

Life's Spark

By C.E. Warner 12-19-21

One moment you are here, next you are gone.

Life is ultimate perishable gift.

Shrouded in mystery why it's withdrawn.

Doctors and theologians set adrift.

Science understands the details of when,

but can't comprehend all details of why.

Our body breaks down and fails in the end.

But some rules of physics don't apply.

About the moment doctrine quick to speak.

Volumes of opinions of our after,

But of actual event no truth will seek.

Sparks real mystery not known by pastor.

Since no answers for when I breathe my last,

I will enjoy each day until it is past.
