.

History repeats and conflict returns.

New clan brings new plan, but same future.

Egyptians, Greeks, Romans, Christians, or Moors.

Names are unimportant, path is the same.

Human nature's consistency ensures western civilization doomed to shame.

Future of the white man culture's only hope is to embrace all the other culture's scope.
