To Whom It May Concern,

I am honored to write this reference letter for Isabella Bertozzi, a remarkable student-athlete at Fresno State. I have had the privilege of knowing Isabella throughout her time at Fresno State, and I am consistently impressed by her dedication, positive attitude, and hard work.

Isabella maintained an outstanding GPA while balancing the rigorous demands of her team and sport. For as long as I have known Isabella, she has always had stellar time management skills; she displayed these skills daily by always being on time and managing her academics and commitments to her team.

Isabella grew up working with horses, has run summer camps for multiple years, helps run companies' social media pages in her free time, and has worked multiple internships where she has learned patience, discipline, and hard work. Those experiences not only refined her skills but also aided her ability to adapt and work efficiently in various environments.

Isabella's positive attitude and hard work are infectious: she approached every task with enthusiasm and willingness to lend a helping hand. Her ability to understand people and her drive to be better makes her a valued team member and an excellent employee.

In conclusion, Isabella Bertozzi is an outstanding individual with a unique combination of academic success, athletic skills, and strong personal qualities. She is hardworking, a team player, and an enjoyable person to be around. I have full confidence that she will continue to excel in all her future endeavors and will be a valuable asset to your team and company.
