WORDS: Isaac Watts, 1707; refrain by Ralph E. Hudson, 1885

1. Alas! and did
my Savior bleed,
and did my Sovereign die?

Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed 359

WORDS: Isaac Watts, 1707; refrain by Ralph E. Hudson, 1885

Would he devote that sacred head
for sinners such as I?

Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed 359

WORDS: Isaac Watts, 1707; refrain by Ralph E. Hudson, 1885

2. Was it for crimes that I have done,
he groaned
upon the tree?

Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed 359

WORDS: Isaac Watts, 1707; refrain by Ralph E. Hudson, 1885

Amazing pity!
Grace unknown!
And love
beyond degree!

Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed 359

WORDS: Isaac Watts, 1707; refrain by Ralph E. Hudson, 1885

5. But drops of tears can ne'er repay the debt of love I owe.

Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed 359

Here, Lord, I give myself

away;

'tis all that I can do.

2 Corinthians 5: 16 - 21

NRSVUE

16 From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we no longer know him in that way.

17 So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; look, new things have come into being!

18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and has given us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us.

20 So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ: be reconciled to God.

21 For our sake God made the one who knew no sin to be sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Luke 15:1– 3, 11 -32

NRSVUE

11 Then Jesus said, “There was a man who had two sons.

12 The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the wealth that will belong to me.’ So he divided his assets between them.

13 A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant region, and there he squandered his wealth in dissolute living.

14 When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that region, and he began to be in need.

15 So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that region, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs.

16 He would gladly have filled his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, and no one gave him anything.

17 But when he came to his senses he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger!

18 I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you;

19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands." '

20 So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him.

21 Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'¹

22 But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

23 And get the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate,

24 for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate.

25 “Now his elder son was in the field, and as he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on.

27 He replied, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has got him back safe and sound.’

28 Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him.

29 But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command, yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends.

30 But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your assets with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him!

31 Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.

32 But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.' "
